NEW YORKERS HERE TODAY—Portland will entertain more excursionists today when two carloads of New Yorkers arrive this morning from the East. One party made up of prominent business men of Brooklyn, N. Y., was organized by the Brooklyn Board of Trade. The larger party is in charge of H. H. Kinnports. The latter aggregation will make its headquarters at the Oregon Hotel, where the Brooklyn party will go to the Portland Hotel. A trolley ride will be given for the visitors at 2 o'clock this afternoon, a delegation from the New York Society of Portland calling at both hotels for that purpose. There will also be an informal reception tendered them tonight at 8 o'clock at the Portland Commercial Club. Members of the New York Society and the reception committee of the Commercial Club will be present to welcome the travelers. Former residents of New York are invited to attend the reception. The officers of the New York Society are: President, Miss L. M. O'Brien; secretary, C. H. Fisher.

NEW MEMBERS OF FACULTY—Additions are announced to the faculty of Columbia University. Rev. George Marr, C. C. D. D., and Rev. Father Davis, C. S. C., will join the faculty at the opening of the new school year. Rev. Joseph Gallagher, C. S. C., who has been attending the council at Notre Dame, Ind., is expected home this week. Rev. Father McKoon, C. S. C., professor of physics at Columbia University, will have charge of the science department of Sacred Heart College, Watertown, Wis., the ensuing year. Mr. Alois Weisbecker, C. S. C., returns to Notre Dame to complete his studies.

STABBER WILL HAVE HEARING—John Morrison, colored, charged with stabbing William Hansen, a one-armed Swedish laborer in a quarrel over a can of beer Wednesday night and who was arrested by Detectives Craddock and Mallet Thursday night, will be given a preliminary examination before Judge Bennett in Municipal Court today. The officers say that the fight was over a can of beer and was brutal and malicious.

REV. EDGAR P. HILL, D. D., professor of homiletics in McCormick Presbyterian Theological Seminary, will preach the opening service of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, which will preach both morning and evening, at the First Church, corner Alder and Twelfth streets, morning 10:30, 12:30 A. M., evening 7:30 P. M.

RIVERSIDE DRIVING CLUB RACES—Five harness races, two running races, two match races, also owned by Thomas Murphy; Zee, owned by George K. Howitt; side bet $400. Lady Lovelace and Blue Jacket are matched for 700. Country Club track, Saturday, July 24. P. M. Admission 60c, including grandstand.

BISHOP SMITH TO SPEAK—Bishop Charles W. Smith, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will speak at the Civic Federation mass meeting, at First Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Beech and Northrup streets, tomorrow at 2 P. M. Other prominent speakers will also take part in the programme.

FUNERAL OF PATRICK COLGAN—The funeral of Patrick Colgan, who died July 21, at his home, 32 East Eighth street North, was held yesterday afternoon from St. Francis Church, and the interment was in Mount Calvary cemetery. He is survived by his wife and five children and was 53 years of age.

LECTURE ON AFRICA—Dr. Davidson Buchanan will give a second lecture on his recent experiences in the wilds of Africa, showing how European countries are especially England, are "grafting" in Central Africa on a national scale.

MAY ESTABLISH NEW CHURCH—Harry R. Childs, of New York City, has been spending a few days in Portland in consultation with Rev. James D. Corby, with a view to the establishment of a new Universalist Church at some point in this state. Mr. Childs, who is a successful and wealthy merchant, is president of the Young People's Christian Union of the Universalist Church. He was pleased with the site of the new building for the Church of Good Tidings now being erected at East Thirty-fourth street and Broadway. Mr. Childs reported that the National convention of the Young People's Christian Union from the Portland Union, presented an invitation to that body to hold its next convention in Oregon, and the invitation received much favor. It had already been decided to meet in New York with the Universalist churches, however, but the convention may come to Portland the following year, as many of the delegates evinced a desire to visit Oregon. Mr. Childs was very favorably impressed with the beauty and enterprise of Portland.

HELLO THEATER INSPECTED—An inspection of the Hello Theater was made yesterday afternoon by Messrs. O'Shea and Connell, of the Executive Board, and Council of Building Inspector Dobson, Deputy Inspector Plummer, Fire Chief Campbell, Deputy Fire Marshal Roberts, Contractor Bingham and Architect Merritt, but it has not as yet been decided whether the old building can be repaired so as to warrant reopening the house. It will require considerable expense, if it can be done at all. A report will be made to the Mayor and Executive Board later. It was closed by order of ex-Mayor Lane.

STRAPS LEAD TO ARREST—Charles Schmidt, a realty owner, was arrested yesterday on a warrant from the Municipal Court at the instance of Charles Polz, charging Schmidt with the theft of two leather straps from the Polz barn. Schmidt says he purchased a span of horses and a set of harness from Polz, paying him $400. When Schmidt went to get the horse and harness Polz was absent and he took the straps under the belief that they belonged with the harness, he says. The case will be tried in Municipal Court this morning.

SALOON ROBBED OF $100—The Elk Horn saloon, at 631 First street, was robbed of $100 Thursday night. When the place was opened yesterday morning the cash register found that the furniture had been thrown about in disorder and the cash register rifled. August Becker, the night bartender, who closed the saloon at 1 o'clock Thursday night, was taken into custody, but later released. M. Senger, the proprietor, is at a loss to account for the theft as the doors were securely locked and the windows were bolted. No evidence of having been pried open.

SHORTLIFFER IS DISMISSED—Mrs. William Wall, of St. Joseph, Mo., touring the Pacific Coast with her husband, and who was arrested Thursday night while secreting some imitation jewelry in a handbag which she carried, was released from custody by Judge Bennett in Municipal Court yesterday morning on motion of Assistant District Attorney Hennessy. Her husband appeared in court and satisfied the officials that her larcenous inclinations resulted from a mental ailment. She was made to pay $10 court costs.

HEARS VOICES; SENT TO ASYLUM—C. J. Campbell, a carpenter, 45 years old, has been committed to the Salem asylum. He believes a gang is conspiring against his life and liberties because he is working in the temperance cause. He says also that he hears peculiar voices in the air. Letters written by him to Mayor Simon and Chief of Police Cox beseeching them to put a stop to the persecution he was enduring, led them to believe he was demented.

FAREWELL TO SALVATIONISTS—The Young People's League of the Salvation Army will hold a farewell party Friday night at 8 o'clock, at 129 Madison street, for the benefit of Adjutant and Mrs. Sioate and Captain Johnson who will leave Monday for other fields. The No. 4, of which the aforementioned were members, has done remarkably good work during the past year. The new officers are expected to take charge on July 22.

SUED FOR TELEPHONE BILL—Lee Bowdler, a real estate man, with offices in the Abington building and at Mount Adams, was sued in Justice Field No. 4, yesterday morning by Pacific States Adjustment Company, for payment on a telephone account of $33.22.

APPROXIMATE SALON—At 7:15 o'clock Sunday evening an address to sailors will be given by Robert Livingstone, at the Seaman's Institute. Front and Flanders streets. All friends of the seamen are cordially invited.
