Speas' Hit to Flagpole Lands Victory From Angels in Twelfth Chapter.

GRANEY GETS HOME RUN

Pitcher Later Throws Ball Away Letting Visitors Come Up From Behind and Tie Score, but All Ends Well.

BY W. J. PETRAIN.

Despite the fact that the Los Angeles players alighted from a belated train but a few minutes before appearing on the Vaughn-street lot yesterday it required 12 innings of hard playing on the part of McCredie's men to down the visitors by the close score of 4 to 3. Errors and misplays figured largely in the scores and Umpire McCarthy was somewhat off color in several decisions, but in spite of these defects the game was good to look upon.

The large crowd present was also a demonstration that the Coast League brand of baseball is more attractive than that of the other league. Yesterday's game brought out a bunch of bugs who were not backward in expressing their enthusiasm.

The Angels got to the register first when Orendorff negotiated the plate on a close decision in the third inning. Singles by McCredie and Johnson and some slow thinking on the part of the Angels allowed Portland to tie up the score in the fourth. Jack Graney opened the fifth by clouting one out of the lot, which was followed by a pass to Ryan, who scored on an error by "Pa" Dillon. This swelled Portland's total to three.

Graney then allowed a pass to Daley, and Godwin hit safely. Jack was seemingly dissatisfied with this much damage and tossed Dillon's bunt away, giving the Angels two more runs. This tied up the score once more and until the 12th neither team gained the ascendancy. In the last inning Billy Speas soaked a screamer to the flagpole which registered Olson with the deciding run after two men were out. The official score follows:

JACK GRANEY and Walter Nagle pitched gilt-edged ball yesterday. Each twirler held the hits down, but it should have been Portland's game before the ninth.

Umpire McCarthy got off to a bad start, but as he had to travel north in a tourist car, owing to the rush of excursionists, we can make allowances for once.

* * *

The Angelic herd was on a section of the regular passenger train which arrived here about seven hours late. They reached the park with hardly time enough to dress for the game, and it was called 15 minutes after the usual hour.

* * *

Billy Speas, in addition to breaking up the game, made several high-class catches in the left veldt. This lad is rapidly gaining his stride and will soon be rated as the premier outfielder of the league.

The mere fact that Pearl Casey remained at home to nurse his lame knee has given rise to the rumor that he is to play on the Coast League team. He may do so, but Judge McCredie says that no such move is contemplated.

* * *

Walter McCredie states that Benny Henderson has notified him that he will be in Portlad before the end of the week, and the tall manager is expecting Benny any day. Pfyl is also ready to report and Mac expects him to come north with Henderson.

* * *

The dejected and leaderless Colts were handed another defeat by Spokane yesterday. And Big Bill Chinault allowed but two hits. The luckless bunch could not get a run off three times as many hits.

* * *

Bill Reidy's rejuvenated Oaklanders took a fall out of the chesty Seals yesterday, and Portland is still closer to that top position. Perhaps the McCredie horde, with the assistance of Henderson, will gain the top before they go on the road again.

Garry Herrmann and his party is due to arrive in Portland Thursday. At least that was Garry's intention Sunday, and it may be that J. Cal Ewing, president of the Pacific Coast League, will accompany the Cincinnati magnate.

SHEPPARD OUT OF ALL RACES

Champion Runner Disabled by Abscess on Foot.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Melville E. Sheppard, the world's champion middle-distance runner, who won both the 800 and the 1500-meter championships at the Olympic games in 1908, announces in a letter that an abscess on the calf of one of his legs will prevent him from competing in any of the athletic meetings this season.

Sheppard paid no attention to a sore foot, and has run a number of races this season, with the result that an abscess has formed and he has been in bed for more than a week.

LANGFORD ACCEPTS TERMS

Fight With Ketchel on Labor Day Now Assured.

ELY, Nev., July 20.—The last impediment to the meeting in the prize ring here on Labor day of Stanley Ketchel and Sam Langford was removed last night when Langford wired from New York to Tex Hall, promoter of the contest:

"I accept original offer." This was in response to Hall's ultimatum sent on Saturday to Langford informing him that he must sign by 6 P. M. on Monday. Langford is guaranteed $5000, win or lose, besides $1000 for training expenses and two round-trip tickets from New York to Ely.

BOSTON, July 20.—Joe Woodman, manager of Sam Langford denied tonight that he had accepted the terms of the Ely (Nev.) Club for a match between Langford and Ketchel.

Langford was offered $5000 of a $25,000 purse, but Manager Woodman declares he must get $10,000 for Langford's end with $1500 for training expenses, two round-trip tickets, and one-third interest in the moving pictures before he will agree to the match. Woodman says he is considering offers from clubs in Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York for the match.

ROUGH BOUT EXPECTED

BERG AND TURK WILL PUT UP HARD BATTLE.

Venables and Buzukus Are Matched for Preliminary Contest Tomorrow Night.

More interest has been expressed to the square inch in tomorrow night's big wrestling match at Exposition Rink between John Berg (Young Hackenschmidt) and Big Yousiff, the Terrible Turk, than any affair of the kind held recently in Portland. The rough tactics of the pair at their previous meeting caught on with the crowd and the fans know that at least these two are out to give the public the best that is in them. Berg is jealous of his reputation and he will fight to the last ditch before he allows his shoulders to be pinned to the mat.

Matchmaker Curley sent word from Seattle yesterday that he had matched Virgil Venables, the Pacific Coast amateur champion for several years, who recently deserted the amateur ranks for the professional, and Peter Buzukus, the lightweight champion of California, for a return preliminary match Thursday night. Venables defeated the little Greek wonder over in Seattle last week, but Buzukus claimed to be suffering from a cold and was unable to travel at his fastest gait. He is confident that he can beat Venables and implored Curley for another chance.

Buzukus is making Portland his home now and will have a big following from the ancient land to cheer him against Venables. Venables is so well known in Portland as to need no introduction. For half a dozen years he has trimmed every lightweight amateur and not a few heavier men who came his way.

Big Yousiff made a splendid impression when here last and the feeling is general that had he been permitted to have doffed his shoes, Berg would not have thrown him; at least, not until both were ready to give in from exhaustion. Yousiff is admitted to have more strength than Berg and it was the speed of the latter, more than anything else, that gave him his victory. Yousiff says he will do his best to wipe out the stigma of defeat.

Berg hasn't forgotten the terrific lunge the foreigner made at him and the way he used his elbows until cautioned to cease, and Yousiff has not forgotten the beautiful massage that the husky Swede applied to his features. Of course, these are some of the little side issues, but they go to make the match interesting from a prospective standpoint.

BROWN'S ONE HIT WINS FOR SPOKANE

Chinault, Invincible Up to Seventh, Carelessly Puts Easy One Over.

TWO MEN ON BASES SCORE

Portland Twirler Now Has to His Credit More Games Held Under Five Hits Than Any Pitcher in the League.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—Manager Brown came to bat in the last of the seventh today with one out and Connors and James on third and second. Chinault had been pitching a phenomenal game and Buck Connors' drive a few inches out of reach of Staton in this same inning was the only thing resembling a hit secured off him when Brown faced him in the seventh. He made the mistake of shoving the first one over, and the manager met the ball on the nose and it shot on a line to left, between Cooney and Staton. Connors and James tore home with the only runs of the game.

Both Wright and Chinault pitched a masterly article of ball and the fielders were on the jump for everything. The contest was topped off in 72 minutes, which is a ground record for the season and close to the speed mark for all time.

Frary Keeps Men Moving.

The speed is due to the manner in which Umpire Frary demands that players move in and out on the jump, and the remarkable control pitchers have. Only six men have walked in the 26 innings of ball this series.

It was a pitchers' battle, with the shade in favor of Chinault up to the fireworks of the seventh. Portland was getting more hits off Wright. Cooney was the only man to reach second during the entire game by virtue of his double in the first inning. He got no further. Stevens, Weed, Connors and Ostdiek figured prominently in support. Brown cut in with a fast double play on Cooney and Bassey. The latter's drive was made to order for a double, however.

Wright Makes Nervy Play.

Wright pulled off the big play of the day. Bassey drove a hot one straight at his ankles. It struck his hip and bounded off at right angles toward first base. Wright was nearly knocked down, but dug over after the ball and scooped it into Weed's waiting hand about a yard ahead of Bassey.

Bill Chinault now has to his credit more games under five hits than any other twirler of the league. Score:

CLUB TEAM STRONG

Multnomah Expects to Win Honors at Seattle.

WATKINS PICKS HIS MEN

Manager Announces List of Stars Who Will Take Part in A. A. U. Games at Fair August 13 and 14.

The Multnomah Club will be represented by a team of stars in the National A. A. U. track and field championships to be held at Seattle August 13 and 14. The team will be strong enough, it is thought, to make a bid for first place in the junior championships and also to make a good showing in the senior events.

Frank E. Watkins, chairman of the M. A. A. C. outdoor committee and manager of the track team, announces the following track stars for entry in the National meet:

Sprints, Harold Reid, Oliver Huston, H. A. Meier; 440-yard dash, Rube Williams; half mile, Burns; mile, Miller; high jump, K. C. Chapman; broad jump, Dan Kelly; hurdles, Forrst Smithson; weights, Henry McKinney, Carl Wolff, A. B. Conoway, Baker.

In the century dash Reid and Huston are both good for 10 seconds flat, and it is thought that Huston may get a shade under that time. Meier will be usesd in the 220-yard dash and in this event he should be close to 22 flat.

Rube Williams, the O. A. C. star of 1905, should run the quarter under 50 seconds, if he still retains any of his old-time form.

Burns, the H. M. A. star, is good for 4:35 in the mile, and Miller, of Washington High School, holds a record of 2:02 in the half mile.

Chapman, of O. A. C., should be good for at least second or third place in the high jump, as he has repeatedly gone over the stick at 5 feet 10 inches and can be counted on for at least 5 feet 8 inches.

Dan Kelly is booked as a sure winner in the broad jump. He will not compete in the 100-yard dash, however, on account of a sore ankle. He is in training at his home in Baker City.

Forrest Smithson, the world's champion hurdler, will be depended upon to take care of the high sticks. He will have several crack hurdlers to compete with, but if he keeps up his stride he will have no trouble in taking the event.

In the shotput, McKinney, Wolff and Conoway can all do better than 45 feet, and will probably take at least a third place. Conoway will also be used in the 16-pound hammer-throw and the discus. Baker, lately from Cornell, will toss the hammer. He is said to be capable of doing better than 150 feet.

The junior events will be held on August 13 and the senior events on August 14. According to the A. A. U. rules, the winner of any event in the junior championships shall be ineligible for any further competition in the junior class. Nothing further shall prevent an athlete entering in both senior and junior championships and competing in both classes the same day, providing he has not previously won a senior championship.

The javelin-throwing contest will be the first one ever held on the Pacific Coast. The javelin, according to A. A. U. rules, is an article 8.1 feet long and weighing 1.6 pounds. It is made of wood with a sharp iron point, and has at about the center of gravity a grip formed by a binding of whip cord without knots.

In adition to the regular outdoor events there will be a supplementary indoor meet, an individual championship contest, scored on the percentage basis, a cross country run and swimming events.

It is required that all entries for the A. A. U. championships shall close at least seven days before the meet. The chairman of the championship committee receiving the entries is W. M. Ingles, of the Seattle Athletic Club.

The Multnomah Club team will leave Portland Thursday morning, August 12. A large number of the clubmen will accompany the team. In the party will be Edgar Frank, president of the P. N. A.; Morris Dunne, chairman of the registration committee, and George McMillan, of the board of governors of the Northwest A. A. U.

R. WILDER WINS CONSOLATION

Defeats A. B. McAlpin After Losing First Two Sets.

In the last match of the State Tennis Tournament, the final match in the consolation series, held yesterday afternoon on the Multnomah grounds, Richard Wilder won the cup by annexing three out of five sets from A. B. McAlpin.

The match was a thrilling one and had surprises at both ends. Wilder was booked for a sure winner, but was completely buffaloed during the first two sets and lost them, 0-6 and 1-6. In the third set, however, he came down to earth and won 7-5. He also won the two remaining sets. The final score was 0-6, 1-6, 7-5, 8-6, 6-4.

Jack Atkin Is Easy Winner.

EMPIRE CITY, July 20.—Jack Atkin, heavily played favorite at 7 to 5, easily won the Fleet Wing Handicap, six furlongs, here today. He was a trifle slow to break, but Powers rushed him up through the field and at the far turn was in front, leading by half a length.

IKE BUTLER AT HELM

PRODIGAL PLAYER GIVEN MANAGEMENT OF TIGERS.

Realizes He Has Big Job Ahead of Him, but Insists He Will Yet Have Good Team.

TACOMA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—"Old Reliable" Ike Butler, who earlier in the season jumped the Tigers and took a berth in the California State Outlaw League, is now manager of the tail-end Tacoma club, to which he returned a few days ago after receiving President Shreeder's forgiveness. "Bill" Hurley, who has piloted the team since Russ Hall quit, will be retained and will probably occupy his old position in the left garden.

The change was decided during a conference this afternoon between Shreeder and Butler. The fighting owner of the team, disgusted with the way his aggregation of ball tossers has been performing, has given Butler carte blanche, so a few changes, which have been coming with regularity the last few weeks, can be expected. The new manager already has strings out for several new players.

"I had no intimation that I was to be appointed manager of the team when President Shreeder telephoned me from Portland to slip off here and confer with him," said Butler. "It came as a complete surprise to me and while I am pleased with the confidence and authority vested in me, I would not accept until I first learned that there would be no hard feelings among the other players. Upon the assurance that there would be none I accepted and while it will be a big job to get the team down to business and where it can win consistently, I believe I can do that. At any rate I will do my level best."

Hughie Kellackey, recently given a blue ticket by the Tiger management, has caught on with Seattle and will work behind the bat. He still has a sore finger, but expects to be in shape in a few days.
