LIQUOR AFIRE BURNS MAN

Enterprise Doctor Seriously Injured in Accident Aboard Train.

WALLOWA, Or., July 6.—(Special).—Dr. C. A. Ault, of Enterprise, met with a serious accident today while coming from La Grande, where he spent the Fourth.

Having entered the lavatory at the end of the car, Dr. Ault was followed by an intoxicated man, who drew a flask of whisky from his pocket and in an attempt to drink it, dropped the flask on the floor and broke it. The same result followed with a second flask, and finally a third, the intoxicated man lighting a cigar. He dropped the match in the liquid on the floor and in a second the small room was a raging fire.

Seeing his danger, the man broke for the door and called upon the doctor to follow. In his haste, the doctor closed the door and imprisoned the doctor in the fire. Overcome by the fumes and heat, Dr. Ault fell against the door, and before help could reach him he had suffered some very dangerous burns. The train was stopped and the fire extinguished, and in the excitement the doctor escaped and has not been identified. The door of the toilet was badly charred and the whole interior blackened. When Wallowa was reached Dr. Gregory was summoned to the doctor's home, and the doctor proceeded home, although still suffering intensely.

He was seen on the streets the past three days, intoxicated. He slept in the City Jail last night, and was let out at 5 o'clock this morning. About 7 o'clock he was put in again badly intoxicated.

The coroner's jury this afternoon turned in a verdict that the man died of alcoholism. The stranger had been seen last week in Tacoma and Olympia. He was evidently a man who worked in the woods.

BOY SHOT BETWEEN TOES

Rests Gun Barrel on His Foot and Carelessly Pulls Trigger.

WOODBURN, Or., July 6.—(Special).—Just the proverbial luck of the American boy celebrating with deadly weapons saved Irving Guis, a 12-year-old Portland boy, from anything more serious than two slightly damaged toes yesterday when he rested the barrel of a 20-caliber rifle against his foot and pulled the trigger in an endeavor to clear a jammed cartridge.

Young Guis was staying with his grandfather, J. H. Settlemier, at Woodburn, and yesterday afternoon went with some friends, who were going swimming in the Pudding River. While his friends had a dip, Irving amused himself with a borrowed rifle. The heating of the barrel caused a cartridge to jam and the boy made a number of efforts to clear it out. To use greater force, he rested the barrel on his foot, and so doing pulled the trigger, whether purposely or not he is unable to remember, and the weapon was discharged.

Knox bullet passed through the boy's shoe, glanced slightly and passed between the first and second toe of his foot, tearing the skin so slightly that he felt practically no pain.

Irving Guis is a son of S. Guis, East Street, and Alder streets, Mr. Guis said last night the boy was progressing favorably and that his physician, Dr. E. W. Moore, said yesterday there was no danger of blood poisoning.

It was upon the testimony of these two witnesses that Mrs. Warner depended largely for the success of the strenuous fight she is making for the possession of the Young estate, and it was these two witnesses whose character was painted so black by the witnesses for the heirs who declare the present will is a forgery.

J. S. McLeod, of this city, chief of the Oregon Reuben, will be placed on the stand in an effort to prove the alleged signature of J. W. Young is genuine. The evening programme will be similar to that of the day.
