Senate Today Begins Debate on Income Tax and Corporation Tax.

CUMMINS TO OPEN BALL

Will Advocate Income Tax Provision in Tariff Bill-South Gets Cotton-Bagging Made Free.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—After 70 days of almost continuous debate, the Senate this afternoon concluded its discussions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. The Sen-ate then adjourned for the day to permit preparation for the corporation and in-come tax debate, which will begin Tuesday.

Aldrich told some of his friends that he would take a rew days off for a water trip if it developed that the income tax discussion is not likely to be extended. In this event, Flint will take charge of the tariff bill and Root, who aided Attorney-General Wickersham in drafting the corporation tax amendment, will take charge of that measure.

Debate Corporation Tax Today.

There has been some discussion of not presenting the income fax and corporation tax amendments until the next regular session, but this has met with little rayor. Now it is expected that only one yote will intervene between the assembling of the Senate tomorrow and the bling of the Senate tomorrow and the taking up of these questions. Tillman has pending an amendment providing for a tax of 10 cents a pound on tes, and it is said that this provision will not lend to further debate. No infimation has been given of other amendments and the discussion probably will be shifted at once from the tariff to the internal revenue. It is understood that the opening speech will be made by Cummins of Iowa, in support of an income fax as part of a support of an Income tax as part of he tariff bill.

Cotton-Bagging Made Free.

Today's proceedings consisted of a general clearing up of the passed-over provisions Early in the day McLaurin moved to place cotton bagging on the free list, and, contrary to the general expectation, the resolution prevailed. The expectation, the resolution prevailed. The Southern Senators, however, were not so fortunate with cotton ites, which they also desired to have on the free list, and on which the bill places a duty of 2-10 cent per pound. Culberson proposed the change in ties. He came within seven votes of winning, the vote standing 31 to 38. The action of the Senate will merely have the effect of throwing the rate on cotton bagging into conference.

Increase in Steel Duty.

The duty on structural iron and steel valued at more than 9-10 of a cent a pound was increased from 3-10 to 4-10 of a ent a pound, being an addition to the louse rate of 1-10 of a cent. The rate is skeel of a lower value was left unbanged. On gine in pigs there was also a addition of 12 a cent a pound over the louse rate of 1 cent.

Bacon, who offered the amendment for a duty on cotton, said that at the same rates placed on wool, cotton would produce a revenue of 55,00,000 a year. He proposed 4 cents a pound. Tillman also declared that by the adoption of his libecent rate on tea the adoption of his 16-cent rate on tea had a desperate struggle with him before another $9,000,000 could be added to the he was overpowered. Amend Corporation Tax Plan.

Refore schedules could be taken up, chapp gained the floor and with a view to eliminating from the corporation tax amondment any authority by which the corporations may own the stock of other companies, introduced a modified form of the original text of the measure. In connection with the same amendment, Culherson proposed a modification by which the information gathered by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue con-verning corporations shall at any time be available to either the House or Sen-ate or any committee of either body.

Tillman Wants Tea Duty.

An earnest speech in favor of a tariff on tea to protect the South Carolina tea industry was made by Tillman, who declared that there was in his proposition for a duty of 10 cents a pound on this product 30,000,000 of revenue and $1,000,000 for protection.

Addressing himself to Aldrich, as the embodiment of the Senate, Tillman was interrupted by the Rhode Island Senator. who suggested there were some things that cease to be joken.
"He is the Senate of the United States and he knows it." declared Tillman, pointing to Aldrich, who was sitting just across the aisle from him. Aldrich made no further reple

TAX AMENDMENT BROUGHT UP

Aldrich Presents Taft's Scheme to Senate and Solons Table It.

WASHINGTON, June 28 .- A joint resclution proposing an income tax amendment to the Constitution was reported to the Senate today by Mr. Aldrich, from the finance committee, and ordered to be printed and lie on the table. The proposed amendment follows:

"Article XVI. The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without a proportionment among the several states and without regard to any census or enumeration."

Mr. Aldrich said he thought this amendment might be passed by the Senate without debate, but Mr. Borah replied that he could not give his assent until the income-tax amendment to the tariff hill should be disposed of.

Mr. Aldrich made no further effort to obtain action. It is rumored about the Capitol that the resolution will be defeated.

CENSUS BILL READY FOR TAFT

President's Signature All Now Needed to Authorize Great Work.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—An agreement on the bill providing for the 13th census was reached by the conferees of both House and Senate today, and their report was accepted by both houses, leaving nothing but the signature of the President to make it a law.

The most important provision provides that hereafter all examinations of applicants for general civil service positions shall be conducted in the state where the applicant resides, and that persons taking the examinations shall have been actually domiciled in the state for at least a year. Only one person from a family will be admitted to the service.

DRESSER SHEDS MORE LIGHT ON SHIPBUILDING SCHEME.

Borrowed $300,000 From Own Bank Because French Investors Would Not Bite.

SARATOGA, N. Y. June 28.—Daniel Le Rol Dresser, ex-president of the Trust Company of the Republic, continued his testimony as a witness in the case of Charles H. Cavenaugh against the former directors of the company to compel the restoration of money alleged to have been lost through financing the United States Shipbuilding Company. The loans on the shipbuilding securities, the witness said.

Salphuliding Company. The loans on the shiphuliding securities, the witness said, were presented in the customary way to the executive committee.

Questioned as to a foan of $300,000 made on July 24, 1992, by the trust company to the witness, which was paid in October following. Dresser said there was no suggestion that such a loan was illegal. The loan was used, he said, by the Board of Directors. At the time it became of Directors. At the time it became necessary to pay over about $5,000,000 for the constituent companies of the shipbuilding company on August 11, 1907, there was found to be a deficiency of over $2,000,000 the French underwritings having failed to produce a dollar of the $3,000,000 which it was reported had been placed in Paris.

When the name of William D. Baldwin, one of the agents, was called as a witness, his attorney stated he had gone to Europe. Counsel for Perry Belmont, another defendant, stated that Mr. Belmont left for Europe last December, when he was not under subpens, and that he had no intention of returning until November.

VANCOUVER, Wash, June 28.—(Special.)—There has been a constant pligrimage today by citizens of Vancouver to the old "Witness Tree" that fell into the river Sunday afternoon, and there will be few people in the city who will not have in their possession some part large or small, of the historic tree.

The Woodmen of the World have sawed six blocks from the trunk of the tree and these blocks will be polished and used in the lodge rooms. It is likely that a block from the trunk will be preserved in the City Hall, in the park and in the Public Library, and part of the tree will be sent to the State Historical Society.

There is universal regret on the part of the people at the loss of the old witness tree.

Insist Article Was Signed.

In rebuttal the prosecution called Charles R. Miller, editor of the Times, who declared that Cleveland's signature in evidence was the one attached to the article when it was received by the Times. Charles A. Lincoln, Sunday editor of the Times, said that he himself had cut the Cleveland signature off the article Brandenburg sold the newspaper. Frances Belascoer, secretary to Mr. Deck, of the Times, told of receiving the article back from Brandenburg. She identified the article in evidence as the one Brandenburg gave her.

Mrs. Cleveland, widow of the ex-President, was questioned briefly as to the dates of visits made by Mr. Cleveland to New York in 1908. New York in 1908.

Says Finley Tells Falschood. Brandenburg himself took the stand as Brandenburg himself took the stand as the last witness. He characterized as "absolutely false" President Finley's statement that Brandenburg said Mr. Teveland signed the first typewritten document he took to him. President John Finley, of the cellege of the City of New York, had testified that Brandenburg had told him that he (Brandenburg) had transcribed Mr. Cieveland's notes of the articles and had taken them back and had them signed.
