Portland Makes It Five Shut-out Games in Row and Fans Are Jubilant.

RYAN'S SMASH DOES WORK

Two-Sacker Registers Speas With Only Score—Carson Is Given Fine Support and Has Little Trouble.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 1, Oakland 0. San Francisco 4, Sacramento 4. No game at Los Angeles.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. Backed up by fine support and aided by Buddy Ryan's two-base smash which scored Billy Speas with the only run of the game, Al Carson kept up the white-washing record of the Portland team yesterday by making it five straight games in which the McCredies have blanked the opposing nine, Oakland being sent to the cars unless in nine innings.

Despite his good work, Christian lost his game in the third inning, when with two out, Speas singled to right and Ryan sent him over the register with a two-base smash to the same garden. Ryan was then thrown out at the plate for the second time in the game on a slide to left field by Walter McCredie, Duffy Lewis making two perfect throws to Carl Lewis. Ryan's first effort at gaining the plate was nipped in the first inning. He had forced Speas at second and followed this by stealing the bag, and when McCredie laced his first hit to left Lewis pegged Ryan out neatly.

In the sixth inning Cameron led off with a single, only to be doubled out when Will Hogan hit to Dick Breen, who tossed to Olson, who heaved to Ort ahead of Hogan. This play was practically duplicated in the ninth, for Cameron had reached first on another single, but McKune hit to Olson and another double play resulted.

FIVE straight shutout victories for the home club. Guess that is a poor record, what?

Bobby Lowe, once upon a time the most famous infielder in the big leagues, who is now scouting for Detroit, was one of the interested spectators. He admitted that the Coast League is playing a better brand of baseball than was the American Association.

Billy Reidy, Bobby Lowe and Fielder Jones, all former major leaguers, held an interesting fanning bee. Lowe and Jones told Reidy he was playing a mean trick on them by sticking with the game. "Why, even Van Halteren had sense enough to quit," remarked Lowe.

Duffy Lewis continues to play remarkable ball, and the double-cross must have been used when St. Louis took Murphy instead of Lewis.

The continual visits of the big league scouts keep the managers busy setting prices and quoting terms. However, McCredie has none for sale, but will grade any time, providing he gets two or three men for one.

The playing of Olson and Breen was one of the features of yesterday's game. Between the two nothing got by that infield when hits would have meant runs for the Oaklanders.

According to the San Francisco Bulletin expert, Kid Mohler is now taking some notice of Portland. Funny how the Seals never figured Portland until the Angels dropped six straight. However, there are many things funnier than that in San Francisco.

Bill Reidy announces that he expects to leave to join his team here this week. He needs one, for Micky La Longe is too good a catcher to be played in the garden.

Still the hopeless Colts keep sliding nearer and nearer to the cellar position. Nine straight defeats now, and goodness knows how many more are likely to follow. That club has been in need of a couple of players for a long time, but there is little chance of getting any at this stage of the season.

Tacoma put one over on Miguel Lynch and the Dugdale bunch, and if the Tigers would only repeat this a few times, Dugdale will be importing some "more" big time talent.

Chief Pinnace emulated the example of Brierley in the eighth inning yesterday. He aeroplaned so far that Vancouver had not the least semblance of trouble in hooking a game which apparently belonged to the hopeless ones.

PORTLAND LOSES GAME IN EIGHTH

Clever Base Work, Assisted by Error by Adams, Lets In Four Runs.

GILLIGAN CHANGES LUCK

Breaks Into Batting for Champions and Overcomes Early Lead Made by Colts—Jackson Signs for Davis—Flanagan.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Vancouver 5, Portland 2. Tacoma 4, Seattle 3. No game at Spokane—rain.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 27.—(Special.)—Portland led the Champions along until the eighth inning of today's game, when the Champions started the fireworks, and three safe hits, combined with a pass, a double steal and Adams' wild heave to third gave the champions four runs. Final score—Vancouver 5, Portland 2.

Big Chief Pinnace had the game well in hand up until the time that Jack Gilligan started the Beavers' batting streak. Four hits were all that the visitors allowed up to that time. Nordyke's homer giving the Champions their first run. In the eighth, the ball-noon ascended and the Champions got a commanding lead in the run column.

Gilligan held Portland to three hits. In the second inning the Colts tallied once in a fielder's choice, a pass and a double steal, while their second run was scored in the third inning. Bassey singled, stole second and came home on a throw that Gilligan had the time to make. After that Gilligan and they were retired in one, two, three order. Pinnace got a single in the eighth, but he was stranded there. Two fast double plays by the champions were the only fielding features.

Tonight Manager Dickson announced that he had signed Dave Flanagan, a brother of the famous Pat, and the new outfielder will be here by the end of the week. He also expects to land Pat Flanagan before the end of the week. Score: PORTLAND. AB R H PO A E. Bassey, lf, 4 0 0 3 0 0. Adams, 2b, 4 0 0 3 0 0. Nordyke, 3b, 4 0 0 3 0 0. Stator, 1b, 4 0 0 3 0 0. PARISVILLE WINS ANOTHER RACE. PARISVILLE, July 27.—W. K. Vanderbilt's Marconure won the Prix Avilly today at Chantilly.

WOOD ESTABLISHES NEW MARK

Experts Expect Homewood Player to Be Western Golf Champion.

FLOSSMORE, Ill., July 27.—Warren K. Wood, of Homewood, won the low medal score prize in the 36-hole qualifying round of the amateur championship tournament of the Western Golf Association. His score for two days was 146, which sets a new competition record for the Homewood course. His work has strengthened the opinion that he will succeed Mason E. Phelps as Western champion.

MARATHON RUNNERS MATCHED Marsh to Run Against Shrubbs for Wage of $500. VANCOUVER, B. C., July 27.—(Special.)—John Marsh, of Winnipeg, holder of the American record for the Marathon distance, and Alfred Shrubbs, the noted English runner, will meet in a 26-mile race here Saturday, August 14. Marsh has been in the city during the past few days and through an arrangement made with Con Jones, the local athletic promoter, agreed to race Shrubbs in a 26-mile match at Recreation Park. Jones offered to hang up a purse for $500, the winner to take $250 and the loser $250. Shrubbs has been invited to run in the Marathon there Labor day. He says he is willing to bet $500 on his chances against Shrubbs.

SCORING OF RUNNER RIGHT. ST. HELENS RESIDENT TELLS OF DIAMOND COLLISION AND WRITES QUERIES. ST. HELENS, Or., July 26.—(To the Sporting Editor, Oregonian.)—Will you please publish the following queries, which occurred in a game between St. Helens and Kalama, July 24? The score was 4 to 1 in favor of St. Helens. When a batter hit a ball which, under ordinary circumstances, would have been a home run, in running from second to third he collided with the third baseman, who was standing two feet inside the line. The impact stopped the runner long enough for the ball to be held in time to hit him at third, but the umpire allowed him to score. The grounds were not enclosed and around runs were made on a bit of the field. I would like to know whether the ruling allowing runs to score was right. M. L. STODDARD.

Your query is rather indefinite as to the circumstances of the collision, but if the third baseman occupied the line while the runner was in the air, he intended an interference and the runner should score.

DETROIT SPY LOUD IN PRAISE OF COAST LEAGUE BALL. DETROIT, Mich., July 27.—W. J. Petra, Detroit sports editor, writes to the Oregonian: "I have just read your article on the Coast League and am glad to see that you are so complimentary to the Coast League ball. I have been a fan of the Coast League since its inception and I have seen it play in many of the best ball parks in the world. I have seen it play in many of the best ball parks in the world. I have seen it play in many of the best ball parks in the world."

SMITH INCIDENT EXPLAINED. REIDY SAYS HE LEFT DISPUTED PLAYER AT HOME BECAUSE HE DID NOT RECEIVE ANSWER TO MESSAGE SENT MCCREDIES. BY W. J. PETRAIN. Bobby Lowe is the latest of the big league scouts to visit Portland for the purpose of sizing up the baseball talent now doing duty in the Pacific Coast League. He represents the Detroit Tigers, two-time champions of the American League, and whose present gain indicates the winning of a third pennant.

A few years back the name of Bobby Lowe was one of the most idolized in fandom, for in his day he was known as one of the greatest infielders the game ever knew. In some quarters he was heralded as even a greater fielder than W. F. "Bones" Ely, to whom many critics even now extend the palm for superiority at the fielding game. As a batter he was Ely's superior, for "Bones" was always noted as a poor batsman, whereas Lowe could hit the ball frequently.

Lowe wound up his baseball career with Detroit several seasons ago, but last year he played a little and managed a team in a minor league. As the drafting period approached the Detroit Club impudently Low into action as a scout, and ing McCredie by seven or eight games, and every one down south picked Los Angeles as the runner-up. At that time I told Danny Long and Kid Mohler that the team they would have to beat was Portland, and they hardly figured it at all. At the present rate of ball McCredie's bunch is playing. San Francisco is going to have a hard job of holding the lead.

"We played the Seals to a standstill last week, and should have won five out of the seven games, but luck broke against us and they got four out of the seven. Still I hope to beat that bunch, yet, and if Portland wins the pennant, just figure out how much Oakland helps it by reversing San Francisco. I don't expect my club to get much higher in the race this year, though my ambition is to beat Sacramento out. However, if I can hold near an even break from now on, I shall be satisfied and am figuring on better prospects for next season.

Reidy announced that Tonneson would pitch for Oakland today, which means that Portland will be pitted against one of the cleverest southpaws in the league.
