BY W. J. PETRAIN. Perhaps if J. Pluve hadn't been on the job yesterday, those Casey's Colts might have comped home with two games instead of the one they captured during the morning scramble. While the game really belonged to the Colts on a 1-to-0 result, those Black Cats, after having eight of their lives exterminated, came through in the ninth inning and scratched out a run that tied up the proceedings, causing the pastime to be extended to the tenth lining. Then Portland won 2 to 1.

Mient Tom Seaton buried for the Colts and but for his failure completely to throttle a poke when two were down in the closing chapter, he would have blanked these Cats from Aberdeen way. From the opening inning until the ninth round had been reached Seaton had the claws of the Cate trimmed to the quick. The atlent twirler was in several wobbly places, but he tightened up and once when Hewer was on third and one down mmy Murray, by a splendld peg, headed off trouble by winging the ball to Seaton in time to tag sew... These features and the splendid exhibition of Herbert in his little sketch, "Take the Game, I'm Tired," in the tenth canto, helped the home talent tuck the game in Portland's run

The Colts had put one over in the fourth, the reward of hits by Bassey, Garry and Staton, hooked up with Kennedy's sacrifice. The lone ace in the hole looked mighty lonesome and the few brave fans who ventured to the Vaughnstreet playground turned several nerve flipflops in the ninth inning. Seaton let Swalm poke one safe in the beginning of the ninth and the leftfielder promptly stole second and third. Seaton became as tight as a drum and acting upon instrucfrom Casey, whiffed Lejeune and Bewer. Tom had two strikes on Herbert when the Cat second-sacker walloped one that Seaton stopped just enough to prevent Adams from handling and Swalm scored the tying run. Seaton got rid of the Cats easily in the first half of the tenth. The heavens began to weep and the Cat infield got woozy. Fournier fanned, fell down, got up and reached first because Kreitz missed fire. Murray bunted and Strieb, thinking Herbert would cover second, did the ostrich act of digging his head into the ground and Murray was safe. Siever had the ball, but both second and first were uncovered. Seaton attempted to sacrifice and again Strieb became an os-trich and again Herbert was counting his money. This made the bases drunk with Adams, after fouling several of Siever's choices, picked out an opening through the pitcher's box, slamming out a neat single and capturing the gan Rain prevented the afternoon game. The ABERDHEN.

Firecracker Thrown at Coleman's Head Stuns Player Five Minutes.

TACOMA, July 5 .- Vancouver took both games of the holiday double-header today.

In the morning game, Berger's wildness in the seventh, coupled with a stupid play by Peevey, a new outfielder, let Vancouver win, 7 to 4. Kippert's home run with two on bases was the batting feature.

In the afternoon game Tacoma was shut out, 6 to 0. Gilligan pitched splendid ball and the Tigers never threatened to score. Claffin was wild and had nothing to fool the visitors.

Someone in the blenchers threw a giant firecracker into the field which ex-ploded a foot from Coleman's head, stunning him for five minutes. Scores: Morning score:

Berg and Yousiff Ready for Wrestling Match Friday.

MUCH DEPENDS ON RESULT

Future Matches of Each Hinge Somewhat on Winning Portland Bout-Gruelling Contest Assured Portland Fans.

Both John Berg and Big Yousiff, the Terrible Turk, who are to wrestle in the Exposition rink Friday night to a finish, exposition rink Friday night to a finish, remained over in Seattle last night to witness the match between Charley Oison and Dr. B. F. Roller, They have sent word that they will start for Portland today or tomorrow. Berg, who is now staying at Anacortes, Wash, will visit there a day before coming to Portland to put on the finishing touches for his battle with the Ottoman.

Both men have been working out for Both men have been working out for several weeks in anticipation of the meeting, and they will be at their best when they receive the word to start on their long journey on the mat. The match is catch-as-catch-can affair, best two falls out of three.

Since Berg was beaten last Winter by Dr. Roller he has been anxious to show the fans that he is a better man than they think. He was suffering from a sprained ankle then and not able to travel at his fastest speed. Now he is working at his best and will make the Terrible go some to beat him. When Berg is right there are few wrestlers in Berg is right there are few wrestlers in the world who are faster.

He feels that he will have to win from the Turk, for he has cherished a desire to meet Dr. Roller again, and a defeat would miss this purpose for him. Berg is also desirous of matching his skill against that of Charley Olson. Should he be defeated Friday night he might never have that chance, so he would have a lot to lose by a defeat at the hands of the foreigner.

Yousiff gave Dr. Roller a hard fight on their two meetings. They said he was the strongest and gamest wrestler they had ever seen in Seattle, which is saying a whole lot, for the city on the Sound has watched a lot of high-class wrestlers work there in past years.
Yousiff also would like to get a whack at Olson, and that is one of the reasons why he wants to beat Berg. If he lesses why he wants to beat Berg. If he lesses at Olson, and that is one of the reasons why he wants to beat Berg. If he loses to Berg there will hardly be any chance of his getting a match with the light heavyweight champion of the world, the title that Olson is claiming.

The fans are looking forward to the revival of the wrestling game with a great deal of interest, and there will no doubt be a large crowd out to see the two sterling wrestlers fight it out for two sterling wrestlers fight it out for supremacy on the mat.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5 .- (Special.)-Portland won the series from the Oaks by winning both games of the double-header today, making it four straight games in two days. The morning score was 4 to 1, while the afternoon affair was 2 to 1, after a sensational finish on the part of the Beavers, who won in the ninth with two men gone and the score 1 to 0 in favor of the Commuters. A timely single by McCredle with two on bases took the game, and with it the

Up to the final period luck seemed to have for once favored the Commuters, for in spite of the way Bolce had been hit again and again, and pitched himself into dangerous holes, he seemed to have had the Beavers shut out for the second time in the present series. The Oaks, on the other hand, could not do a thing with the curves of Guyn, getting only three safe hits in the nine innings. A base on balls gave them their only chance in the fifth, which, followed by a two-base hit, allowed them to cross the pan with their one lone tally. Yet for eight innings this looked as his as a million to the Beauters. looked as big as a million to the Beavers.

Wildness Costs Game. Boice's wildness finally proved his undoing. After Ort had singled in the ninth, he hit Speas with a pitched ball. Then he got the next two men out without difficulty. Guyn hit an easy one to the slabster, and was thrown out at first. Olson struck out. Then McCredie went in to save the day, batting for Brees. He picked out a nice one and lined it to left, scoring the needed runs. Duffy Lewis fell down in fielding the ball, or only one run would have been scored.

Both teams played fast and snappy throughout, as the game had to be called at 4 o'clock to allow the Beavers to catch the train to Los Angeles. Throughout the train to Los Angeles. Throughout the early stages, Portland threatened to win at any moment, as they got several men to third. Oakland was helpless until the fifth. Then Regan received SUMPTER, Or., July 5.—(Special.)— until the fifth. Then Regan received transportation to first and was sacrificed second, but was forced at third by La Longe. Murphy put the ball against the center field fence, and by the time it had been relayed to the plate, Boice had crossed it in safety. In no other imning did the Oaks have a chance.

Pitchers' Battle in Morning. The morning game was a battle be-tween Wiggs and Carson, and though the big Commuter had a great deal the better of the argument, yet his support went to pieces in the third, and a couple of bad errors, coupled with two hits, al-lowed the Beavers to score that lowed the Beavers to score their four runs. Oakland took the lead in the second when they sent a man across the Ort beat out an infield hit and Speas singled to center. Carson' advanced both runners with a sacrifice. Ragan fumbled Olson's grounder, allowing both men to come home. Breen singled, Olson going to third when Hogan dropped the ball. Ryan singled, bringing in two more. The scores:

SACRAMENTO, July 5.—The Seals fell on Whalen's offerings for five hits in the second inning of the morning game today and these, coupled with some indifferent fielding, netted them five runs, the only ones scored. Three of the hits were good for extra bags, two being triples and another a fluke double by Bodie. CATCHER TOMMY MURRAY has caught his last game for at least a week or ten days. The injury which he received to the second finger on his right hand became so painful after catching the morning game an X-ray examination was necessary by Drs. Rockey and Sabin. This showed a dislocation at the first joint and a bad infection.

How Murray managed to catch with his finger so badly injured is a mystery. The doctors could not believe he had caught Sunday and yesterday morning. With Murray laid on the shelf, Manager Casey will try to get Danny Shea's brother to help him out behind the bat until Murray rounds to.

Yacolt and Gills Even.

The M. J. Gill team, of Portland, gave the Yacolt Giants the biggest surprise of the year last Saturday at Yacolt. Wash, with a defeat by the score of 6 to 4. The Yacolt team won the Sun-day game, 5 to 0. One thing that helped to ginger up the Gill boys was the fact that the Yacolt townsmen appeared to take them for a team of kids. Both pitchers, particularly Hewitt, of Port-land, pitched fine ball. Hewitt fanned 17 men in Saturday's game and 12 in Sunday's game. The line-up:
