Fourth United Brethren Church was organized Sunday afternoon, three blocks south of the Tremont station, on the Mount Scott railway, by Rev. H. C. Shaffer, superintendent. W. O. Zeigler, John Zeigler and J. Duffy were elected trustees. A short service was conducted in the open air. Two lots were purchased yesterday and lumber for a chapel will be ordered at once. Prospects for a strong church are considered encouraging. Until a chapel is built meetings will be held in a tent. Rev. Mr. Shaffer announces that a new building for the Third United Brethren Church will be erected in the South Mount Tabor district this year, and plans will be adopted for the building within about a month. A lot has been secured.

ACCIDENT: VICTIM UNCONSCIOUS.—John Kirk, of 189 Park street, chief bartender at the Turn Halle saloon, who was seri-ously injured in a runaway accident Sun-Kirk, of 189 Park street, chief bartender at the Turn Halle saloon, who was seriously injured in a runaway accident Sunday morning on the Sholls Ferry road, lies at the Good Samaritan Hospital in a condition of coma from which he has not recovered since the accident. Chances for his ultimate recovery are considered slim by attending physicians. The remaining members of the party, consisting of Miss M. Piggott, also of 189 Park street; Jack Ehrlein, a pressman; Ed. Liebes and wife, of 373 Columbia street, and Jack Smith, a bartender, are on the road to recovery from their injuries.

FUNERAL of Mrs. Susan Starbuck, The funeral of Mrs. Susan Starbuck, who died Saturday last, was held yesterday morning at her home, 166 East Sixty-first street North, and the interment was in Rose City Cemetery. Mrs. Starbuck had been a resident of Oregon for 45 years and was the stepmother of Rev. T. H. Starbuck, of this city. She had lived in Portland for a number of years, having moved here with her husband, E. Starbuck from their Polk County farm where they settled in 1866. The funeral was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the family.

Whereas, that we have been reliably informed of the fact that the murderer has never professed to be a Christian nor was never professed to be a Christian nor was he a member of any denomination, and that the murdered woman was employed solely by the said murderer as a private futor; now therefore, be it
Hesolved, That we, the members of the Chinese Christian Union of the City of Portland, here assembled, do hereby protest against the unjust and misleading reference to the Chinese people in this country as a whole; and be it further.
Resolved, That we, professing to have some ideas of Christianity, and being able to discern between right and wrong, do hereby pledge ourselves jointly and severally to render all the assistance that may be within our province, the said murderer, who is so Illustriously heraided as a socalled Christianized Chinese; be it further Resolved, That this resolution be spread broadcast to show our willingness to uphold the laws of this, the Christian land.

BLANKET PLAN PROPOSED

New System of Insuring School Buildings Is Advocated.

A new system for insuring buildings and property of school district No. 1 was recommended to the Board of Education yesterday afternoon by Director Sabin, chairman of the committee on insurance.

Mr. Sabin wants to adopt what is known as the blanket plan, which makes each policy cover a certain percentage of everything owned by the district. The matter was laid over for further consideration, and in the meantime local agents will work out a detailed scheme for presentation at a future meeting.
