Together Again.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 26.—His gullet closed and his stomach turned to gristle by a coplous draught of hydrochloric acid, which he had swallowed. Charles Allen is nearing recovery here today, after a series of surgical operations, the last of which involved replacing the man's mouth with a silver tube in the proximmouth with a silver tube in the proximity of his disphragm, through which he takes predigested food. The operation disclosed an almost hope-less state of internal affairs. The nesophagus had closed so that the man could not swallow. On exploring the region of the stomach it was found to have turned to a gristly ball, which surgeons

As a last resort, when efforts to join the stomach to the end of the intestine had falled, all former openings in the stomach pouch were closed and it was joined to the intestine a foot or more below the normal position. The stomach then was drawn close to the abdominal wall and a tube inserted, through which he may be fed.

His condition is such that the surgeons have begun to feed him small quantities of undigested food, thinking that the mucous membrane is gradually being re-

Today it was found that Allen could swallow again and another operation probably will be made to connect what is left of the aesophagus with the piece of atom-ach, in hope that the lost tissues will be replaced by modifications of the existing membranes.

The case has afforded the real oppor-tunity for the study of predigested foods and their use.

This policy. he said, was that which would be fol-lowed in an effort to defeat the appli-cation of the Spekane decision to other intermediate points, in case the decision is affirmed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, Reno, Phoenix and other Coast terminals being specified as the intermediate points in question.
Officials of the San Francisco Traffe Bureau, while they would not permit the use of their names, said that the ireau practically had determined not intervene unless the Spokane declaion was affirmed, when the bureau would ask that the railroads be compelled to grant reductions on east-beund traffic to permit the jobhers of the Coast to enter into the intermediate territory on an even footing with the Eastern shippers.
