THE MORNING OREGONIAN, WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1909.

Early in the season, when men usually buy clothes for Summer, our line of fine suits, selected by us and made by the best makers in the land, were the main attraction of the town, in clothes. And we certainly did sell a lot of them; no better clothes were ever offered, and no fairer prices were ever quoted on them.

Now we're clearing them up; the entire lines of fancy Spring and Summer weights, many of them right for wearing late into the Fall, many suitable for this weather. You have a chance at high-class clothes at the price of ordinary kind.

MAYOR TALKS ON EAST SIDE.—At the opening of the new East Side passenger station on East First and East Morrison streets, Monday night, at the conclusion of the programme of addresses Mayor Simon was introduced by Chairman Bolse, and he received quite an ovation. That he felt pleased at the cordial way he was received by the people of the East Side could be seen. He said that when he became a candidate for Mayor he had been told that most of the votes of the city were on the East Side, and of the city were on the East Side, and on looking up the matter had found that there were 4500 more votes on the that there were 4500 more votes on the East than on the West Shde, but that he was gratified that at the election he had received a majority on the East Side as well as on the West Side of the city, for he intended to be Mayor of the whole city. Joseph Buchtel in his talk said he had been in Portland for 57 years. Mayor Simon said that he had been here nearly as long as Mr. Buchtel, having been here for 50 years.
