

SCHVELY PUZZLE BY HIS ATTITUDE

Has Not Asked to Take Depositions Nor Called for Any Subpoenas.

STATE BUSY MAKING READY

Will Take Depositions of 16 Witnesses Unable to Be Present, but Defense Has Filed No Cross-Interrogatories to These.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 21.—(Special.)—The state will take depositions of 16 witnesses who will be unable to be present at the impeachment trial of J. H. Schvely, State Insurance Commissioner, charged with high crimes. To none of the depositions has Schvely or Attorney George Israel filed cross-interrogatories.

Notice was given Mr. Schvely and his attorney that the state would ask for these, but neither appeared before President A. S. Ruth, of the Senate, when Attorney-General W. P. Bell made formal application.

Twenty witnesses will be called by the state, aside from the depositions of others taken. Up to date the state has issued no subpoenas, as the witnesses, who live in Walla Walla, Portland, Spokane and Seattle, have agreed to come without them.

The action of Schvely is puzzling the officials. Israel announced that numerous depositions would have to be taken, and witnesses subpoenaed from all parts of the state, but the defense has not asked the right to take a single deposition or called for a subpoena.

EDGE BUSY GATHERING DATA

Goes to Spokane to Look Up Points for Schvely Trial.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 21.—(Special.)—Representative Edge, of the House board of managers in the impeachment proceedings against State Insurance Commissioner Schvely, and Assistant Attorney-General Lee, were at the Court house today conferring with Prosecutor Fugh in reference to the case. Much of the Spokane grand jury findings in the Pacific Livestock Insurance case will be used in the legislative trial.

Representative Edge and Mr. Lee will be busy on the Spokane end of the case until August 2. The special session convenes for the impeachment trial August 11.

PRITCHETT VISITS PACIFIC

Head of Carnegie Foundation at Forest Grove for Day.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—Henry S. Pritchett, head of the Carnegie Foundation, visited Pacific University today, coming out from Portland in an automobile with W. B. Ayer, Rev. T. L. Elliot and George Good.

The party spent several hours at the university, enjoying the shade of the oaks in the campus. President Pritchett was especially pleased to meet Professor Joseph W. Marsh, who was retired from the faculty of Pacific University upon a Carnegie allowance two years ago. Professor Marsh is the only teacher living in Oregon who has received this honor.

President Pritchett visited the buildings, inspected the laboratories and the library, and spent considerable time with President Ferrin, looking into the work of the college in the office, showing that the funds of the college were well cared for.

HOLD-UPS RIFE IN PALOUSE

Hobos Come Into Wheat Country on Every Train.

GARFIELD, Wash., July 21.—(Special.)—Hobos are coming into the Palouse country on the rods of every freight train and on the blind baggage of every passenger train. Holdups are becoming frequent and the City Marshal and night watchmen are busy. But a few nights ago "Uncle Dickie" Stinson, a local farmer, was hand-bagged after leaving the O. R. & N. depot for the Garfield Hotel and his money stolen from his pockets.

Saturday night, Mr. Rogers, who farms 200 acres of the Burrell estate land, was held up by four men at Eden Station, two miles from Garfield, and advised to hand over his wallet under penalty of death. One of the robbers grabbed the horse's bridle and another asked for his wallet. The other two men leaned up against the warehouse near the robbery occurred and said nothing.

SERVICE TO BE INSPECTED

Committee Will Examine Fount of Salem Water Supply.

SALEM, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—In a few days a committee representing the State Board of Health and the City of Salem will make a trip up into the foothills of the Cascades to make a thorough test and examination of the water in Brimstone Creek and its tributaries, from which the city and state institutions located at Salem, will receive their supply of mountain water as soon as the city can complete the system. This is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $200,000.

The committee will comprise Dr. R. C. Yensen, secretary State Board of Health, Portland; Dr. W. B. Morse, a member of the board; Mayor Rodgers, of Salem; Engineer W. J. Culver, of Salem, and N. D. Elliott, another member of the Salem City Council.

CHERRIES ALL SHIPPED

Lane County Union Will Complete Work This Week.

EGGERS, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—The Lane County Fruitgrowers' Association will complete its work of packing and shipping cherries this week. It has had some expert packers at work for the past three weeks, and has shipped cherries to probably every state in the Union outside of some of the Southern States.

About 15 tons have been shipped from the local headquarters, the bulk of these going to Seattle, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, Northern California points and Southern Oregon. But the ten-pound boxes of fancy cherries have gone to New York and Philadelphia, as well as to other points in every Eastern State. The varieties shipped have been principally Royal Annas, although quite a quantity of Blags, Lamberts and Black Republics have also been sent away.

The prices brought for cherries in ten-pound boxes this year vary from 40 cents, the lowest, to $1.25 per box. But at the same time these prices were being paid, much higher prices were being received for cherries not so good on the Chicago market. For instance, on July 16, Blags were selling in Chicago for $4 per box, while Lamberts brought $3 in the same market. It costs the fruitgrowers here from 50 to 60 cents a box to lay a ten-pound box down in Chicago. Something of the possibilities of the Willamette Valley cherry, with a good market, may be understood, when the grower would not accept a cent a pound for his cherries if he received 50 cents a box for them in the Chicago market, that is, for the ten-

GOVERNOR TAKES FIRST VACATION

Will Be Gone Two Weeks in California and Southern Oregon.

HIS TWO JOBS HARD WORK

Benson Feels Need of Rest After His Strenuous Season—Has Been Away but Twice—McArthur Is Left in Charge.

SALEM, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—Governor Benson will leave tonight for a vacation of two weeks, spending the time at San Jose and San Francisco, and stopping on his return at Slason and possibly at Klamath Falls. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Benson.

This will be the first vacation of any kind the Governor has had for more than a year. He has applied himself closely to the duties of the two offices, which he has held since the adjournment of the last Legislature, and in need of recreation and rest. He will visit relatives in San Francisco and at his old home in San Jose, and upon his return will inspect the Central California fish hatcheries at Slason, and, if time permits, will go to Klamath Falls for a short visit with his brother, Judge Henry L. Benson.

Since assuming the duties of the Governorship, Mr. Benson has been absent from the office twice, having visited the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition on both these occasions. The past three months have been ones with him, but the summer months having brought the customary lull in official business, the Governor has deemed it the most opportune time to take his annual outing. During his absence the Governor's office will be in charge of C. N. McArthur, private secretary, while Chief Clerk Lowell will look after the running of the Secretary of State's office.

BALLINGER VISITS ONTARIO

Will Meet With Settlers Relative to Irrigation Project.

VALE, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—Next Friday, July 23, an excursion will be run between Vale and Ontario and Wellston, to accommodate the farmers who wish to go to Ontario to meet with Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, who will be there on that date, to discuss the Malheur irrigation project.

The people are looking forward to this visit with keen interest, as it is expected the Secretary will decide whether the Government project will be put in or whether it will give way to the private company that is now here.

The Government has promised to go ahead with the project if 90 per cent of the landowners desire it, in preference to the private project, and 32 per cent of the people have already signed up for the Government project.

In the last of the three-fourths of the settlers affected will meet Mr. Ballinger in Ontario. A special train of four coaches will run from Vale and a larger one from Wellston to accommodate the Coach Ox Flat people.

BUFFALOES REACH CANADA

San Pablo Herd Is Driven Across Border With Much Loss.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 21.—(Special.)—Canada is now in actual possession of the famous San Pablo buffalo herd, the last contingent, numbering some 500 head, having been driven up on the Montana hills and driven into the Canadian National Park. The drive across the international boundary line was most trying, 14 of the animals dying on the way.

Within the confines of the National Park are now located the last remnant of the buffalo herd, once numbered in thousands over the prairie lands of this continent. Sir Donald, the father of the San Pablo herd, and one of the animals to arrive in the first contingent from Montana, died a few weeks ago at Banff. His head is being stuffed, and will be sent to the government museum at Ottawa.

HARVEST IS BURNED

Fire Started by Engine Spark Consumes 260 Acres.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 21.—(Special.)—Consuming 260 acres of wheat and barley and endangering 90 acres more, a fire started this afternoon about 4 o'clock in the wheat field of Harvey McDonald and Frank Baker and burned by Mike Bowe, and caused a loss of $10,000 fully covered by insurance for nine hours.

The blaze was started by an outboard train for Spokane, as the sparks from the engine were seen to alight in the field by several farmhands.

The total field comprises some 350 acres, and about 90 acres of this had been previously headed and threshed and was at the time of the fire in the stack. The rest was in standing grain, but owing to a strong back wind about 100 acres of it was saved from the flames.

A threshing crew at work in the field had some trouble in removing its machinery to a place of safety, but with the exception of a few small breaks, accomplished the move.

JAPANESE BUILDING DONE

Dedication Ceremonies Include Banquet at Night.

SEATTLE, July 21.—The beautiful Japanese building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition was dedicated today with speeches, a reception and luncheon. The building, which is occupied by the Japanese government and the Japanese Exhibition Association, has been open for many weeks under the direction of Hajime Ota, imperial commissioner, but
