The executive committee in charge of the convention held a final meeting yesterday noon at the Y. W. C. A. building to put the finishing touches on the arrangements for the reception and entertainment work and to see that the chairmen of the various committees had all their plans well in hand.

All possible conveniences for the visitors have been installed in the basement of the White Temple. There are telephones, a general information bureau, felegraph station and post station. The postoffice will handle all the mail sent to the delegates during the convention. Two long tables have been placed in the center of the room for the use of those wishing to write. Convention letterheads and envelopes will be supplied free. The American Baptist Home Mission Society, the American Baptist Missionary Union and the American Baptist Publication Society also have their headquarters in the basement of the convention.

GRANGE CHAPLAIN BURIED

Two Organizations Join in Tribute to "Father" Eaton.

The funeral of Oscar Eaton, chaptain of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, and member of the G. A. R., was conducted at his home and the Congregation Church in Oswego Tuesday, under the auspices of the officers of the State Grange and G. A. R. State Master Buxton and State Lecturer Johnson, assisted by Past State Master Leedy and by members from Oswego, Milwaukie, Evening Star and other Granges, performed the rites of the church the services of the G. A. R. ware held and also at the grave the G. A. R. was in charge.

"Father" Eaton, as he was widely known, will be missed by the Patrons of Husbandry. For a number of years he had been chaptain of the State Grange, but was unable to attend the last session. He was always a welcome visitor at the subordinate granges, and on all occasions spoke entertainingly. He wrote many touching words in rhyme which he read to the granges he visited, some of which are considered of much merit.
