

PROSPECT IS FAIR

Oregon Hop Crop Estimated at 65,000 Bales.

QUALITY WILL BE GOOD

Reports From England Show Crop in Poor Shape, but German Crop is Unknown Quantity and May Change Market.

According to Julius Pincus, the recent rains have added 3000 bales to the hop crop, besides improving the quality.

While there are no changes in prices and no deals officially reported there are a number of rumors current about dealers' selling contracts to one another.

A Sacramento grower yesterday estimated the Oregon crop at 65,000 bales; California, 45,000 to 50,000 bales; and Washington, 15,000 to 20,000 bales.

Liverpool advice says that Pacific Coast hops are selling at 13 cents a pound, which would be equivalent to 8 cents on the Coast.

Heavy stocks of old hops held in England are tending to keep the market down. The following representative offers are taken in part from the Kentish Observer.

Sheldwick, Faversham—it is only that it is still June and not July that prevents the coming crop from being in a very critical state.

Worcester—Heavy rains have caused the plant to grow fast and in forward ground the vine is over the tops of the poles and straggling, but vermin and disease are not so rampant as in the past.

Northampton—Washing continues, the vine being full of leaves and supplies being coming. The cold temperature and absence of sun are not at all favorable to growth of plant.

Several shippers personally brought in 11 tons of hops yesterday. Other excellent shipments were heavy boxes and also some that arrived on the market in better condition than anything of the kind has yet arrived.

Good quality lams were in strong demand yesterday and almost outdone the hog demand, which was not quite so strong with the market. Fat lams are still scarce.

At the yards the actual figures for arrivals being: Cattle, 1000; sheep, 407; goats, 245; hogs, 30; and horses, 28.

Local prices quoted yesterday were as follows: CATTLE—Steers, top $4.50; fair to good, $4.42 1/2; common, $3.70 to $4; cow, top $3.50; good, $3.25; common to medium, $3.00 to $3.25; calves, top $3.50; heavy, $3.00 to $3.25; bulls and stags, $2.75 to $3; common, $2.50 to $2.75.
