

COLTS TURN INTO AIRSHIP BRIGADE

Everything Goes to Pieces in Ninth and Cats Gather in Five Runs.

ABERDEEN WINS, 6 TO 2

Casey Takes Himself out in Eighth, and After That Seaton Forgets to Pitch Curves and Fielders Neglect to Gather in Hits.

As soon as Manager Casey took himself out of the game to let Tom Murray bat in the eighth inning, that bunch of erratic Colts simply cut all the strings yesterday and allowed the balloon to go as high as it could, for in the ninth inning, the score 2 to 1 in Portland's favor, Aberdeen registered five runs after two men were out. It was simply awful, and Tom Seaton, who had succeeded in puzzling the Aberdeen batters with his curve ball for eight innings, suddenly stopped using that kind, and his straight ones were hit to the far corners. The game ended 6 to 2 for Aberdeen.

However, both runs scored by Portland were due to muffed fly balls by LeJeune and Campbell, and the first Aberdeen score resulted from errors, so the ninth should have opened with each team runless. In the ninth Streib was the first man up and went out. Seaton failed to find the plate on Campbell and the blonde walked. Swain flew to Garry, making two out. At this juncture Campbell stole second and went to third on the play because Fournier threw to center field and Garry allowed the ball to roll away.

Then Seaton decided for himself that Bower was easier meat than LeJeune, and passed the big fellow to the catcher. Bower was knocked galley-west when Bower shot a two-bagger to left, scoring Campbell and LeJeune. Jack Herbert was the next victim and he also walked. Charley Moore then popped a little fly to left field, which Hansey loafed on and then threw badly to Fournier, which resulted in Moore following Bower and Herbert over the register.

It was a "glorious" finish, and a few more like it ought to finish some of the present members of Casey's team. The Black Cats and the Colts meet again today, and Manager Casey has promised to play out the entire game. When he is on deck there is a chance of the team remaining on the ground, otherwise they seem to think they are members of some Aero Club.

Walter MacFarlane, president of the Black Cats, was on hand yesterday, and he did not overlook the opportunity of expressing his delight at the finish. We don't wish you any bad luck, Mac, but here's hoping you have to remain quiet all the rest of the week.

That Aberdeen finish is something that should not be repeated, at least not in the same manner.

There were a couple of Aberdeen people present yesterday in addition to the MacFarlanes. They had a good time.

Eddie Siever pitched good enough ball to win any game, but luck alone broke his way yesterday.

Spokane visited Seattle yesterday and all you have to do is to look at the hit column. Going some, eh?

Spokane collected 15 hits, but of course it was the poor umpire who was responsible for the Seattle defeat. See Seattle papers.

Claffin, who started the Seattle team's troubles last week, shut out Vancouver yesterday, making his second consecutive victory of the kind.

Ed Kennedy did not like Siever's pitching, for "Old Roughneck" threw three times. Ed tried to wait the south-paw out twice, but Siever was not in a liberal mood.

Garry had a busy day in center field, for six of the Black Cats flew to his territory. The big fellow also walked until the ninth before getting a hit and then landed a corking double.

Phil Cooney had a busy day in that short field, and the little fellow fielded everything accurately. He also hit in hard luck for three line drives off his bat were gobbed by the Cats.

McCredie's bunch plays the Oakland team at Oakland this afternoon, and the tall manager is anxious to get away with this series, for he needs the game.

Yesterday was an off day among the Coasters and the Northwestern League ought to have one as well. At least such appears to be the case, judging by the crowds out Mondays.

Sheldon LeJeune, the big Aberdeen center fielder, is limping from an injured heel. Streib is also slightly lame, but both manage to get around in lively fashion.

Fleider Jones says Siever should have failed to cover first in the sixth, and the fans would have seen a pretty race to the bag between the cripples, Casey and Streib.

"Chief" Pinnance will pitch for Portland today and he will be opposed by Starkell. "Red" Kreltz, the Oregon city boy, will probably catch for Aberdeen.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Baseball followers are discussing a report that President Comiskey, at the close of the season, is said to have found a successor to Fleider Jones in Joe Cantillon, manager of the Washington American League team, who will replace Billy Sullivan as manager at the close of the season.

Forbes to Fight Again. CHICAGO, June 28.—Harry Forbes, former bantamweight champion of the world, is preparing to re-enter the ring. Forbes will meet Monte Attell before the Columbia Athletic Club of Hammond, July 12, if the latter will agree to terms.

Watkins Unearths Find. CONOWAY, WISCONSIN ATHLETE, TO AID MULTNOMAH. Has Records to His Credit in Weight Events—Chances Look Good for A. U. Meet.

Frank E. Watkins, manager of the Multnomah Club track team, which will take part in the A. A. U. meet at the State Exposition next month, has unearthed a find in A. B. Conoway, a former Wisconsin athlete, who is just now practicing law at Enterprise, Or. He has written to express his readiness to don the club's colors. Conoway has been out of college only a year, but has kept himself in such good physical trim in the meantime that he could enter a meet with very little training.

In his Conoway is a strapping young Hercules. He stands 6 feet 3 inches in height and weighs 230 pounds. He took second in the shot-put and third in the hammer-throw in the big Western conference meet at Chicago in 1907, and he holds the shot-put record of the Iowa Intercollegiate Association, besides the hammer and shot-put records of the Missouri Athletic Association. Watkins is confident that Conoway can do his part towards taking care of the weight club at the meet with full credit to the club, even in case Ralph Rose, Flanagan, Sheridan and McGrath are among his competitors.

In addition to his ability as a track athlete, Conoway is also a strong football player. On his college team he held down one of the guard positions for several years. As he likes the game and has written to Watkins that he would like to meet some of the club's football men and have a look at their lineup, it is probable it will be seen on the field in the coming season. Another strong weight man who is preparing to go into the A. A. U. meet for the club is Henry M. McKinney, the old University of Oregon athlete, who still holds the Northwest record for the best heave of the shot. McKinney is working out on a farm with the discus and shot and will train with the hammer soon. August he will be in the best of condition. Unusual interest attaches to McKinney's return to the track, for he is expected to try to break some of his previous records at the coming meet.

It looks now as though the defection of the Oregon athletes who were intending to run at the meet for the Seattle Athletic Club, which secured "Bill" Hayward for trainer, will not hurt the club's chances in the least. Oliver B. Huston, Oregon's speedy sprinter, who is good for 19 flat in the hundred on any kind of a track and has done 9.45, has promised that he will run for Multnomah if he runs at all. Edwin Davis, the sensational young freshman half-miler, is the only man now particularly desired by the club whose plans are at present doubtful. It is believed, however, that Davis will decide to run for Multnomah. If he does, Watkins' team will be practically completed, for the distances are the only events where it is weak.
