IMPUDENT NEGRO

Senator Stone Vindicated by Baltimore Justice for Slapping Waiter.

HAD TO WAIT FOR LUNCHEON

Tall Missourian Declared to Have Been Justified When Pullman's Black Servant "Got Even" for Reprimand.

BALTIMORE, July 38.-Declaring that in the circumstances the assault was jus-tifiable, Police Magistrate Grannan today dismissed the charge against Senator W. J. Stone, of Missouri, of having attacked Lawrence G. Brown, a negro walter on a Ponnsylvania Railroad train. Justice Grannan said:

Senator Stone. I have traveled a great "Senator Stone, I have traveled a given deal and can fully appreciate the treatment that you received at the hands of Brown, who, it has been shown, was discourteous in the extreme. I feel you had sufficient provocation and that you were absolutely justified in reprimanding and slapping Brown, I dismiss you."
The crowd applauded until the magistrate rapped sharply for order.

Senator in Patrol Wagon.

The case grew out of an incident of the trip yesterday of Mr. Stone from Philadelphia to Washington. The trip was interrupted here last night when a policeman angual the ceman entered the Senator's car, arrested and sent him to the station house in the patrol wagen, accompanied by Mr. Stone and his counsel took their places in the ordinary prisoners dock when the case was called. An attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Pullman Company requested that the case be dismissed, but Brown insisted upon the trial.

William B. Martin, the Pullman conductor, testified that the Senator threatened to have "the whole bunch fired." Counsel for Mr. Stone pleaded the im-munity of Senators from arrest and was overruled by Magistrate Grannan, who said that under the law they are liable to arrest for any breach of the peace. The court then asked Mr. Stone for his

SENATOR MAD CLEAN THROUGH

Stone of Missouri Says He Is Going to Make Trouble.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator Stone was fighting mad when he reached Washington from Baltimore yesterday afternoon after his encounter with a negro waiter on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He remarked that "the Pennsyl-vania Railroad would have tall explaining to do." I told the negro who walted on me to bring me a lamb chop and some boiled eggs," said Senator Stone, "and then I called him back and ordered him bring me a drink of Scotch whisky nd a large tumblerful of water. "He brought the whisky in a small larm and with it he brought another amall glass containing some water. I called him back to bring me a large glass of water. I spoke sharply to him. He came buck in a little while with a large glass and a chunk of ice in it, but

and had finished eating, but there was no sign of my food. I walked back to the kitchen and asked the cook why I was not being served. He pointed to my not being served. He pointed to my hinch, which was all cooked, waiting for the waiter. That gentleman put in an appearance, and I uttered remarks calculated to make him sit up and take notice. He started to answer me back. 'You black dug,' said I, 'you're trying to show your resentment.' Then I reached over and slapped his face. A fresh young person, who introduced himself as the Pullman porter, happened along in a littie while and naked me what I meant tie while and saked me what I meant by creating trouble. That made me mad-der still, and I told him a few things. He said he'd 'show me.' When the train got to Baltimore two special officers came up to my seat accompanied by the higger. The nigger formally identified me, and I was placed under arrest.

me and I was placed under arrest.

"They sent in a telephone call for the Black Maris. I started to tell one of the policemen that I could not be arrested for assault, but he knew as much a start of the police of ed for assault but he knew as much about constitutional rights as a hog about the devology. I had the extreme pleasure of riding to the police station in a patrol wagon with the negro.

"I told them who I was at the police station, and I offered them cash ball, but it would not go. Then I tried to get Senator Rayner on the telephone, but he was not home. A cell foomed before me, but the police lieuteanst finally got permission from someone over the telephone to release me on my own recognisance.

He said that there must have been a misunderstanding, and said that he would see that the matter was adjusted. The Appletons are not well known here.

LONGSHOREMEN ARE POLITE Suffragettes Find Decency Where

They Do Not Expect It.

NEW YORK, July 28.-The band of enthusiastic suffragettes who have met hostility and ruffianism at most of their street meetings in this city, have found their most respectful listeners among the longshoremen on the waterfront. More than 500 longshoremen paid strict atten-tion to the women speakers, applauded them and thanked them when they had finished, although many said they could not agree with their arguments. As a contrast with this orderly meeting, the women were hooted in Wall street, where women were noted in wan street, where ticker-tape was thrown at them, and in other parts of the city where there is supposed to be more refinement than along the docks, they have been the vic-tims of ridicule and suffianism.

Governor Hay, of Washington, Is Not Going to Call Special Election for Three Months.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 28,—(Special.)—"Tuesday, November 2, is the date on which the electors of the secdate on which the electors of the sec-cend Congressional District will be called upon to select a successor to the late Francis W. mediate election. In fact, I do not think it would be wise to have an early election because the farmers, the lumbermen, the fishermen and others are now in their busiest season."
"Is not the Second Congressional District deprived of representation by the failure to have an election?" was sked.

"Certainly not," said the Governor.

"We have our two United States Senators and two Representatives, who are fully able to look after the interests of the Second District, which are those of the whole state."

"What I am trying to do is to meet the wishes and desires of the majority of people in the Second District. Personally or politically the calling or not calling of an early election makes no difference to me. So far as I am concerned, there is no politics in the matter at all. But my conversations with a number of residents of the Second District have convinced me that an early election would be unwise."

Salmon Runs Smaller.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28 .- (Special.)-The run of salmon, while better last night than on Monday, did not compare wih those of Saturday afternoon pare with those of Saturday and Sunday night. The up-river seines are doing fairly well, and the Bakers Bay traps are making good catches, but with the gillnetters in the lower harbor the take is small. However, there is a general feeling that other runs will be in evidence within a few days.

PINCHOT AND NEWELL BOTH QUARREL WITH BALLINGER.

Forest Chief Has Advantage and Can Help Newell, Who Has Friends in Congress.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 38-Gifford Pinchot, Chief of the Forestry Service, and F. H. Newell, Director of the Reclamation Service, are Director of the Reclamation Service, are equally aware that Secretary Ballinger is anxious fo force them out of the Federal service, or at least reduce them from their present positions of power to places less important and less influential. But they are assuming indifferent attitudes toward the Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Pinchot has donned his warpaint and feathers and intends to fight; Newell has assumed a passive attitude and will await a decision by the President, who is the final arbiter.

protest loudly against any step that would lessen the power and authority of Mr. Newell.

While Mr. Newell himself remains inactive, some of his friends, especially in Congress, have gone into the fight for him, and are perhaps doing all that Mr. Newell himself could do if he were inclined to follow the Pinchot tactics. Mr. Newell has friends as well as enemies in the Senate and House, and up to the present time the friends have been much more vigorous in supporting him than have his enemies in opposing him.
