PORTLAND CHORUS MUSIC

Reception and Lawn Fete in Afternoon Will Be Followed by Dance in Evening-Oregon Cherries Are Feature of Display.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8 .- (Special.) Tomorrow will be Oregon day at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. Hun-dreds of visitors from the neighboring state will be entertained by the Port-land Festival chorus of 350 voices in the natural theater in the morning, a reception and lawn fets in the after-noon, and a promenade and dance in the Washington state building in the evening.

the Washington state building in the evening.

Two special trains bringing delegations from Oregon arrived yesterday, and two more came this morning. This afternoon the members of the Festival Chorus and their friends came to the city from Portland, and Governor Benson and his staff, together with a number of other state officials, arrived on the 4:30 train. Governor Benson will respond to the address of welcome to be given by J. E. Chilberg, president of the exposition, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The feature display in the Oregon building will be an exhibit of 1000 boxes of Valley cherries from Salem. This will be the second big consignment of cherries that has been displayed in the Oregon that has been displayed in the Oregon building since the fair opened. The other shipment was brought from The Dailes for Cherry day, and was representative of the Eastern Oregon highland unirrigat-ed variety. The latest shipment shows the quality of the valley variety. The Salem consignment is by far the largest brought to the fair during the Exposition towns of the state have been named for the afternoon reception from 3 until 5 c'clock, and the dance in the evening. The great majority of the hostesses are from towns other than Portland, Satur-day evening, in the New York building, the hostesses will be tendered a dinner by the wives of the members of the Ore-

PORTLAND SENDS 300 VOICES

City's Festival Chorus Will Be Heard at A .- Y .- P. Fair Today.

Nearly 300 Portland singers stormed the Union Depôt yesterday morning and they hummed and otherwise sang softly so many different bits of music that the train hands thought that honey bees had somehow mistaken the depot for a clover field. The singers belonged to the Portland Festival Chorus en route to the A-Y-P Exposition at Seattle, where they will render programmes of music today under the direction of William H.

Boyer, with accompaniments by the Se-attle Symphony Orchestra, to mark the celebration of Oregon day. The singers wore badges made of white ribbon, with the word "Portland" there-on, and with the party were large white banners bearing the slogen "Portland" banners bearing the slogan "Portland." banners which will be effectively used at Scattle. The entire delegation was in charge of President Frederick W. Good-rich, who first voiced the proposal that the chorus sing at the A-Y-P Exposition the has managed all the business details connected with the trip. Every-body connected with the chorus comes from this city, soloists included, and Portland's church choirs are well repre-sented. The soloists are: Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer and Mrs. May Dearborn Schwab, sopranos, and M. L. Bowman and W. A. Montgomery, basses. The trip to Seattle and return will cost about $3000 and is notable because this is the first time in the history of the Pacific Northwest that such a large and finely trained chorus has been exported from state to state.

This morning in the natural amphitheater at the A-Y-P grounds the exercises to commemorate Oregon day will be observed, and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer will sing "The Star Spangled Banner." be their will sing "The Star Spangled Banner. In the afternoon a reception will be held in the Oregon state building, and tonight in the Oregon state building, and tonight in the Oregon state building. the great concert will be given by the Portland Pestival Chorus and soloists in the auditorium, the musical programme including Father Dominie's "Beautiful Willamette," a march and chorus from Wagner's "Tannhauser," and selections from Sullivan's "Golden Legend" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater."

Clarence Lillie Establishes Cooperage Plant at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, Wash, July 8.— (Special.)—Transfer of the Deming Shingle Mill and about five acres of land, with a water frontage of 1300 feet was made today to a syndicate headed by Clarence Lillie, recently with the Western Cooperage Company at - ertland. Mr. Lillie, who was secretary of the Western Cooperage Company, resigned his position a month ago. The deal involves $50,000.

The mill will be converted into a cooperage plant and considerable money will be expended in its im-provement and extension. Mr. Lillio will have associated with him the Anderson & Middleton Company, the Union Mill Company, Charles Sauers and others of this city and some outside capitalists.

Many Children Dodge School Census to Avoid School Duty.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 8.—(Spa-cial.)—The school census for District No. 6. including the city and its suburbs, shows 1816 children of school age. This, however, does not include the northwestern part of the city in Fruit Valley, where there are, it is estimated, some 60 school children. It is estimated that there are at least 100 children between the ages of 16 and 21 years whose names are not on the list, as it was found that many between those ages were afraid if their names got on the list they would be compelled to go to school. The census takers are satisfied there are 2006 chuidren in the district.

CHAPMAN TALKS ON DRAMA

Compares Shakespeare With Modern Playwriters-Dr. Goshen Speaks to Large Class in Bible Work. Fine Music Is Enjoyed.

CHAUTAUQUA GROUNDS, Gladstone Park, July 8.—(Special.)—This was the best day of the 16th annual session and the lecture this afternoon of Dr. Frank G. Smith, of Chicago, was a literary treat. He presented his great lecture on "Our Nation; Her Mission, Her Hopes, Her Perils," to the largest audience that has assembled in the big auditorium this

Smith, comparatively a stranger on Dr. Smith, comparatively a stranger on the Coast, is one of the most popular preachers of Chicago, and rumor has it that strong inducements are held out to bring him to the Pacific. It is current talk that he has been offered the pastorate of one of the wealthiest Congregational Churches in California. Dr. Smith is a master of wit, wisdom and winsome delivery. His lecture today was along patriotic lines, his theme being that the ope of the Nation lies in the individual character of the people.

Thomas J. Pennell sang two Hungarian folk songs, by Forbay, this afternoon and responded to an encore with an English folk song, "The Last Word." Miss Luella Keller was a graceful accompanist. Mr. Pennell will sing the "Toreador Song," from "Carmen," tomorrow night.

Dr. Chapman Discusses Drama.

Dr. C. H. Chapman talked this morning on the modern drama as compared with the old. He said the study of the past does not always enable us to understand the present. Dr. Chapman has an en-thusiastic class and a large number of people are especially interested in his talks on literature. He said this morning: Shakespeare occupied a feudal condition and raised no questions, but modern drama does raise questions as to all rela-tions of society." He contrasted Ibsen's 'Doll's House" with Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." Shakespearean stu-
