FRONT STREET MELON GLUTTED. Arakelian Blamed by Dealers for Present Local Condition.

Several of the leading Front-street men have been leaded up with melons at 15 01% cents per pound by Arakellah, a California watermulon grower who comes to Rertland to dispose of his fruit personally. Not having the contracts by which local brokers are their highest personal properties. tied, binding them only to sell to Portland trade, Arakellan has seld to the country commission houses, cutting the price he has quoted the local dealers up to 15½ cents per

Now several local bouses find themselves with several cars of melons on hand, and are forced to sell below cost. Should they refuse to handle the Armenian's goods in the future, he will, it is said, supply the greers and hawkers direct, cutting the local wholesale men cut. They are thus compelled to smallow the loss and to continue their dealings. Other dealers who have only bought from day to day their absolute re-quirements are congratulating themselves now the market has slumped. Melons are almost a drug, and do not touch over I'd

CASCARA BARK SELLS AT 6 CENTS. Big Shipment Sent East, But Market Is Dull and Stocked,

Rerman Metrger is reported asiling three cans of cascara bark at 6 cents per pound, or rather under the average cost of the bark. The purchaser is said to be Parks, Davis & Co., of Detroit. Most of this cascara has been stored for three years, and some of it was bought in by the recent ring around 7

A leading denier said yesterday there were no miles of bark being made at a profit. He was only buying from steady shippers who which are now beginning to get in full was only buying from steady shippers who swing, show this return in a number of the had a market price out not have from an outside 5 cents. MARKET UP IN SYMPATHY

Advance in All Metals Follows Steel's Rise, and Feeling of General Confidence Pervades Trading.

NEW YORK, July 15 .- United States Steel drivally made the stock market today. large proportion of the total dealings was in that one stock, and such activity and strength as showed in other stocks was al-most whelly in sympathy with the movement in Steal.

in Steel.

The movement was a triumph of a definite and resourceful market manipulation. Accredited organs of the steel traile spoke without reserve of the more cheerful tone that pervadus the whole trade, and the details of condition were convincing of this point. Some falling off in the rate of booking of new orders was held of ne account in view of the length of time for which orders un hand will keep the mills busy. Manufacturers are refraining from accepting orders far ahead at present prices, and increased prices for early deliveries en old orders.

The departure of J. P. Morgan from England yearstelay was used with great effect.

The departure of J. P. Morgan from Eng-land yesterday was used with great effect by the bulls, notwithstanding the protesta-tions of Mr. Morgan's associates that his re-turn at this time was in accordance with previous plans. Admiration was aroused by the skill with which the stock has been han-dled in the neighberhood of 70, which appar-ently was a critical point in the upward movement.

brought out as soon as it had reached it, and the timidity, now believed to have been feigned, with which the buils retreated in face of this flood of selling, made the bears bold in selling short on a large scale around 72. When the stock forged above that figure in the first few minutes today and later extended its rise to above 71, the uncovered short interests were made to help in the advance by forced purchases.

Grain Later Drops Heavily to $1.22 1-4, and Rises but One Point Towards Close of Day.

CHICAGO, July 15 .- Wheat for July delivery performed a lofty tumbling act on the Board of Trade today, first advancing 2 cents shove the high record market for the season, established on the preceding assion, and then dropping nearly 7 cents. The best season, established on the preceding session, and then dropping nearly 7 cents. The best mark reached today was $1.25.

The setting of the new high mark for July wheat was accomplished on initial transactions, opening quotations ranging from $1.274 to $1.29. Belated shorts were anxious bidders at the start, and this caused the fresh advance. Distinct deliveries, however, were not disposed to follow the lead of July and opened weak.

The heaviness of the later months was due to more favorable weather conditions in the West and Southwest, the weather map showing no rain except a few scattering showers. The forecast was for a continuance of fair weather. The demand for the July option was satisfied early in the day, and when it became evident that some of the high holders were taking profits there was considerable realizing by smaller longs. As trading progressed bearish sentiment was augmented by a severe slump is the price of each wheat in Western sections, particularly at St. Louis, where a break of 7 to S cents was recorded.

prospects are much better in this part of the state than they have been in the past few months, and the Valley grain yield will be greater than has been expected.

Fall grain will yield an average crop in the center of the Valley, while on the eastern side of the Valley and back in the foothills there will be a very heavy crop. The hill ranches received more rain early this Spring than did the center of the Valley and the result is very apparent in the present appearanc of the crop. On many hill farms in Line County there will be a record-breaking yield of Fall grain.

In splie of the unprecedented lack of rain in the past three months, Spring grain will yield an average crop. The late rains are bringing the Spring-sown crop out nicely and indications are for a fair yield. Without the heavy rains about ten days ago, however, Spring grain in Linn County would be in peor condition now. The effect of that downpour was wonderful and the damage it did to hay and cherries will be far overhalanced by the good to all growing grains and late vegetables and fruits.

PATH OF MULAI HAFID BESET BY GENERAL FAILURE.

Upheaval May Come at Any Time and France and Spain May Send Joint Expedition.

LONDON, July is.—(Special.)—Events in Morocco make it probable that before long another general upheaval will take place. Mulai Hand is beset on all sides by enemies, and it may quite possibly happen to him to witness the final dislategration of the Shercefan Empire. Mulai Hafid has never had a chair chance of carrying out the plans and aims he cherished when he deposed his brother. From the moment of his accession he was faced by the problems of how to conciliate the powers without offending his own people, and how to put Moorish affairs in order without money. He has entirely lost the popularity which his success won for him last year. The Moors, accustomed to the laxity of Abdul Aziz: have resented the methods of the stronger ruler. Consequently Mulai Hafid is faced by the greatly swelled forces of El Roghi in the north, and by a Berber revolution, under Mulai Kebir, in the south. His troops, ill-equipped and presumably still unpaid, have been worsted by both revolutionary parties, and his hopes of a united Morocco are, for the moment at least, in the dust. was faced by the problems of how to co moment at least, in the dust.

While he has lost the support of his own people, he has failed to make any progress in favor of the powers most con-cerned with Moorish affairs. The grip of France is tightoning relentlessly upon the country. He has bitterly offended Spain, and sees no prospect of any help, other than fair words, from Germany. As regards his present attitude to England, an amusing illustration is furnished by his treatment of the Englishmen in his

When Mulai Hafid won his throne h when Addist Hand won his throne he had hopes of proving that he was not a rigid anti-foreigner, and at the same time of softening the indifferent heart of England by giving posts of honor to one or two Englishmen. Since he realized, however, that England was not to be thawed into friendship, his attitude to these men has changed. It may be that Mulai Phens Main 288.

The butt end imbedded itself in the grannel in front of the valitself in the ground in front of the gal-loping horse and, the point falling towards the rider, he was impaled on his own weapon. Both lungs were pierced, the innee going completely through the body.

Newman felt from his horse, pulled out the weapon and died in a comrade's arms. At the inquest it was stated that there was no record of such an accident having happened before.

Sugar to Relieve Fatigue. Indeed, the role and importance of sugar as a rapid reliever of fatigue is one which we are only just beginning to appreciate, and which goes surprisingly far already. It has been incorporated into the most hard-headed, cold-bloaded, matter-of-fact diet on earth, the German army rations, especially the march" emergency ration. No lief of careful observers of men, parficularly in the tropics, that the larger the amount of sugar and sugar-contain-ing foods they are supplied with, the less alcohol and other stimulants they will crave. For instance, the United States diminishes the craving for native brandy; and it has long been a matter of com-ment from thoughtful observers that the amount of drunkenness of a race or class is in inverse ratio to the amount of sugar From July 1 to December 31, 24,500 persons entered Mexico.
