Tacoma 2.

Portland 1.
George W. Schreeder, owner of the Tacoma tailenders, has worked out a scheme for making a band of indifferent ball tossers get in and play baseball every minute. The Tacoma mogul hasn't applied for a patent yet and he is willing to slip his method to any other manager who wishes to apply. There's nothing original in Schreeder's scheeme, it's just a case of Schreeder's scheeme, it's just a case of tying cans and handing his players the blow card. During the past 10 days Schreeder has been exceedingly busy with discharge papers, and the last to draw his release was Catcher Kellacky. The rattling of the cans has certainly

The rattling of tin cans has certainly put a lot of pepper in the rest of the Tacoma players, for they copped another game from Casey's Colts. Who knows but what the Colt manager is thinking seriously of trying Schreeder's cut'e? It might help a lot and it might put a voice into the throats of some of his hired men, for if the noise of rattling cans can awaken that Tacoma hunch to playing real baseball, such soul-stirring events might awaken the Colts from their lethargy.

Even if the Colts did lose, and through errors, the game was not a bad one. It was a keen pitchers' duel between Lee Samuels and the scarlettopped Newlin. In the second inning both Staton and Bassey were responsible for letting Tacoma score. Samuels jarred Schaefer's spinal column and he took a perch. Irby, grappled from the Intermountain wreck, flew to Bassey. Then along came the human period, Bresino, and poked one at Bill Staton. Bill got his shinn, instead of his hands, in the way of the poke and it scooted to Bassey. Ressey, thinking of his in the way of the poke and it scooted to Bassey. Bassey, thinking of his bank account, let the ball roll on and Schaefer came all the way round and registered. Newlin singled in the seventh and Staton, after a pretty stop, retiring Bresine, threw the ball into the bleachers over Kennedy's head in a wild endeavor to complete a double. Port-land's lone run was also due to errors. Staton walked and Fournier sen him to third with a single. Samuels drew a fielder's choice while Fournier was being morgued at second and Coleman messed up a poke by Adams, Staton scoring on the misplay. TACOMA.

TEN INNINGS, ABERDEEN WINS

Hall's Fine Work Fails at Last and Hits Are Bunched.

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 13 .- (Spe cial.)-Aberdeen won an exciting game from Vancouver in the tenth inning by a lucky bunching of hits on Hall, who had been invincible during the earlier stages of the contest. Glaring errors on the part of the Aberdeen infield gave Vancouver the game, but the batting really saved it after hope had fled. The batting of Lejeune and Moore was the feature. The official score:

SPOKANE, July 13. — Spokane beat Seattle 3 to 2 by a ninth-inning finish that completely upset the biggest mid-week day crowd of the season. Clynes drove the ball into right in the last half, with one out, scoring two runners and changing apparent defeat into victory, Gregg really outpitched Thompson and deserved to win, but a bad throw to third by Spencer gave Scattle a com-manding lead. In the ninth Bennett and Thompson foozled ground balls. Wright sacrificed and Clynes finished the game. Gregg fanned 11 and allowed only three hits. Score:

SUMMARY.

Manager Casey tried out a new man at first yesterday. He is F. A. Cary, of Salem. Cary has played with the Salem team in the Tri-City League and He handled himself very well.

The score boy was asleep at the switch. When the ninth inning rolled around he had only eight innings recorded. He fooled the crowd, the ump and even the players themselves.

All three of the runs scored were due to errors, only Newlin had the better of the argument, both in fielding and in allowing hits. At that Samuels never allowed more than one hit to the inning.

Coleman had the hitting fever. The first three times he faced Samuels he laced out a single, and it was his poke that caused Staton to interject that weird heave in the seventh.

Owner Schreeder says he has the blow envelope ready for several other members of his team. "They'll play ball or get the hook," is the way he puts it. He's right; the woods are full of willing ball players now that Inter-mountain and California outlaw leagues have blown un have blown up.

Judge W. W. McCredie is being showered with telegrams from ballplayers looking for a place to land. Yesterday he received three from players in the outlaw league asking for berths and a couple from two corking good players. The judge has relayed the telegrams to Walter McCredie at Sacramento. chances are some new faces will be seen in the Portland line-ups.

WINS REALIZATION STAKES AND LOWERS RECORD.

Hot Favorite and Never in Peril, Though Olambala Makes Game Race With Him.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, July 18 .- F. C. Hildredth's Fitzherbert easily won the Realization stakes, worth $14,900 net, one mile and five furlougs, today. The time. 2:45, is a new American record for the distance, being a fifth of a second faster than that made by Africander in this race in 1903.

Fitzherbert looked in grand condition today and he so far outclassed his field that he was a prohibitive favorite at I to 7. At no time during the race did his backers have cause for alarm, as he took the lead early and was never in trouble.

The surprise of the race was the game race run by Olambala, the Western 2-year-old. He moved up with a rush in the stretch and attempted to catch the leader, but was not quite good enough Fitzherbert won by a length and a half

FAMED RACER LEAVES TRACK Roseben's Legs Give Out, and Horse

Is Sent to Farm. NEW YORK, July 13.-Roseben, one the champion racehorse of the American turf, and believed by many to have the championship record of the world will race no more. David Johnson, his owner. has decided to ship him to the big farm of James W. Wadsworth in the Genesee Val-ley, where he will pass the remainder of his days grazing on fine pastures. Roseben broke down hopelessly in the fore legs after his race at Sheepshead Bay 10 days ago, when he was defeated by Nimbus. In that race Johnson and his friends tried to make a big winning and wagered large amounts of money on the famous champion at odds of about 8 to 1. One of the sensational big winnings of, the turf was made on Roseben two years ago when his owner bet $30,000 at even money that he could sprint seven fur-longs in 1:25. He did it in 1:22 and Johnson won his $30,000, and Roseben estab-lished a world's record which may never be equalled.

Guyn's error in fielding Flanagan's bunt and Gandil's pass filled the bags, but Raymer fouled out and House's grounder to Olson low-ered the hopes of the home rooters. Doyle and Flanagan singled in the third after one out and Gandil walked. Raymer's grounder to Olsen let the Beavers kill off the run-making by a nice double play.

Gets Out of Tight Place.

Portland filled the bases in the fourth and sixth innings, and on each occasion House retired the visitors by making spectacular running catches of Cet's long files. The sixth inning had two down and the men were coming in from the field as they saw Ryan shoot an easy fly to Doyle. Doyle was overconfident about the put-out and he dropped the ball. McCredie then singled and Johnson's pass placed Sacramento in an embarrassing position until Ort liner to Brown in the fifth that the Senatorial pitcher was knocked com-pletely off his feet, but managed to put the runner out at first. Richland

In the center of the Columbia river early fruit belt. Your opportunity lies in buying in one of the newer districts (but in the proved fruit belt), where values are reasonable-in a district where your five-acre tract will cost you hundreds instead of thousands, but where it will be sure, in turn, to be worth thousands also. There are a few such places. One of them is

Richland on the Columbia

And we believe it is the best buy in the state today. We want to tell you why we think Richland is better for you than other districts, and if we can show you, we want you to own one of our choice tracts. A few advantages possessed by RICHLAND are: 1. Early ripening of fruit and vegetables, which means top prices. 2. Immense scope of district-28,000 acres in the project; 16,000 acres already under ditch, which means minimum freight rates and buyers on the ground to bid for your crops. 3. Superior transportation facilities-best boat land. ing on the river and two railroads under construction. 4. Unsurpassed gravity water system, and supply for several times the area possible to irrigate. 5. Lay of land almost perfect, sloping gradually to the river, of which it commands a magnificent view. 6. Mild Winter climate. 7. Schools and churches and all modern conveniences of town and country life. 8. Low prices and easy terms—the best and the cheapest.

$125 an Acre, on Time Including Perpetual Water Right

Our land will be worth as much as land in any other district, because it will produce as much and as good fruit-apples, pears, peaches, cherries, grapes or small fruit-as any district anywhere, and we charge only what the older districts charged 10 years ago. There are already 900 people at RICHLAND, and when it is fully developed it will have the largest orchard population of any district in the Pacific Northwest.
