CLOSING THEATER HURT HIM $5000 WORTH, HE SAYS.

Sues Associated Investment Company on Guarantee Posted When Playhouse Was Opened.

As a result of the closing of the Hellig Theater by the authorities on the grounds that the structure is ursafe, legal means are being resorted to by Calvin Heilig, lesses to recover from the present owners the sum of $5000 posted with him as a an offer was received of a lot 60x100, on Umatilia avenue, between Thirteenth and Fifteenth streets, for $900. It was decided to take an option on the lot, and subscribers to the stock of the club paid in enough to allow of a payment to be made on the option. It was decided to get the lot, effect an organization and erect the clubhouse as soon as it can be done. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday night to complete the organization and lay out all plans.

Deeds are Recorded.

Deeds Are Recorded.

Spicer transferred lot 1, block 2, Frush's Addition to Cudahy Packing Company for $900. J. B. C. Lockwood transferred the property on the northeast corner of Union avenue and East Alder street to Harriet E. Dunham for $26,000. These sales were made some time ago, and the deeds have just been recorded.

Spolen Bicycles Found.—Hubert Beattle, of 2M Stark street, has recovered an foliation of this. guarantee on a lease of five years. This STOLEN BICYCLE FOUND.-Hubert Beat- contends that the lease is broken through no fault of his.

Although the $5000 was originally posted with the Columbia Stock Company, which opened and failed under the Belasco regime, it was transferred to Mr. Cohn's regime, it was transferred to ar. Conn's company when the sale was made.

It develops that the original owners who spent $90,000 in erecting the building and then lost $10,000 on a stock company. venture, have really come out nicely on their investment for it was taken over by the Associated Investment Company for $115,000 which put the Belasco-Mayer interests $15,000 to the good.

BENNETT TAKES UP WORK

New Municipal Judge Presides for First Time.

Frank S. Benntt, the newly elected Municipal Judge, officiated for the first ime yesterday morning. He was initiated nto the work Wednesday morning by Judge Van Zante, who was unable to be present yesterday owing to pressing business in Hood River. Nick Beutgen, the new clerk of the Municipal Court, ex-Representative in the Oregon State Legis-lature, likewise had his first inning as custodian of the funds and records of the city justice dispensary.

"I realize that in a police court the interests of justice demand an equitable and a discriminating dispensation of jus-tice, rather than a strict adherence to technicalities." said Judge Bennett, "And expect that to be my policy as Munic pal Judge."

The first case to be tried before the new justice was that of Ed Morrissey, a card writer, arrested for not securing a license. In this case Judge Bennett's membership in the City Council stood him in good stead and he ruled that Morrissey should either pay a fine or take out
