ED KINLESS pitched great ball after getting rid of the first inning. The only time a Turk got as far along as third base after the wobbly inning was when Casey ordered Capron walked, filling the bases to get Allen's goat.

Garry refused to follow Casey's orders in the seventh. With a man on third and one down, Garry was ordered to dump the ball down. Instead he kept swinging and was wifed.

terday evening. Mrs. Dugdale is visiting Mrs. W. H. Lucas.

Mr. Miller, helped along a lot by Seattle's prevalent luck, managed to stall off a defeat just because the Colts refused to run bases with intelligence. His left-hand offerings were biffed for two doubles and six singles.

Mike Lynch and Magee were the only two Turks to get hits off Kinless after he settled down to work. Lynch's both swags were good for extra bases, while Magee's was a single. For six innings Kinless retired Seattle in one, two, three order.

INDIANS BUNCH HITS, WIN

Wright Easily Pulls Out of Dangerous-Looking Situations.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 8.—Bunched hits by the Indians and two errors by Tacoma were responsible for Spokane's victory today. Rasty Wright had little over to work hard and pulled out of the dangerous-looking situations. Tacoma got two hits in each of three different innings, but the Spokane infield always tightened up and there was no chance. Score:

Los Angeles, July 8.—(Special.)—Vernon 2, Portland 0, was the score. Raleigh, the perhaps southpaw, pitched skill-edged ball against the Beavers at Chutes Park and, backed up by clean fielding, shut out the Northerners. For the first time during the present series, both teams played real baseball.

Carson twirled a strong game for Portland, and if Raleigh had not been in such fine form, probably would have won. Neither team was able to place the ball safely many times, and Mott, getting back into the game for the first time after an absence of three weeks, registered the only extra base hit. Strikeouts and bases on balls were scarce articles, and the fielders had all kinds of chances.

Fielding Draws Applause. Circus catches in the outfield draw much applause, and the three bingles were so distributed that they did not mar the game to any great extent. Speas, the Portland left fielder, got the glad hand when he caught Bernard's foul fly in the eighth inning after a hard chase. He was running at top speed and getting his fingers on the ball, managed to cling to it.

With the exception of the two innings in which the Vernon team scored its runs, the batsmen on both sides were in tight almost in one-two-three order. In the fifth and sixth innings Raleigh only pitched 11 balls. Most of the batted balls were easy chances for the fielders, and they played with plenty of ginger. There was just enough hitting to make things interesting, and the baselines of brilliant fielding were received with genuine cheers. Neither of the runs scored was cleanly earned.

Two Runs Just Made. Stovall was safe at the plate in a close station in the fourth, and Speas juggled Hogan a single in the seventh, and returned the ball too late to get Mott, who scored from second. Vernon's hits were equally divided between the two innings in which it scored, and they were pretty well bunched.

Portland never got more than one hit in any inning, and failed to get a man past second base during the entire game. They got a man to first in the opening inning, but he was caught stealing second. Hogan also nailed Ort in the second. The score:

Oaks Revenged on Seals. SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Oakland turned the tables on San Francisco today, defeating the league leaders 5 to 1, after outplaying them in every department of the game. Wiggs held the locals down to four safe hits, their only run being due to fast base work and a great deal of luck. Willis was pounded hard all through the game. Score:
