GO ON EAST SIDE.

Mayor Simon Says He Has Not Decided on Part of City for Disreputable Houses.

Mayor Simon yesterday denied a rumor to the effect that the administration will create a restricted district on the East Side, but at the same time said he does not yet know where it will be placed. It is a very troublesome problem, he declares, and one which must be given careful thought. There has never been any thought, however of establishing it across the river, ac-cording to the Mayor.
"I want to wait a while until the Chief of Police gets into touch with the situation, and then take the matter up with him," said Mayor Simon. "Persenally, I dislike very much to tell any one where he must live, but I supose if a district is created, it will be necessary to compel residence therein, so far as is possible. As reports come to me, it will be necessary to establish a dis-

The houses in the old North End district having been closed by order of ex-Mayor Lane, the women inmates have scattered all over the city, new administration proposes to remedy the condition by working out a district where these women must live.

Front WOUNDED MAN MAY DIE Survivor of Pistol Duel at Gates Is Sinking Gradually.

SALEM, Or., July 2 .- (Special.) - William Herve, who was shot through the body in a duel with Henry Sullivan at Gates some weeks ago, is declining opinion that there is but little hope of his ultimate recovery.

Herve has been taken from the County Jail to the Salem Hospital. He is suffering from a gangrenous affection of the left lung, and appears to be growing steadily worse, in spite of all the physicians can do for him. He will not be able to appear in court for his trial next week, and it is feared will not live until the Fall term.
