BY W. J. PETRAIN.

For the first time this season the Portland ball tossers doing service in the Northwestern League beat Aber-deen with "Hub" Pernoll in the box. Yesterday"s game was a rattling good Yesterday's game was a rattling good one and Chief Pinnance pitched shutout ball all the way, while the batting of Fred Adams was responsible for the two runs secured by Portland. Score, Portland 2. Aberdeen 0.

However, it may have been the mistake of the Aberdeen team in using the third left handed pitcher against Portland in the same week. Hickey, of Vancouver, pitched Sunday, Selver, of Aberdeen, Monday, and Pernoll yesterday, all southpaws.

Portland scored in the first inning when Cooney led off with a safe hit, was sacrificed by Bassey and rang the gong on a pretty single to center by Adams. The latter was morgued at second trying to take two bases, while the midget shortstop was scoring.

Adams again distinguished himself in the sixth. Bassey hit a sharp one to left, and immediately stole second. This brought Adams to bat in the pinch the second time, and the California boy made good with a safe hit that scored Bassey with the second and last run.

Pinnance pitched one of the best

Pinnance pitched one of the best games of the season, for he was always on the job and working the opposing batsmen. In the sixth inning, after Streib had fanned, Campbell hit for three bases, wheheupon Pinnance fanned Swalm, a most dangerous hitter, and caused Seiver to pop a fly to Staton. This was the only time the Chief was in danger.

In the fifth inning States

In the fifth inning Staton might just as well have had three bases on his hit as two, for he stopped at second when he could have made third. This play, with only one out, undoubtedly cost Partiand one sun. Portland one run

Big Bill Chinault will pitch for Portland today, while Aberdeen will rely either on Ovitz or Starkell. The official score of yesterday's game is as follows: ABERDEEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29. - (Special.) - A close decision in the ninth inning, when Umpire McCarthy called Speas out at the plate, prevented the Beavers getting on level terms today, Beavers getting on level terms today, the Oaklands winning by a score of 4 to 3. With third and first occupied, Breen flew to Murphy in the right garden, and Speas made a dash for the plate. Murphy wasted no time peging perfectly to Mickey La Longe, but whether the Portlander reached home before he was tagged was the cause of much argument. much argument as the crowd melted away.

Druhot was the slabster selected by McCredle, but after one disastrous inning, in which four runs and four hits were annexed from his deliveries, he was yanked out of the box and Carson substituted. The latter held the Oaklands down to two scratchy hits, and at no time appeared to be in any distress. Boice pitched himself out of many holes, but allowed no one to cross the plate except in the fourth inning, when three men tallied.

Druhot's brief experience was as follows: Murphy hit one too hot for Druhot's brief experience was as follows: Murphy hit one too hot for Breen to handle, and took second when Carroll was hit by the pitcher. Both men advanced a base on Duffy Lewis' sacrifice. Cameron laid down a neat bunt and landed safely at the initial sack, while Murphy tailied. Hogan followed with a line drive to center, scoring Carroll, and McKune's double sent home the two occupants of the bags.

The Portland runs were made in the fourth inning, Olson walking and tagging the plate on Breen's three-sacker. Johnson lifted, the ball over the left-field fence, scoring himself and Breen.

Johnson lifted, the ball over the left-field fence, scoring himself and Breen. McCredie had three chances to burst into the spectacular during the game, but the best he could do on each occa-sion was to fly to Duffy Lewis, whose doughty arm held the base runners at the third corner.
