

FRANCE DESIRES POWERS TO HELP

Believes Peace of Europe is Threatened by Present Conditions in Spain.

WOULD SUPPRESS REVOLT

England, However, Does Not Want Any Intervention, and Denies That Big Nations Have Plan to Join in Movement.

PARIS, July 30.—The news of the terrible defeat inflicted on the Spanish forces by the Moors at Melilla, and the confirmation of the extent of the insurrection in Spain, causes apprehension here. The triumph of the Moors in the Rif country perhaps will inflame all the events on the African coast. Some of the Paris newspapers, therefore, boldly suggest that in self-interest it is the duty of Europe to come to the rescue.

The Marquis del Monte, the Spanish ambassador at Paris, has transmitted a note to the French government formally declaring that the Moors are not to be undertaken with the object of conquest, but solely to punish the Moors for their attacks on Spaniards, and their affront to the Melilla garrison.

PRIDE LED SPAIN INTO WAR

After Reverses in Cuba and Philippines, Spaniards Wanted Victory.

PARIS, July 30.—It is learned that Spain's discovery of any intention of conquest in Africa was made at the request of France, in consequence of the circulation of reports that Spain had received a mandate and the promise of support from France and England.

The Madrid correspondent of the Temps says he learns from authoritative sources that there is no question of a ministerial crisis or the formation of a military cabinet.

The correspondent says that King Alfonso has received from Marshalls Lopez, Romagosa, and General Lague and Polavieja and more than 100 superior officers a tender of their services to aid in the suppression of the revolt in Catalonia.

The French government today telegraphed instructions to the French military commander in Algeria instructing him to strengthen the French posts on the Moroccan frontier and to be prepared to act energetically in the event of the Moors in French territory attempting to join the movement against Spain.

The Madrid correspondent of the Temps reports that General Marina, commander of the military forces at Melilla, is satisfied that he can meet the situation with the troops now at his disposal and the reinforcements which are now on their way to him.

An unexplainable statement attributed to him is that the Spanish death losses number 300, of which 40 are officers, and the wounded number 600, of which 50 are officers. The text of this official telegram as made public yesterday by the War Office, gave a much greater casualty list.

Private dispatches from Madrid say King Alfonso agreed with Premier Maura that after the humiliating loss of Cuba and the Philippines, Spain could not avoid the exemplary punishment of the Moors without admitting that she was a fallen state.

Special newspaper correspondents who are trying to enter Spain at both ends of the Pyrenees are encountering great difficulty, and are being turned back whenever discovered.

SPAIN ADMITS 300 KILLED

Report, However, Thought to Refer to Preliminary Battle.

MALAGA, Spain, July 30.—A dispatch received here from Melilla, dated July 28, says:

present and as to whose identity disconcerted the Moors. A special from Madrid, dated Friday, states that more than 400 were killed in the revolutionary struggle at Barcelona. The situation was considered so serious that two regiments detailed to start for Melilla were ordered to remain in Madrid.

A special from San Sebastian says that the troops have mastered the situation in Barcelona, where the casualty list numbers more than 1500. Seventy armed insurgents were captured there this morning and summarily shot.

MADRID, July 30.—Dispatches received here today from the Captain-General of Catalonia...

SPAIN'S LUCKLESS QUEEN, WHO IS IN DANGER OF LOSING THRONE TO WHICH SHE WAS FORCED AGAINST HER WILL.

QUEEN VICTORIA OF SPAIN.

General in charge of the government forces at Barcelona state that the revolt in that city is now put down, and that but a few scattered groups of revolutionists are still holding out in the suburbs. In official circles this report causes intense relief, but in other circles there is a general tendency to discredit it and to believe that the message has been sent out merely to discourage other revolutionary bodies, who have taken great heart from the fact that Alejandro Reus, the leader of the revolutionists, is returning from Brazil to take active charge of the uprising.
