Payne Denounces Tax as Breeder of Liars-Democrats Say Opponents Again Steal Plank of Their Platform.

WASHINGTON, July 12.-By the decisive vote of 317 to 14, more than the necessary two-thirds, the House today passed the Senate joint resolution providing for the submission of an income tax constitutional amendment to the states. The negative votes were all cast by Republicans. The resolution now goes to the President for his signature.

negative votes were all cast by Republicans. The resolution now goes to the President for his signature.

The debate lasted four hours. Chairman Payne, of the committee on ways and means, voted the sentiment that such a tax would make "a nation of liars." The burden of the Democratic speeches was that it was simply a case of stealing Democratic thunder, although some of the remarks on that side incidentally touched upon tariff and the corporation tax, with no little amount of castigation of the Republicans for failing to keep party pledges.

Will Only Tax Honest Mee.

Will Only Tax Honest Men.

The House began by resolving to take a vote at 4 o'clock and then Payne delivered vote at 4 o clock and then Fayne delivered his denunciation of an income tax in time of peace. He believed it was the most difficult of enforcement and the hardest to collect. "It is, in a word," he said, "a tax upon the incomes of hon-est men and an exemption to some extent, to the rascals."

He hoped it would never be invoked."
"We welcome the conversion of the Republican party to another Democratic principle. was the comment of Clark, of Missouri, the minority leader, who got rousing applause from his side of the chamber for his utterance. An income tax, he maintained, was a Democratic Another Democratic Plank.

"One by one the roses fall," he said, addressing the Republican side, "and one by one you adopt our platform."

He concluded by expressing himself in favor of increasing the amount of exemption above $5000. This led aim into a colloquy with Burke, of Pennsylvania. "How far above $5000, and why?" Burke

"I would fix whatever figure I did fix r the public good," sharply answered Upon being pressed to be more specific. Clark said he would want to think the matter over. Clayton, of Alabama, declared that, if the question had been put to him, he would exempt the poor man, who was least able to bear the burdens of government and would tax the multi-million-aire and thereby make the idle rich pay something to the support of the Federal

"Get" Willie Waldorf Astor.

"I would," he exclaimed, amid Demo cratic applause, "get your Willie Wal-dorf Astors who have millions of income and live abroad, in the light. I would get the Laird of Skybo or Skeebo, or whatever you call it."

"Hobo," a voice on the Republican side was heard to say. said James of Kentucky in favoring the resolution, "a Government whose taxing power provides that Laz-arus shall share his crumbs, but that Dives must not give up his riches."

James quoted from an ante-election speech, in which Mr. Taft favored a graduated income tax and expressed the view that perhaps a change in the per-sonnel of the United States Supreme Court might effect a reversal of its for-mer opinion holding the income tax un-constitutional.

Takes Taft to Task.

"You denounce Bryan for that," he exclaimed, facing the Republican side. "You said he was assailing the honor and integrity of the Supreme Court, yet the man you elevated to the loftlest station in the Nation virtually repeated the very same words that for twelve years the Democratic party in every platform had uttered."

While favoring the amendment, Henry of Texas expressed the fear that it would suffer defeat if submitted to the Legis-latures. He desired to have the proposi-tion submitted to constitutional conven-tions. Bartlett of Georgia shared in this

In a flery speech in support of an in-tione tax, Robinson of Arkansas ar-raigned the Republicans for, as he raigned the Republicans for, as he charged, "fooling the people" before the last Presidential election. He defended William Jennings Bryan, declaring that he stood head and shoulders above any other man in private life.

No Constitutional Convention.

Henry of Texas vainly sought to offer an amendment providing for the submission of the question through constitutional conventions, but the Speaker tuiled that under the agreement for a vote no amendment was in order. From that decision Henry appealed and succeeded in forcing a roll-call. The vote resulted: Yeas, 185; nays, 143, thus sustaining the Speaker.

resulted: Yeas, 185; nays, 143, thus sustaining the Speaker.

The vote on the resolution resulted 317 to 14. The Democrats voted solidly for the resolution, but the following Republicans voted against it: Allen, Maine; Barchfield, Dalzell, McCreery and Wheeler, Pennsylvania; Fordney, Michigan; Gardner, McCall and Weeks, Massachusetts; Hill and Henry, Connecticut; Otcott and Southwick, New York, and Calderhead, Kansas.

Deputy Attorney-General Takes New Tack on Seeing Thaw's Signs of Sanity-Evelyn Thaw to Testify for Husband.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 12 .- If can agree, a commission theee allenists, mutually selected, will pass upon Harry K. Thaw's sanity This was practically decided before adjournment today at a continuation of the hearing before Justice Mills to de-termine whether Thaw should be released from the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan.

With all of today's testimony in favor of Thaw, and with the indication that his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, will take the stand in his behalf, Thaw's chances for release appear brighter than at any time since his commitment. District Attorney Jerome is eliminated from the proceedings.

Thaw Makes Good Impression.

Roger Clark, Deputy Attorney General, who is conducting the people's case, informed the court that he had been so much impressed by Thaw's intelligent interest in the issues at stake that he was willing to concede Thaw's right to a full examination. He suggested that counsel for Thaw and counsel for the people agree to a commis-sion of three expert alienists, whose decision should be accepted by both par-ties to the suit without reservation. Charles Morschauser, for Thaw, agreed

Let Counsel Name Experts. Justice Mills favored the suggestion for a commission, but was of the opinion that the state ought to name two or three experts. With this exception, he left the personnel of the commission to be determined by joint counsel. Mr. Morschauser pressed for another advantage for his client by asking the court that, in the event of the selection of a commission in lunacy, any one who testified in previous proceedings be barred from the examination now in progress. Justice Mills left this point also to be de Evelyn Thaw on Stand Today.

ENSIGN AIKEN MEETS DEATH ON NORTH CAROLINA.

Seeks Gas in Coal Bunkers and Candle Causes Disaster-One Man Blinded.

NAPLES, July 13.—Officers and men of the American warships in this port united this afternoon in paying mili-tary honor to the late Hugh Kerr Alken, of the armored cruiser North Carolina, who died last night as the result of injuries sustained in an explosion of gas on board the cruiser North Carolina.

Aiken attempted an investigation of whether the gas was generated in the coal hold. When he entered, one of the men, who was carrying a lighted candle, came forward. He slipped, bringing the light in contact with the gas that was lying at a low level.
Aiken received the full force of the explosion which followed.

Later developments indicated that the accident was of a graver nature than the officers of the cruiser cared to admit. Corporal Maloney was com-pletely blinded in both eyes. Several other men were also wounded.

SUES FOR GREAT ESTATE

Brother of Madame de la Veaga Claims Bulk of $4,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12 - Miguel de Veaga filed today a contest of the will his sister, Maria Concepcion de la Veaga, alleging that she had been incom-petent from birth and that she was un-duly influenced by their sister, Maria Josefa Cebrian, with the result that the testator left the bulk of her $4,000,000 estate to Mrs. Cebrian rather than to him. The suit involves one of the richest of the old Spanish land grants. Half of the property is in California and half in Mexico.

A curious point in the contest will be the spelling of a word, upon one letter of which the disposition of the De la Veaga mines might depend. The will was written in Spanish. In it occurs the word "hermana," meaning sister. Had it been written "hermano," meaning brother, De la Veaga claims, the estate would have been his. The contestant at first determined to base his suit on this ground, but later changed it to "undue influence." LIMITED TRAIN DERAILED
