POLICE TRACE ALL LEON'S MOVEMENTS

Head of New York Detective Bureau Says Chinese Will Be Found in Long Run.

GOOD SLEUTHING IS DONE

Whole Country Said to Be Trap for Fugitive—Police in Other Cities Are All Aiding Officers of Gotham.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Inspector McCafferty, chief of the New York detective bureau, gave tonight the first authentic statement on the murder of Elsie Sigel that has been made by the police since the discovery of the girl's body on June 18 in a trunk in the bedroom of Leon Ling.

"We shall catch the murderer," the inspector said. "Delay does not alter that, although it chafes us. The whole country is one vast rat trap, with every exit guarded.

"The girl was killed June 9, and we believe that Leon Ling is the man who did it, with Chung Sin, his room-mate, as a possible accomplice.

Leon Sent Telegram.

"From his room in Eighth avenue Leon Ling went straight to Washington and there sent the 'don't worry' telegram signed 'Elsie,' received on the night of the murder by the Sigel family. From Washington he returned to New York, and about midnight on June 9 took the body in a trunk to Newark, N. J., arriving there about 2 A. M., June 10. We don't know how he took it. All available records of the various taxicab companies have been searched, but there are many privately-owned machines that keep no records.

"Unable to dispose of this trunk, Leon returned to New York with the body on the afternoon of June 10, and left it in his room. From this moment we lose all trace of him, so far as we know, he had no other possible accomplice than Chung Sin.

All Police Helping.

"No other murder that I can remember attracted such widespread attention or such enthusiastic co-operation by the police of other cities. We have 50 men of our own in the cities of the East.

"The only possible ship on which Leon could have left the country is due to arrive in Yokohama on July 3. She will be watched. The man cannot get out of the country otherwise. If he is alive we shall catch him."

"What about the theory that Leon is dead?" Police Inspector McCafferty was asked today.

Rumor From Washington.

"Well, if Leon is dead, we have one of the men that killed him under arrest and we can lay our hands on another in five minutes," he repli d.

A story that Elsie Sigel might have been murdered in Washington was evolved from statements in an anonymous letter which Louis Fock, Chinaman who has given some assistance to the police in their work on the case, today reported having received. Fock says the writer of the letter, which is Chinese, declares that Miss Sigel and Leon Ling were seen in Washington on the afternoon of June 9. The authorities were not inclined to place much credence in the letter.

All the Chinese laundries in the city that are operated by four companies in the name of individual managers, received notices today in Chinese from the owners warning employes that they must have nothing to do with white women except on laundry business on pain of dismissal.

FLEES WITH GYPSY MAID

CUPID IN CARAVAN SMITES LAD ON TRAIL.

Arriving by Wagon in Portland, He Hoards Coin to Join Nomad Sweetheart.

After weeks of suspense interspersed with prayers for the return of their wandering 17-year-old son, the parents of Eddie Lindquist, who has disappeared from his home at 335 North Twentieth street, appealed to the police last night to aid them in their search. The boy is believed to be with a band of gipsies in Southern Oregon and in the story told by the distracted parents lies a romance in which the youth and a pretty gipsy girl of his own age are principals.

While en route by wagon to this city from their former home in Northern California two months ago, the family, consisting of the parents, a 12-year-old daughter and the son, halted near Corvallis. They sighted several "prairie schooners" similar to their own coming down the trail, and eventually a gipsy caravan neared the spot where the Lindquists camped. After an exchange of salutations the newcomers agreed with the elder Lindquist that the spot was ideal for camping purposes and in the course of the evening the youthful son of the Lindquist household met the gipsy maid. That night they sat beside the camp fires until the last flames twinkled from the glowing fagots. For the three days following on the trail the boy and gipsy girl were constant companions. Then came the parting of the ways and the lovelorn lad accompanied his parents to this city.

Before parting, however, the lovers secured the confidence of the male members of the gipsy band, through whom young Lindquist corresponded secretly with his gipsy sweetheart. It is believed the itinerary of the caravan was given in the letters that passed.

Upon arrival of the youth and his parents in Portland he obtained work. For three weeks he hoarded his earnings and ultimately purchased a railroad ticket, which, the parents think, transported him to one of the towns on the gipsy caravan's itinerary. The lad disappeared three weeks ago. His parents believed that he would return, delaying the report of the runaway until yesterday.

DAY IS SPENT IN SPOKANE

National Suffragist Delegates See Eastern Washington City.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 28.—Three special cars, filled with 85 women, delegates to the National Equal Suffrage Convention at Seattle, arrived here this morning and were entertained by local suffragists with automobile rides, a reception and a banquet.

This evening an open session was held at the First Methodist Church, many of the visitors taking part. The church, which has a capacity of 3000, was crowded.

Mrs. Rachel Avery, vice-president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, and president of the Pennsylvania association, leads the delegation. Others prominent are Mrs. Florence Kelly, second vice-president; Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, treasurer; Miss Caroline Lexow, of New York; Mrs. Ella H. Crossett, of Warsaw, N. Y.; Mrs. Matilda Orr Hayes and Miss Lutcy Anthony, a niece of Susan B., of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Florence Kelley, of New York, and Mrs. Clara Laddley, of New Jersey, who took part in the informal sessions held under the roof of Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, of Spokane, one of the state leaders.

"We are going to do everything in our power to help Washington, Oregon and South Dakota in their campaigns for constitutional amendments now pending," said Mrs. Kelley, of New York, voicing the sentiment as the spokesman for her group. Automobile rides and excursions were given the women visitors by Spokane suffragettes this afternoon, a circus parade exciting their attention this morning.

B'NAI B'RITH INSPECTED

GRAND PRESIDENT EDMUND TAUSZKY HERE.

Talks of Order and Its Purpose, Which Is to Make Good Americans of Jews.

Edmund Tauszky, grand president of the Pacific Coast district of the B'nai B'rith, arrived in Portland last night from San Francisco on his annual inspection four of the various lodges under his jurisdiction. Mr. Tauszky was accompanied by Judge Isidore Golden, of San Francisco, who is taking the place of Rabbi Jacob Nieto, grand orator of the B'nai B'rith, who was unable to make the trip.

Mr. Tauszky is one of the ablest lawyers of San Francisco. His party, which includes his wife and the wife of Judge Golden, was met at the Union Depot by Isaac Swett, first vice-president of the order, and I. L. White, district deputy, and was escorted by them to the Portland Hotel. This afternoon Tauszky and Judge Golden will be taken on an automobile trip over the city, and tonight the two will address a joint meeting of Theodore Herzl and Portland lodges of the B'nai B'rith in the Selling-Hirsch building. Tomorrow Mr. Tauszky will be occupied with business connected with the order, and on Friday he and Judge Golden will leave for Seattle, Spokane, Butte and Salt Lake.

"The B'nai B'rith on the Pacific Coast is in a flourishing condition," said Mr. Tauszky last night. "My last act before leaving San Francisco was to sign a contract for a new building for the order at Eddy and Mason streets, which, with furnishings, will cost about $125,000. This building is to be completed by February, in time for the next annual convention."

While Mr. Tauszky and Judge Golden are attending the meeting tonight their wives will be guests of Mrs. Swett and Mrs. White at a box party at the Bungalow to see Ethel Barrymore.

PRIMARY LAW IS UPHELD

SOCIALISTS LOSE FIGHT IN CALIFORNIA CASE.

Entire State Supreme Bench Concurs in Deciding New Law Is Perfectly Constitutional.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The constitutionality of the direct primary law enacted by the last Legislature on March 29, 1909, was sustained today by the Supreme Court. The justices unanimously concurred in an opinion written by Justice W. G. Lorigan, denying the petition of the Socialist party for a writ of mandamus to compel the Election Commissioner of this city and county to hold the August primaries under the primary law of 1905.

The validity of the new law was upheld at every point. The concurrence of Justice M. F. Angelletti is contained in a separate opinion, in which he concurs in the judgment of his associates, but disagrees on one point, that respecting the right of a candidate to go before the people with more than one nomination to the same office at any election.

The majority of the court held that this is denied by the terms of the act, but Justice Angelletti disagreed, maintaining that a candidate should be allowed to secure as many nominations as he could, that being the "obvious intention" of the law in allowing voters to write the name of any candidate they chose on the ballot.

CAPTAIN FILES PROTEST

Insists That $5000 Fine on Bessie Dollar Be Revoked.

ASTORIA, Or., June 28.—(Special.)—Captain R. L. Morton, master of the British steamer Bessie Dollar, filed a protest in the Custom-House today against the fine of $5000 imposed by Collector McGregor on his vessel a few days ago for failure to bring a Consular bill of health from Guaymas, Mexico, upon her arrival from that port last Friday.

In his protest, Captain Morton says that he sailed from Guaymas on June 14 for Nanaimo, B. C., expecting to go direct to that port and with no knowledge as to where the vessel would be ordered from there; that on June 20, when off Point Conception, orders were signalled him to proceed to the Columbia River in place of going to British Columbia. Captain Morton says he did not get an American Consular bill of health as he did not know he was coming to an American port, and adds that had he known this, he would have secured the required health bill if one were obtainable at Guaymas. He asked that the fine be cancelled. The protest will be forwarded to the Department in Washington.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Louise Ottersen and Otto Ottersen, of 986 Mallory avenue, wish to extend to their many friends many thanks for their kindness in their bereavement in the loss of their husband and father, Fred Ottersen, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough it's supreme. 50c and $1.00 trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

THIRD REGIMENT IN SPLENDID FORM

National Guard Infantrymen Make Good Showing at Inspection.

300 MEN ARE IN LINE

Service Uniforms Are Worn and Command Turns Out in Shape for Active Service—Ready for Field Exercises.

With the largest turnout in years and with a showing of efficiency that would do credit to the Regular Army, the Third Oregon Infantry was inspected, mustered and reviewed at the Armory last night, preparatory to the field exercises which occur next month at the Clackamas rifle range in conjunction with those of the First United States Infantry.

Three hundred officers and men, or 94 per cent of the total strength of the six Portland companies, were in line and an imposing spectacle was presented as the men, wearing khaki uniforms, passed in review. Two thousand spectators, who filled the galleries over the spacious drill hall, kept up a lively round of applause as each of the companies appeared, for each of the six companies was at its best and each seeking to appear just a trifle better than the others.

The regiment was in command of Colonel C. E. McDonell, with Major John L. May acting as Lieutenant-Colonel and Majors F. S. Baker and T. N. Dunbar in command of the first and second battalions, respectively. In the reviewing party were General C. F. Beebe, a former commander in the Guard; Adjutant-General W. E. Finzer, Judge C. U. Gantenbein, former Colonel of the regiment; Major Greenleaf and Captain Frank Freeman, former Guardsman, who were members of General Beebe's staff. The companies were commanded as follows: Company E, Captain Charles Smith; Company B, Captain W. W. Wilson; Company F, Captain L. E. Crouch; Company H, Captain Roy Doble; Company K, Captain R. O. Scott; Company C, Captain Loren Bowman. The ambulance company, presenting an excellent appearance, was in command of Captain M. B. Marcellus.

General Beebe, on behalf of the reviewing party, took occasion to compliment the regiment on its good showing and said that after having seen many organizations of the Regular Army, he couldn't help but feel the Third Oregon could hold its own, whether on review or in the field. Such a regiment, he said, could well be looked upon by the National Government as a part of its regular military force, and he saw in the command a consummation of the hopes of the Guard of earlier days, when it was purely a state establishment and did not receive its financial support chiefly from the Government.

The regimental band was in excellent form and revealed the fact that it must take its place as one of the leading bands of the state. There were 46 pieces and the bandsmen exhibited the results of long months of practice. The band is easily at the highest state of efficiency of any time within the existence of the regiment.

The large and enthusiastic response for review and inspection made it plain there is to be a heavy attendance at the camp of instruction, which opens July 12 and continues for a period of seven days. The programme is already partially drafted for the instruction camp and at least one big maneuver problem, with a night's bivouac, is included.

QUARREL LEADS TO ACID

Woman Attempts Suicide on Road Near Cemetery.

As a sequel to a family quarrel, Mrs. A. M. Addison, 350 Hawthorne avenue, made a futile effort to end her life last night by swallowing carbolic acid in a lonely spot on the Taylor Ferry road, near Fulton. Before she succeeded in the attempt, her groans attracted the attention of John Bleeg, a sexton in the Jewish Cemetery, a few blocks distant. She was revived and taken to her home on a streetcar. Later she was removed to a hospital by City Physician Ziegler. At an early hour this morning she was pronounced entirely out of danger.

According to the story told by neighbors, a quarrel ensued between herself and husband earlily in the afternoon. The acme of their argument was reached when she left their home shortly after 7 o'clock, in a fit of anger, threatening to kill herself. In a statement made before she was removed to the hospital shortly after midnight, the woman said she left her home and, after purchasing the acid at a drugstore, boarded a car for Fulton, with the avowed intention of killing herself in the Greenwood Cemetery. At the gates of the burial ground she found her entrance barred. She subsequently retraced her steps down the lonely Taylor Ferry road and, after selecting a spot by the roadside, raised the vial of acid to her lips and drank almost the entire contents.

A. M. Addison, the husband, is a patrolman. The woman conducts the Jols rooming-house.

Ingredients give to Hood's Sarsaparilla its great curative power—power to cure many and varied complaints, including diseases of the blood, ailments of the stomach, troubles of the kidneys and liver.

Many of the ingredients are just what the profession prescribe in the ailments named, but the combination and proportions are peculiar to this medicine and give it curative power peculiar to itself.

Therefore, there can be no substitute for Hood's. Get it in the usual liquid form, or in tablets called Sarsatabs.
