DENTISTS WILL CONVENE

State Association Will Meet in Portland Next Week.

The Oregon State Dental Association will hold its 16th annual meeting next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in the rooms of the North Pacific Dental College, corner Fifteenth and Couch streets. The association has as its members the majority of the "ethical" practitioners of the state. An interesting programme has been prepared, consisting of papers, clinics and demonstrations, which will be given by different members of the profession. Monday evening the association is to be entertained with a stag social, given by the Portland Dental Society, and Tuesday evening a banquet will be held at the Nortonia Hotel.

The following papers will be read: "Advantages and Technique of the Artificial Stone Method of Making Gold Inlays," by Dr. Weston A. Price, of Cleveland, O.
"Supernumerary Teeth," by Dr. Julo Endelman.
"Restoration of Broken-Down Teeth by the Casting Process," by Dr. R. C. Borphy, of Chicago, Ill.
"Prophylaxis," by Dr. E. Grace Keith, of Portland.
"Instrumentation," by Dr. W. A. Cummings, of Portland.
"Froeseha Alveolaris," by the Stalway and "Treatment," by Dr. M. M. Bettman, of Portland.

"Importance of Contact Fillings and Crown Work," by Dr. M. C. Harris, of Eugene, Or.
"The Preparation of Cavities and the Construction of Matrices for Porcelain Inlays," by Dr. J. Q. Bryan, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Passenger Men to Organize.
SPOKANE, Wash., July 9.—A meeting of all passenger agents and their assistants in the Northwest is called to take place at Hayden Lake, a suburb of Spokane, next Tuesday, July 13. It is proposed that a permanent organization shall be formed to be known as the Pacific Northwest Passenger Agents' Association.
