SHAWMUT WILL PROTEST.

BOSTON, June 23.—The officials of the Shawmut Motor Company tonight announced that they had decided to enter a protest against the Ford car No. 2, announced as the winner of the race. They declined to state on what grounds.

SEATTLE, June 23.—Amid the cheers of 15,000 persons who blocked the streets for blocks around the main entrance to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, a such an extent it was with difficulty the racing automobile could force its way through.

The car was seriously delayed during the last 100 miles of the race by the deep snow in Snoqualmie Pass through the Cascade Mountains. Scott said that in some places drifts were encountered five feet deep, and that the road through the Pass was the worst encountered the entire trip. He characterized the roads through New York as the best.

Owing to a rumor that was circulated saying a protest would be entered against Ford car No. 2 because it was reported to have dropped a man and afterward picked him up, the award was not made this afternoon. It is understood the report of a protest is incorrect.

CHINESE WIN HOP CASE

Supreme Court Affirms Verdict Against Lachmund & Pincus.

SALMON, Or., June 23.—(Special.)—In an opinion written by Justice Eakin, the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court for Marion County in the case of Louis Lachmund and Julius Pincus vs. Lope Sing, Oliver Beers and Fred Back. The case grew out of a struggle over a hop contract and has been in the courts for two years.

1909, but before picking time decided the Chinaman would be unable to deliver the grade of hops called for in the contract and decided to advance money for the picking, later beginning action against Lope Sing and others to recover the amount paid on the contract, with damages. The lower court rendered a verdict in favor of the Chinese farmer.

Justice Eakin, in affirming the lower court's findings, declares that as a general rule where a contract is made in a foreign country, the law of that country prevails; that if the hops were inferior through no fault of the respondent, Lope Sing, the buyer must accept the hops; that the refusal of the hop buyers to make further advances of money was virtually an abandonment of the contract.

The case of Amelia E. Morse, John Walton, William T. Moir and George Stebeken, appellants, vs. F. E. Whitcomb, David Goodsell and T. S. McClellan, respondents, the Supreme Court, in an opinion by Justice King, ordered reversed. This was an appeal from Multnomah County, where it was tried before Judge M. C. George.

The case was called this morning on a motion of Attorney John F. Clark to strike out the main portion of Mr. Eakin's answer to the complaint, on the ground that these portions of the answer were irrelevant and not material. This motion was overruled by Judge Eakin and the case went to trial.

THE PACIFIC MONTHLY

FOR JULY IS NOW ON THE NEWSTANDS

IF YOU ENJOY GOOD CLEAN HUMOR, IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY A COPY.

THE ANGEL CHILD, by Clinton Danversfield, is a delightfully humorous story of a bad little girl left in charge of a group of distracted cowboys.

JUSTICE IN HYLO, by Edith R. Mirrieles, is a bit of genuine frontier humor that you will appreciate.

THE PROFESSORS FORTH is another story of the well-worth-while kind.

Wm. Maxwell contributes a virile, blood-stirring war poem entitled "BY COURT-MARTIAL."

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, formerly of Portland, but now the rabbi of the Free Synagogue in New York City, has an article entitled "JUSTICE AND LAW." You cannot read his eloquent plea for more justice and less evasion of the law without having higher conception of your duty as a citizen.

The above are only a few of the many notable contributions to the July number. Buy a copy and when you have read it, send it to some Eastern friend.
