BUILD CLUBHOUSE-The Kenfl-Improvement Club may pur-MAT lot on Gladstone avenue and put chase a lot on Gladstone avenue and put up a clubhouse for the use of the club and the boys of that suburb. All ar-rangements had been made to erect a symmasium on the grounds of the Kenil-worth Presbyterian Church and the grounds had been staked, when the true-toes dickled that they could not permit the building to be creeted, as they had other class which contemplate moving ar plans, which contemplate moving present church building to one side The present church building to one side and the erection of another on more modern lines. The club then took up the project of erecting a clubhouse of two-stories, the lower story to be used for business purposes. A grocerymain stands ready to lease the lower floor. Thirty persons have subscribed $50 each toward the erection of the building. The matter has not been settled, but it now appears that the erection of the building will be undertaken. The building proposed will cost $500. Negotiations to secure option on a lot are under way. Wonking on BELADONE STREET.-The option on a lot are under way. Wonking on Heilmost Struggr-The Portland Railway, Light & Power Com-pany has a large force of men at work on Belmont street heyond East Forty-first street relaying the rails with heavy steel ones. A portion of the tracks has been reliald up to Freityman, avenue, and yesterday work was started east of this evenue. All this work is presented on the avenue. All this work is preparatory to the paving of the street to Francis ave-nue, two blocks beyond West avenue. The paving company has laid two blocks The paying of the street to Francis ave-nue, two blocks beyond West avenue. The paying company has laid two blocks east of East Thirty-ninth street, but suspended work until the railway com-pany should get the double tracks relaid through to the end of the improvement. Meanwhile the property-owners along the street may put in water, gas and sewer connections so the street will not have to be torn up after the pavement has been put down. At East Twentisth street, on Belmont, the filling of the ravine is under way, and may be completed the year the scholarship has been given. NOTICE To the Public-It will be necessary for the carmen's picale committee to ac-count for every unsold admission ticket before the ownership of the Schilling plano can be determined. Just as soon as all tickets are accounted for a notice will appear in the daily papers and on the cars, giving date and place. Oscar D. Stanley, chairman. under way, and may be completed the next few weeks, so that Belmont street may be opened at this point and provide a clear street to East Water.

 DEATH OF R. J. COLLENS - RODERT James Collins, aged 25 years, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, at his home, 20 Renton street. Mr. Collins was well known and well liked in his neighbor-hood and was a respected employe of the Dresser & Sealy-Mason Co. He was past of the George Washington Camp of Woodmen of the World, and was also a member of the Ancient Order of Hiber-nians. He had lived 12 years in Portland, A widow and two children survive him. The funeral will be held at 5:20 o'clock Wednesday morning, from the Domini-tion Catholic Church, and interment will be in Riverview Cemeter.
PREMARS ARTICLE ON PORTLAND.-A8fered and the incidental music is caplial. Eleanor Gordon and company, the former being favorably remembered as a former member of the Belasco Stock Company, do a pleasing little skit called "Tips on Tap," which is in the main very entertaining but is marred some-what by a number of long speeches and some maudikn sentiment. The sketch is plainly comedy and there seems little excuse for lugging in the "high faluting" talk indulged in by the young wife, How-ever, the playlet is calculated to please
