

HOUSE URGED TO GO MUCKRAKING

While Senate Tries Schively, Proposed Lower Branch Should Use Probe.

MORE COMMITTEES ASKED

Anti-Hay Forces Furnish Stumbling-Block in Session—Line-up is Like That of Option Fight. Special Election is Wanted.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special).—The method of proceeding with the investigation of state officers and departments was a rock on which the House factions split today. The administration forces were organized to continue the present committee in authority, while the anti-Hay faction asked for several committees.

The administration faction had a majority of the House and attempted to force a final vote on Nichols' Senate resignation which provides for the continuation of the present committee and the submission of a report to the Governor by April 1, 1910.

Swander, more than 2000 were added to the churches last year in Oregon. The board is planning to put $8000 into evangelism in this state during the coming missionary year.

Action was taken looking to bringing the general missionary convention of this body to Portland in 1911. A transportation committee was appointed for Pittsburg, as follows: Drs. J. F. Ghorntley, W. F. Reagar, C. F. Swander, Dean E. C. Sanderson and Thomas G. Pickett. A large number of delegates will go from Oregon to Pittsburg in October and the arrangements for transportation have been left with this committee. Dr. P. C. McFarlane of Kansas City, placed before the men of the convention "Man's Work in a Man's Way." The result was the organization of a state brotherhood.

SCHIVELY LAYS PLANS

ORGANIZATION OF LEGISLATURE TO BE ATTACKED.

Adjournment Today Forecasted, but Length of Time is Indefinite.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 30.—(Special).—While an adjournment of the special Legislature tomorrow for some days is forecasted tonight, the length of the adjournment is indefinite.

The programme of the administration forces in the Senate to give Schively only the next Wednesday to prepare for trial will hold good if enough votes can be mustered to carry it through. Lawyer members today have been delving into the constitution to ascertain whether it is possible for the House to adjourn sine die or for a long period with the consent of the Senate.

George Israel, attorney for Schively, tonight refused to say what length of time his client would ask, declaring the matter had not been fully considered. Mr. Israel intimates a number of legal points will be raised. Members look for the filing of a demurrer to 24 of the impeachment charges on the ground that they deal with the alleged acts of a deputy state officer.

It is also expected the defense will attack the ground for an appeal to the courts by contending that the two Houses, in not formally electing presiding officers, failed to organize legally and with power to impeach. This is apparently the one hope of Schively of getting into the courts, as the Senate is given final jurisdiction in impeachment trials.

STATE SENATE IS COURT

Insurance Companies Named.

In the impeachment articles the names of 23 insurance companies from which it is alleged Schively extorted money in excess of the fees authorized by law, are specified. Part of this extortion was in admitting companies to do business in this state. The statutory fee is $5, and it is charged Schively demanded and collected $15 or $25 in each instance, turning over to the company the statutory fee of $5.

Another form of graft alleged was the charging of a flat rate for inspection of companies in excess of the actual cost of examination which the law permits him to collect, and it is charged he in some of the counts that the investigations were only perfunctory. By these two methods, it is charged, Schively collected unlawfully a total of $490.

All the charges mentioned are on account of acts committed when Schively was deputy insurance commissioner under the Secretary of State, Sam H. Nichols.

A further charge is made that since he became head of the insurance department, Schively has absented himself from the office without legal cause for long periods of time, when he was not engaged in official business, and that he thereby neglected the work of his department.

Perjury Charge Examined.

The articles go exhaustively into the perjury charge preferred by the Spokane County grand jury, which deals with an offense alleged to have been committed since he became insurance commissioner. This charge is that the perjury was committed on March 10, 1906, when Schively, then acting as president of the company, falsely testified he had no agreement with E. R. Ward, president of the Pacific Livestock Association, to pay Ward $200 to retire as president of the company.

The amounts alleged to have been extorted unlawfully from insurance companies and the names of the companies as set forth in the several counts, are as follows:

- Amounts Alleged Extorted. Indiana Millers Fire Insurance Co., $200. American Guaranty Mutual Company, $200. Ohio National Fire Insurance Co., $200. Insurance Company, Missouri, $200. Northwestern Mutual Insurance Co., $200. Lumbermen Mutual Insurance Co., $200. National Fire Insurance Co., $200. Capital Life Insurance Company, Colo., $200. Commonwealth Life Insurance Co., $200. Illinois Fire Insurance Co., $200. Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Company, $200. National Livestock Insurance Association, $200. Philadelphia Casualty Co., $200. Seaboard Fire & Marine Insurance Co., $200. United Surety Company, Maryland, $200. The Fire Insurance Co., $200. Michigan Commercial Insurance Co., $200. Washington Hardware & Implement Dealers' Union Insurance Company, $200. Western Mutual Life Insurance Company, $200. Farmers' Mutual Livestock Insurance Co., $200. Walla Walla Fire Insurance Co., $200. Pacific National Assurance Association, $200. Falls City Fire Insurance Co., Spokane, $200. Pacific Livestock Association, Seattle, $200.

JOHNSON WINNER OF GOV. ROSS

No Decision is Given, but Experts Agree Black Man Has Best of Match.

NEGRO ROUGH IN CLINCHES

Crowd Cheers Tony at Every Opportunity and Hoots Champion for His Rough Work—Black in Poor Shape.

PITTSBURG, June 30.—Jack Johnson, colored heavyweight champion of the world, tonight outfought George Ross of Newcastle, Pa., in a six-round bout at Duquesne Gardens. While no decision was given on account of the provisions of the state law, experts agreed unanimously Johnson had all the better of the go. Ross was floored more than once and was in evident distress at the end of the sixth round.

The fight was fast throughout, and while the champion carried the fight to his opponent all the time, Ross showed remarkable willingness. Johnson apparently was out of condition, but found little difficulty in landing effectively on his smaller opponent.

The audience shouted wildly whenever Ross landed a blow, but hooted Johnson for his rough tactics in the clinches. Johnson refused to make any statement after the fight, but Ross pleaded for another chance to meet the colored man. The fight by rounds:

First Round. Johnson hooked a left to the stomach and repeated the blow with chilling effect. Ross landed a light right to the jaw, but met hard left to the jaw in return. Johnson followed up with a right swing to the stomach, drawing blood, and dropped Ross to his knees for the count of nine and a right and left to the face, the bell saving Ross.

Third Round. Ross made a desperate effort to cut down his opponent and landed a hard right to the wind and a left to the jaw, removing the smile from Johnson's face. Johnson countered with a right swing to the stomach at will. In an effort to avoid one of Johnson's punches Ross slipped to the floor and stayed down for the count of nine and a right to the wind as the bell sounded.

Fourth Round. Ross was in evident distress and was bleeding freely from mouth and nose. Johnson chopped a left to the jaw and they clinched. As the men broke, Ross swung a right to the champion's jaw, the first effective blow he had landed.

Fifth Round. Grinning over his easy victory, Johnson swung his left to Ross' face. Ross fought back desperately, but was unable to stop the rushes of the big black and hung on to save himself.

Sixth Round. This was almost a repetition of the previous round and the great range with Ross stalling desperately to avoid a knockout.

KRIBS AND SMITH LOSE LAND

Interior Department Rules in Favor of Settlers.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 30.—The acting Secretary of the Interior, after hearing argument of A. W. Lafferty in the case of Joseph Mossi and others against Frederick A. Kribs and C. A. Smith, involving six valuable timber claims in Southern Oregon, originally filed on by Kribs and Smith with invalid state base, ruled in favor of Mr. Lafferty's contention, and his clients will now have opportunity of making entry on the land in dispute, under the homestead law or by scrip filing.

Each of the six claims, because of its heavy timber, is estimated to be worth $10,000. These claims are only a small part of those originally located by Kribs and Smith with invalid state bases.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The Post-office Department has called for bids for a twice-a-day service between Estacada and Springbrook. If a reasonable bid is received the service will be increased from once to twice a day.

Start the Day Right and you will be right. Start it by eating Shredded Wheat Biscuit with hot milk or cream and a little fruit. If you eat more than the stomach needs you are wasting both money and strength. Overtaxing the stomach impairs digestion, weakens brain power and lays the foundation for disease. Cut out heavy meats and soggy white flour pastries for ten days, eat Shredded Wheat and see how much better you will feel—then tell your friends about it. Your grocer sells it. Shredded Wheat is made of the choicest selected white wheat, cleaned, steam-cooked and baked. Try it for breakfast to-morrow with milk or cream. The Biscuit is also delicious for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits. THE ONLY "BREAKFAST CEREAL" MADE IN BISCUIT FORM

Creation of Roseburg: Mrs. J. L. Davis, of Portland, and Samuel Strader, of Alaska. Mr. Strader retired from active business several years ago. A three-ton motor truck was recently hitched to a plow to open the streets of Springfield, Mass., for gas main.

Never heretofore, not even in New York, has it been possible to show such a tremendous number of latest Pianola Pianos of each of the various styles and in the various superb and costly woods and finishes used only by the world-renowned makers of this magnificent art product.

Six solid carloads of Genuine Pianola Pianos, all of them the latest styles, were shipped to Eilers Piano House through an awkward misunderstanding on the part of our buyer and the manufacturers.

Rather than to return the bigger portion of these instruments to the factories at additional cost for freight charges, insurance, etc., we have decided to accept them. All of these instruments are now being displayed at Eilers Piano House.

Never again will Portland witness showing of so extensive and superb a variety of styles and designs. There's many a "silent" piano in many a home, where there ought to be a Pianola Piano, a genuine Pianola Piano, an instrument that is not "mechanical," but, on the contrary, makes it possible for every member of the family to produce the choicest of music with perfect individuality and expression.

We are now prepared to take such "silent pianos" in part payment for one of these very latest Metrostyle and Themodist Pianola Pianos, and we will make it an object for any owner of such old-style piano to do business with us now.
