

TAFT WARNS PARTY TO KEEP PROMISE

Or People May Put It in Opposition.

REFERS TO TARIFF DEBATE

Speech to Yale Graduates Draws Applause.

ALL KINDS OF DEMOCRATS

After Defining Them as Straight, Rectified and Imitation, He Gives Republicans Warning of Judgment to Come.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 30.—President Taft paused in the course of an after-dinner speech to 1500 graduates of Yale gathered at the annual alumni dinner today, to issue a serious note of warning to Congress and to the leaders of the Republican party.

The President declared that, if the party failed to live up to its promises and to the expectations of the people, it would be relegated to the position of a minority opposition. The President spoke extemporaneously and his utterances as to the Republican duty seemed the result of a sudden impulse rather than of studied preparation.

Warning to Congress Cheered. The Yale men caught his meaning and the significance of the remarks coming while the tariff debate is in progress, and they stood and cheered for several minutes.

Mr. Taft had been speaking of Secretary of War Dickinson, a Democrat, upon whom Yale had conferred the honorary degree of doctor of laws. With the best good humor he taunted the Democracy as to its present condition and this led him into the declaration as to his own party.

"You went south of the Mason and Dixon line," he said, "to get the Secretary of War to give a degree to me. It is well that you did, because he is going to build the Panama canal, and other universities will follow where you got in early."

Three Kinds of Democrats.

"One of the difficulties that have confronted Brother Dickinson out in Chicago, where he has a temporary residence, was a discussion of a sudden impulse, an orthodox Democrat and whether he really ought to be counted as a Democrat if he allowed himself to go into a Republican Cabinet. Well, when you come to discuss what is a Democrat these days, you are presented with very much the same difficulty that I have before me now in giving certain laws as to what whiskey is. They say there is 'straight' whiskey and then there is 'rectified' whiskey and then there is 'imitation' whiskey. Now, I speak with a good deal of hesitancy in saying whether my friend Dickinson is a 'straight' Democrat or a 'rectified' Democrat. I would not dare to say in his presence that he was an 'imitation' Democrat."

Must Live Up to Promises.

"In suggesting differences among Democrats I am far from ignoring difficulties on our side. I remember in 1904 that Charles Francis Adams gave what I may call a perfectly good Adams reason for the election of the Democratic candidate over the Republican candidate. He said that one of the essentials of a successful free government was an able, patriotic and efficient opposition, and that, as the Democratic party had utterly failed in reaching that ideal, he was in favor of putting the Republican party in that place."

Now I venture to say that, while that may not be the reason that shall move the American people, it is true that, if the Republican party does not live up to its promises and what the people expect of it, it will be relegated to a position like that of His Majesty's opposition. And therefore I may say by way of caveat that we have troubles of our own."

Busy Day at Yale.

The President attended a meeting of the Yale corporation, spoke at the mid-day dinner of the alumni, presided over a meeting held for arranging a memorial for Yale men who died on both sides in the Civil War, stood for nearly two hours with President Hadley at the commencement reception and rushed tonight from a meeting of "skull and bones" to board his private car for Washington.

President Hadley announced the receipt during the year of gifts amounting to $1,000,000. The procession of officers, graduates, candidates for degrees and invited guests was formed under the elms on the college campus. The race was carried by Professor Gustave Schwab, the marshal of the day. In the long line there were 299 candidates for regular degrees.

Guests and Graduates.

Among the guests were Charles P. and Henry W. Taft, United States Senator Dewey, Dow Dickinson, Rear-Admiral Sperry, Bishop William Wallace and Professor William Graham Sumner. President Taft sat on the stage with the

ILLINOIS DELUGED BY 220 NEW LAWS

SHEAF OF STATUTES BECOMES EFFECTIVE THURSDAY.

One Law Provides Punishment of Landlords That Bar Children From Apartments.

CHICAGO, June 30.—(Special.)—Two hundred and twenty new laws passed by the last Illinois Legislature go into effect tomorrow. Some of the big measures are not operative before next January, notably the hazardous machinery act and the Board of Control, which takes over all charitable institutions. The chief laws effective tomorrow are:

Forbidding women to work in factories, or any place where machinery is employed, more than 10 hours a day. This does not apply to mercantile establishments.

Permitting automobile drivers to defend themselves in court under law permitting "reasonable speed."

Authorizing the city of Chicago to add $16,000,000 to its bonded indebtedness.

Permitting "white slaves" to testify when their husbands "are involved."

Making it a felony to detain any woman in a resort on charge of debt.

Providing for the examination and licensing of barbers.

Inheritance tax law, which will add millions to state revenue.

Punishing landlords who bar children from flats.

Creating forest preserves.

Pawnbrokers required to hold all articles a year and cutting interest to 3 per cent a month.

MOTHER-IN-LAW IS SUED

Man Alleges She Has Tried to Injure His Reputation.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—A suit for defamation of character has been started by A. C. Jones against Mrs. Flora Bell Immel, in which the plaintiff asks damages of $25,000.

Mrs. Immel is the mother of Mrs. Jones, and the latter has been living at the Immel home since coming to Spokane last September. Jones asserts as a result of industry and hard work, after years he has obtained a profitable business in Chicago, and that to defame his character and ruin his business his mother-in-law wrote several letters of a derogatory nature to Chicagoans.

ONE SHOT WORTH $500

Rare Silver-Tip Sea Otter Is Killed Near Hoquiam.

HOQUIAM, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—John Shale, a Quinalt Indian, today shot a fine specimen of silver-tip sea otter, which was sporting in the surf near the reservation. These animals are so rare this is the first killed in this vicinity for 10 years.

The pelt is exceeding beautiful and will net the Indian at least $500 for his moment's shooting.

SENATE IS COURT TO TRY SCHIVELY

House Adopts Articles Against Him.

ACTION BRINGS NO FRICTION

Alleged Illegal Collection of Certain Fee Not Proved.

EXTORTIONS SET FORTH

Companies Which Commissioner Is Charged With Molesting Named and Amounts Total Up Over $4500.—To Appear Today.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—By unanimous vote the House of Representatives today adopted articles of impeachment against J. H. Schively, State Insurance Commissioner, specifying 26 distinct and separate counts. These include high crimes and misdemeanors, malfeasance in office, perjury, extortion, unjust, arbitrary and oppressive conduct in office and neglect of official duties.

The Senate is now organized as an impeachment court, each member with uplifted hand having sworn before Justice Fullerton, of the Supreme Court, to render a verdict in accordance with the constitution and evidence.

Schively to Appear Today.

Summons has been issued for the accused Insurance Commissioner to appear before the bar of the Senate at 1:30 tomorrow morning, when the time for plea and date of trial will be decided upon. Action was taken in both houses without attempts at filibustering. A short discussion occurred in the House over an amendment to the phraseology of one count, but was voted down as immaterial.

Although voting to adopt the impeachment articles, Beach, of Mason County, sent to the Speaker's desk a formal protest against the incorporation in the charges of matters contained in the indictments found against Schively by the Spokane grand jury.

One Grant Not Proved.

Palmer of King called attention to the fact that charges made in the report of the investigating committee that Schively had been illegally collecting a $2 fee from each company for verifying its certificate of publication of its annual report were not embraced in the articles of impeachment. Sparks, chairman of the committee that drafted the articles, explained that, while the committee was morally certain Schively had been collecting the unlawful fee, conclusive proof could not be secured.

After the adoption of the report of the committee, a resolution providing for a committee of nine managers of the impeachment trial, of whom the Speaker should be one, was adopted in the House. In addition to the Speaker, the members named thereon are Sparks of Clark Coun-

SUMMER RESORT IS WHELMED BY GALE

TARPON BEACH, TEX., UNDER FIVE FEET OF WATER.

All Communication Shut Off and Fate of Inhabitants Unknown. Many Boats Are Lost.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 30.—Tarpon Beach, a summer resort on the lower end of Padre Island, three miles from the mainland, is isolated and inundated, with the fate of the inhabitants unknown. A number of fishing craft and a gasoline launch have been swept out to sea or wrecked.

These are the meager details known here tonight of a storm of extraordinary severity that raged today off Point Isabel and the adjacent coast.

The storm broke shortly after dawn and continued unabated throughout the day. Immediately before the loss of communication with Tarpon Beach the water had reached a depth of five feet on the streets and was still rising.

BELL SEES WAR CLOUD

Says Grandchildren of Present Day Men Will Not See Disarmament.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 30.—General Franklin Bell, chief of staff, in a speech before the assembled Service Schools at Fort Leavenworth today, declared that he saw indications of war and insisted that the day of international peace was far off.

"There is much talk of arbitration and peace congresses, and it is even implied that there is to be no further use for armies and navies," said General Bell. "There has not been a period of 30 years in the history of this country without a war. There are now indications of war which I need not dwell upon. There are causes for war that cannot be settled by arbitration.

"Your grandchildren will be going to military schools before there is any disarmament."

CUPID CELEBRATES FOURTH

Twenty Marriageable Girls of Portland to Visit Possible Husbands.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—Twenty girls of marriageable age and inclination, living in Portland, Or., and surrounding towns, have accepted the invitation of the Pioneer Bachelors' Club of Kikickit County to be guests of the wifeless fellows on the Fourth of July. Accommodations will be provided at the Guier Hotel, Husum.

The score of marriageable ones have been exchanging letters and photographs for some time with the Pioneer Bachelors.

C. H. Pearson, city clerk, vouches for the truth of the statement that the bevy of Cupid's agents will arrive, and there is much excitement in the vicinity.

As Spokane Woman Walks Out, Her Entire Following, Numbering 50, Goes With Her—Opposing Faction Elects Officers.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 30.—(Special.)—

The convention of the Washington Woman Suffrage Association today was marked by scenes of utmost confusion and almost of violence. A faction led by Mrs. Mary Arkwright Hutton, of Spokane, having about 50 members, sought to oust the present state officers, headed by President Emma Smith Devoe, whose supporters numbered about 300.

The report of the committee on credentials declared the Spokane delegates not entitled to seats.

In the debate on the report some of the delegates called others "thieves," "liars" and "scoundrels," and there was hysterical weeping and screaming.

Hysterical Turmoil Ensues.

There were 250 women and three men in attendance, and for a time all, with the exception of five women, were trying to talk at once, and over the deafening rumble of a tumult of voices the loudest declamation reached the ear of the president. The picture of despair, Mrs. Emma Smith Devoe stood upon the platform with uplifted hands entreating the audience before her to be silent. There were generally about three motions before the house, and votes by acclamation could not be decided, so standing votes were taken.

Spokane Starts War.

The Spokane contingent demanded before the convention the reason why it should not be given seats as delegates, and then the war began in earnest. President Devoe was powerless to hold the convention in control, and was literally forced to her seat. Speakers stood between her and the audience, while arguments were shouted against the answering hisses and catcalls from the delegates.

How it happened few at the convention can tell, but in some way it became known that Dr. Cora Smith Eaton, chairman of the committee on credentials, would make a charge against the Spokane suffragist club that would lead to the unseating of its delegates to the state convention.

Dr. Eaton as the first reason stated that the Spokane club, though organized for a year and a half, had not offered

WEDDED IN MIDST OF ACRES OF ROSES

MARION LAWSON BECOMES MRS. JAMES CUTLER LORD.

Stands in Shade of Apple Tree Beneath Folds of Giant American Flag.

SCITUATE, Mass., June 30.—(Special.)—In the shade of the largest American flag ever made, flying from the top of the tallest flagpole in the country, brought from Oregon especially for the occasion, Miss Marion Lawson, second daughter of Thomas W. Lawson, was married this afternoon to James Cutler Lord, of Chicago. The immediate surroundings were 11 acres of roses, for the ceremony was performed in a bower under an apple tree that stands in the center of a rose garden. There were about 150 guests at the wedding.

Mr. Lawson gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Eben D. Stanwood and Misses Dorothy and "Bunny" Lawson. The groom was attended by Eben D. Stanwood, Arnold Lawson and Mr. Veree and Mr. Booth, of Chicago.

Mr. Lawson's gift to the bride was a check for a large sum, the amount not being announced. The couple left late tonight for the mountains.

$300,000,000 FOR NAVY

That Expenditure Needed to Save British Empire, Says Beresford.

LONDON, June 30.—Lord Charles Beresford appeared before the London Chamber of Commerce this afternoon in his favorite role of a candid critic of the naval administration.

The Admiral again declared that the situation in the navy was more serious than was generally known and he said that, in order to put the empire in a state of safety by March, 1914, Great Britain would have to build 10 battleships, 16 second-class cruisers, 12 cruisers for the protection of commerce, 24 vessels of a new type larger than torpedo-boat destroyers, and four floating docks, and add 16,000 men to the personnel.

This programme would necessitate an expenditure of about $300,000,000.

BUSINESS IN JUNE MAKES GOOD GAIN

Summer Brings No Lull in City's Activities.

RECORDS ARE SET IN ALL LINES

Bank Clearings for Month Make 30 Per Cent Jump.

BUILDING RUSH STILL ON

Construction for First Six Months of Year Involves Expenditure of $6,305,265, an Increase of 30 Per Cent.

PROSPEROUS JUNE STATISTICS

Portland bank clearings for month of June reached $30,043,843.26, or an increase of nearly 30 per cent over the clearings for the same month in 1908. Permits for building improvements for the first six months this year aggregate $6,305,265, or an increase of 30 per cent over the corresponding month in 1908. Lumber shipments, foreign and coastwise, aggregate 12,841,927 feet, leading shipments for June, 1909, by over 1,000,000 feet.

The month that ended yesterday will be remembered in Portland, not alone because of the great activity matrimonially, a new high record being established in the number of marriage licenses issued. Statistics for June show substantial gains in every department of business activity over the corresponding month last year. These figures all testify to a satisfactory condition locally with every promise that the present activities will continue without interruption throughout the Summer, a season that a slump ordinarily is expected.

Gain in Realty Deals.

An increase of nearly 30 per cent is shown in the bank clearings which, for the month just ended, aggregated $30,043,843.26 as against $23,778,823.56 for the same month in 1908. This is regarded as remarkable gain and bears unmistakable evidence of the generally prosperous conditions here. The movement of real estate and the building activity continue brisk, the total considerations as recorded exceeding the figures for the same month last year. An increase of over $20,000 in real estate transfers for the month is shown by the deeds recorded. Transfers for the month aggregated $1,734,696 as compared with $1,107,389 for June, 1908.

Building permits were issued during the month for improvements representing a cost of $865,300. Permits for June, 1909, reached a total of $23,965. Figures for the first six months this year show the issuance of building permits to the amount of $6,305,265, or an increase of 30 per cent over the first six months of 1908, when permits to the amount of $4,887,610 were issued. Building activities in this city show no signs of abating. In the business district several large blocks are under construction, while more building is in progress in the residence districts than Portland has ever experienced.

Lumber Shipments Heavier.

Lumber shipments, both foreign and coastwise, lead those of June last year. During the last month foreign shipments from this port amounted to 7,011,927 feet representing a value of $86,616 as compared with 6,515,808 feet, valued at $33,590, for June, 1908. Coastwise shipments aggregated 5,770,000 feet or an increase of over 1,000,000 feet over the business for June, 1908, which amounted to 4,590,000 feet.

Postmaster Young yesterday was unable to announce the total stamp sales for the month, but the daily increase in the receipts during June, as compared with those of the same month last year, has been such that the record for the month will show the average increase of from 6 to 13 per cent, which has been reported each month during the last year.

Railroad Traffic Increases.

Local railroad officials report that both transcontinental and local freight and passenger traffic are heavy. This is particularly true of the passenger business, more Eastern people coming into the state than ever before in its history. Locally, passenger traffic is being stimulated by reason of the annual exodus of people to the various Summer resorts. This travel has already begun, but will not be on in earnest before next week. There is every indication that this travel this season will exceed that of former years. Local freight business, while holding its own with the record for the same time last year, is not exceedingly brisk. This is due to the fact that there is not much freight to be moved. Last year's grain crop has been transported out of the country and the only business offered is that incident to the requirements of the business world. This includes the handling of general merchandise, shipments of livestock and lumber. While the lumber market is improving, it has not entirely recovered from the lull it received last year from arbitrary increases in freight rates.
