

JUDGE POINTS OUT THAW'S WEAKNESS

Jerome Fails to Accomplish Much in Long Quizzing of Slayer of White.

GETS MANY SHARP REPLIES

After Ending Third Day of Triumphant Parrying, Thaw Meets His Match in Querries of Justice Mills.

(Continued From First Page.) He might still have for the relator proved to be a long string. The District Attorney started his examination along the line that this far has yielded his side the best results. He probed into Thaw's own ideas of his mental condition, and contrasted his answers with those of the 14 alienists who at various times pronounced him insane. Thaw clung to his oft-repeated phrase that he was not "medically" insane, although he might have been "legally" so when he killed White. Jerome was primed with the various opinions of the experts, but Thaw seemed to have them just as accurately fixed in his mind and once or twice corrected the prosecutor. He admitted that some of the physicians might have been right, others, he said, were "mistaken." One, he declared, wittily presented a distorted verdict. The courtroom was even warmer than yesterday, and Thaw had worked with his counsel until 10:30 last night, examining a bundle of Jerome's documentary evidence which he expected to have explained today. Nevertheless he presented the air of a man whose task is over—a calm confidence that showed he was satisfied with his previous showing and assurance that he was a match for the District Attorney.

Thaw Criticizes Experts. Thaw asked for the reports of several alleged inconsistencies in their testimony.

"Well," began Jerome, "here were all these trained specialists who thought you were insane." "Not all of them," interrupted Thaw. "I don't think Dr. Hamilton and Dr. White did." Thaw said the alienists thought he suffered from "defective reason," and Jerome jumped at his chance. "What did they mean by 'defective reason'?" "I think the term explains itself." "Explain it," insisted Jerome. "What do you think it means?" Thaw looked down and was unable to find words to frame his reply. He seemed relieved when Jerome branched to the decision of Judge Morschauer, before whom Thaw made his first effort for liberty from Matteawan. "Didn't Judge Morschauer declare you were hopelessly insane?" demanded the cross-examiner. "No," said Thaw. "He held that I had not proved myself sane."

Mr. Morschauer asked a word with his client, and Jerome protested. "This kind of thing has gone on from the first," he said. "This man gets up in the air and his counsel interrupts to give him a chance to recover himself."

"Whatever Judge Morschauer may have said in his decision," asserted Thaw, "I know that he thinks now as perfectly sane, for I talked with him two weeks ago and he said so." "Explain what you mean when you say you are 'legally sane,'" exclaimed Jerome. "I am of the same opinion as I told the jury, and all the mental men who have examined me in the last three years are, and I know Judge Morschauer is—that I am now sane and there is no danger of the recurrence of any kind of insanity." "Do you think you were legally insane when you killed White?" "That is my best opinion, but I don't know." "What do you mean by being 'insane'?" "Defective reason," replied Thaw, and found too late that he had brought the discussion right back to his former troublesome question. "What is 'defective reason'?" flashed Jerome. Thaw pondered and finally answered: "Not being responsible for my acts." Speaking of the alienists, Thaw remarked: "I don't blame them for doing their best to make out a good case for me. They were being well paid for it."

The District Attorney suddenly switched to the testimony of Clifford W. Harridge and Susan Merrill. Thaw denied that he had ever rented rooms at the latter's house. "Do you think you were innocent or guilty when you killed White?" asked Jerome, nibbling jumping back again. Justice Mills put the question this way: "Do you think you are now an innocent man in the eyes of the law?" "As the law is laid down for a jury," answered Thaw, "I think I am innocent."

"Why?" Thaw murmured something about "brainstorm." Jerome asked about the story that he once scolded a girl in a hot bathtub and that he had taken a girl named Ruth Lambert automobile in Paris and brought her back naked with warts from a bathing. "Crazy lies," said Thaw, contemptuously. Refreshing his memory from a manuscript in his hand, the District Attorney recalled other scandalous stories about the witness that came out during his trials. Thaw's comment was the same: "Lies." The witness was again at his ease. Tales of cruelty in early youth in beating a boy and driving a horse to death, the former told the Sanitary Commission by a cousin named Lyons, the latter by his brother, Josiah Thaw—the witness likewise denied. His explanation was that his relatives in their zeal to save him on the insanity plea might have used or exaggerated "mere rumors."

"Wasn't it true that you were known as 'Mad Harry'?" questioned Jerome. "Yes, I might have been called that; but the same thing may be true of almost anybody. For instance, I've heard you called 'Crazy Jerome,' but for that reason I don't think you are insane."

"Why did you think you and your wife might take Pittsburg by storm and that you might be Senator from Pennsylvania?" went on Jerome, referring to a letter in which the witness made this remark. "I don't know. We would have settled down comfortably and got along. In my case, money would not have been as much of a handicap to a political career as in most cases." "My father," explained Thaw, "made his money mainly in railroad building

TRUGS ADMIT GUILT

Two Caught in Tacoma Confess to Four Hold-ups Here.

BOTH HAVE SERVED TIME

Prisoners, While Being Returned to Portland, Account for All Recent Highway Robberies Committed Here.

Andrew F. Morck and Harry Mitchell, ex-convicts who were arrested in Tacoma a few days ago on suspicion, and who proved to be highwaymen who had committed four holdups in Portland, were brought back to this city last night in the custody of Detectives Snow and Day. The Portland detectives will have no trouble in securing a conviction of the two robbers, as Morck confessed to Snow and Mitchell confessed to Day while en route to this city. Morck and Mitchell were locked up in separate cells last night at the City Jail. The capture of these men clears up all of the holdups reported recently to the local police. Two of their victims are known to the police, but they admitted having no record. One of their victims is C. E. Vooz, the steward of the Hotel Richards, Park and Alder streets. They intercepted him on his way home Wednesday at the point of a revolver rolled him of $15. Another victim was F. A. Kahn, whom they stopped on East Sixteenth street, but from whom they secured nothing. They also robbed an unknown man on the Linnton road near the Cliff Inn. He had just alighted from a car when confronted by the masked robbers and looted. Their fourth victim was robbed on the East Side. They got $11.50 from him. This case was also not reported to the police. The robbers said that this man told them to keep the money, but asked them for the return of a pocket-knife which he valued on account of its association with the capture of the men is due Captain Fitzgerald, and City Detectives Milne and Miller of the Tacoma Police Department. The two detectives first saw Morck on the street and recognized him from his criminal record in Tacoma. They followed him to a lodging-house and reported their suspicions to Captain Fitzgerald. Upon learning that Morck had been in the city, they determined to take him into custody. As they were entering the room Mitchell came in and was also placed under arrest. They seized three letters in the penitentiary and Mitchell had been in prison once. Under a severe cross-examination it was learned that the men had been in Portland and this information was telephoned to the Portland detectives. The suspects made admissions which afterwards led to their complete confessions. Besides the holdups Morck is accused of burglarizing the Gilman Hotel. He was wearing a suit of clothes stolen from a room there when arrested. Morck was released from Tacoma on a $2500 bond after serving a sentence for holding up F. H. Marvin, a Tacoma steamship man some years ago. Morck is 35 years old and has borne a military record on the Pacific Coast for years. He has two brothers who were both sent to the penitentiary from Tacoma. Mitchell is but a lad of 18. He served an indefinite term of from 1 to 14 years for a burglary committed in Chehalis two years ago and was recently given his liberty. His parents are said to reside in Columbia and he also has an uncle, a traveling salesman, in Portland. From his appearance he seems to have had some education and early advantages.

Credit for the capture of the men is due Captain Fitzgerald, and City Detectives Milne and Miller of the Tacoma Police Department. The two detectives first saw Morck on the street and recognized him from his criminal record in Tacoma. They followed him to a lodging-house and reported their suspicions to Captain Fitzgerald. Upon learning that Morck had been in the city, they determined to take him into custody. As they were entering the room Mitchell came in and was also placed under arrest. They seized three letters in the penitentiary and Mitchell had been in prison once. Under a severe cross-examination it was learned that the men had been in Portland and this information was telephoned to the Portland detectives. The suspects made admissions which afterwards led to their complete confessions. Besides the holdups Morck is accused of burglarizing the Gilman Hotel. He was wearing a suit of clothes stolen from a room there when arrested. Morck was released from Tacoma on a $2500 bond after serving a sentence for holding up F. H. Marvin, a Tacoma steamship man some years ago. Morck is 35 years old and has borne a military record on the Pacific Coast for years. He has two brothers who were both sent to the penitentiary from Tacoma. Mitchell is but a lad of 18. He served an indefinite term of from 1 to 14 years for a burglary committed in Chehalis two years ago and was recently given his liberty. His parents are said to reside in Columbia and he also has an uncle, a traveling salesman, in Portland. From his appearance he seems to have had some education and early advantages.

INLAND TOWNS JOIN HANDS Walla Walla Will Assist Spokane in Rate Case Fight. WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—Papers for a suit in intervention in the Spokane rate case have been drawn up and signed by members of the transportation committee of the local Commercial Club, and it is understood have been forwarded to Washington for filing. Attorney H. M. Stevens, who has been conducting the Spokane case, has charge of the local suit and will bring before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Members of the transportation committee are H. B. Strong, Oscar Drumheller, John Smith, Fred Glafke and N. D. Hopkinson. In addition to taking steps to institute action in intervention, the Walla Walla shippers who demand a terminal rate for their goods, have subscribed $1000 of $1000 with which to assist the Falls City in her fight, and it is assured that more money will be forthcoming as needed.

VETERAN ANSWERS ROLL Death Comes to J. A. Hutchinson on Seventeenth Birthday. VANCOUVER, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—James A. Hutchinson, aged 79 to a day, died at his home in Washington Wednesday. He was a veteran of the Civil War and had been a resident of Clark County for the past 27 years. The funeral will be held from the Congrega-

SIGHTS ON ROOSEVELT'S RIFLE ARE FINISHED IN PINK ENAMEL Captain Landensack, with Replicas of Ex-President's Guns, Is Showing Them to Portland Sportsmen at the Portland. IT may afford those elephants, tigers, lions, rhinoceros, hippopotami, cheetahs, antelopes, jackals, gazelles, gazelles, impalas, buffaloes and the rest of the African jungle beasts ex-President Roosevelt is moving down at present some bit of consolation—and it will certainly be news to a great many people—that the rifle with which the President is shooting his big game is the only gun equipped with pink sights in the world. It is one of nine other models taken by Roosevelt, exact replicas of which Portlanders who are interested in the subject may see today at the Portland Hotel. The exhibit is one sent out by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, and is in charge of Captain A. F. Landensack, who, besides designing the ex-President's arms especially for heavy use in the jungle, is the champion rapid-fire shooter of the world. Captain Landensack, who holds a commission in the Connecticut National Guard, won his records at Camp Perry and Seattle last year. The head on the front sight of the "pink-sighted" rifle, which is of .405 caliber, is of pink enamel. It was made in this way because Roosevelt is a bit short-sighted, and wanted a gun he could depend upon absolutely at all times in the dim light often encountered in the jungle. Three of his .30 caliber, two are .22 automatics, and one are 12-gauge pump shotguns. After selecting the right-hand side to rest in the hollow of the cheek, thus giving quicker and surer aim and eliminating the disagreeable "kick" when firing, it is also interesting to note that Roosevelt is the first African hunter who has ever gone into the jungle with American rifles, the common belief having been that only British guns were heavy enough to insure deadly accuracy against big game. The strenuous ex-President declared that he would show the world that

THUGS ADMIT GUILT

Two Caught in Tacoma Confess to Four Hold-ups Here.

BOTH HAVE SERVED TIME

Prisoners, While Being Returned to Portland, Account for All Recent Highway Robberies Committed Here.

Andrew F. Morck and Harry Mitchell, ex-convicts who were arrested in Tacoma a few days ago on suspicion, and who proved to be highwaymen who had committed four holdups in Portland, were brought back to this city last night in the custody of Detectives Snow and Day. The Portland detectives will have no trouble in securing a conviction of the two robbers, as Morck confessed to Snow and Mitchell confessed to Day while en route to this city. Morck and Mitchell were locked up in separate cells last night at the City Jail. The capture of these men clears up all of the holdups reported recently to the local police. Two of their victims are known to the police, but they admitted having no record. One of their victims is C. E. Vooz, the steward of the Hotel Richards, Park and Alder streets. They intercepted him on his way home Wednesday at the point of a revolver rolled him of $15. Another victim was F. A. Kahn, whom they stopped on East Sixteenth street, but from whom they secured nothing. They also robbed an unknown man on the Linnton road near the Cliff Inn. He had just alighted from a car when confronted by the masked robbers and looted. Their fourth victim was robbed on the East Side. They got $11.50 from him. This case was also not reported to the police. The robbers said that this man told them to keep the money, but asked them for the return of a pocket-knife which he valued on account of its association with the capture of the men is due Captain Fitzgerald, and City Detectives Milne and Miller of the Tacoma Police Department. The two detectives first saw Morck on the street and recognized him from his criminal record in Tacoma. They followed him to a lodging-house and reported their suspicions to Captain Fitzgerald. Upon learning that Morck had been in the city, they determined to take him into custody. As they were entering the room Mitchell came in and was also placed under arrest. They seized three letters in the penitentiary and Mitchell had been in prison once. Under a severe cross-examination it was learned that the men had been in Portland and this information was telephoned to the Portland detectives. The suspects made admissions which afterwards led to their complete confessions. Besides the holdups Morck is accused of burglarizing the Gilman Hotel. He was wearing a suit of clothes stolen from a room there when arrested. Morck was released from Tacoma on a $2500 bond after serving a sentence for holding up F. H. Marvin, a Tacoma steamship man some years ago. Morck is 35 years old and has borne a military record on the Pacific Coast for years. He has two brothers who were both sent to the penitentiary from Tacoma. Mitchell is but a lad of 18. He served an indefinite term of from 1 to 14 years for a burglary committed in Chehalis two years ago and was recently given his liberty. His parents are said to reside in Columbia and he also has an uncle, a traveling salesman, in Portland. From his appearance he seems to have had some education and early advantages.

Credit for the capture of the men is due Captain Fitzgerald, and City Detectives Milne and Miller of the Tacoma Police Department. The two detectives first saw Morck on the street and recognized him from his criminal record in Tacoma. They followed him to a lodging-house and reported their suspicions to Captain Fitzgerald. Upon learning that Morck had been in the city, they determined to take him into custody. As they were entering the room Mitchell came in and was also placed under arrest. They seized three letters in the penitentiary and Mitchell had been in prison once. Under a severe cross-examination it was learned that the men had been in Portland and this information was telephoned to the Portland detectives. The suspects made admissions which afterwards led to their complete confessions. Besides the holdups Morck is accused of burglarizing the Gilman Hotel. He was wearing a suit of clothes stolen from a room there when arrested. Morck was released from Tacoma on a $2500 bond after serving a sentence for holding up F. H. Marvin, a Tacoma steamship man some years ago. Morck is 35 years old and has borne a military record on the Pacific Coast for years. He has two brothers who were both sent to the penitentiary from Tacoma. Mitchell is but a lad of 18. He served an indefinite term of from 1 to 14 years for a burglary committed in Chehalis two years ago and was recently given his liberty. His parents are said to reside in Columbia and he also has an uncle, a traveling salesman, in Portland. From his appearance he seems to have had some education and early advantages.

INLAND TOWNS JOIN HANDS Walla Walla Will Assist Spokane in Rate Case Fight. WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—Papers for a suit in intervention in the Spokane rate case have been drawn up and signed by members of the transportation committee of the local Commercial Club, and it is understood have been forwarded to Washington for filing. Attorney H. M. Stevens, who has been conducting the Spokane case, has charge of the local suit and will bring before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Members of the transportation committee are H. B. Strong, Oscar Drumheller, John Smith, Fred Glafke and N. D. Hopkinson. In addition to taking steps to institute action in intervention, the Walla Walla shippers who demand a terminal rate for their goods, have subscribed $1000 of $1000 with which to assist the Falls City in her fight, and it is assured that more money will be forthcoming as needed.

VETERAN ANSWERS ROLL Death Comes to J. A. Hutchinson on Seventeenth Birthday. VANCOUVER, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—James A. Hutchinson, aged 79 to a day, died at his home in Washington Wednesday. He was a veteran of the Civil War and had been a resident of Clark County for the past 27 years. The funeral will be held from the Congrega-

SIGHTS ON ROOSEVELT'S RIFLE ARE FINISHED IN PINK ENAMEL Captain Landensack, with Replicas of Ex-President's Guns, Is Showing Them to Portland Sportsmen at the Portland. IT may afford those elephants, tigers, lions, rhinoceros, hippopotami, cheetahs, antelopes, jackals, gazelles, gazelles, impalas, buffaloes and the rest of the African jungle beasts ex-President Roosevelt is moving down at present some bit of consolation—and it will certainly be news to a great many people—that the rifle with which the President is shooting his big game is the only gun equipped with pink sights in the world. It is one of nine other models taken by Roosevelt, exact replicas of which Portlanders who are interested in the subject may see today at the Portland Hotel. The exhibit is one sent out by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, and is in charge of Captain A. F. Landensack, who, besides designing the ex-President's arms especially for heavy use in the jungle, is the champion rapid-fire shooter of the world. Captain Landensack, who holds a commission in the Connecticut National Guard, won his records at Camp Perry and Seattle last year. The head on the front sight of the "pink-sighted" rifle, which is of .405 caliber, is of pink enamel. It was made in this way because Roosevelt is a bit short-sighted, and wanted a gun he could depend upon absolutely at all times in the dim light often encountered in the jungle. Three of his .30 caliber, two are .22 automatics, and one are 12-gauge pump shotguns. After selecting the right-hand side to rest in the hollow of the cheek, thus giving quicker and surer aim and eliminating the disagreeable "kick" when firing, it is also interesting to note that Roosevelt is the first African hunter who has ever gone into the jungle with American rifles, the common belief having been that only British guns were heavy enough to insure deadly accuracy against big game. The strenuous ex-President declared that he would show the world that

MUSIC IN HOLLADAY PARK Rosebrook and His Band Give Good Programme in Irvington. Rosebrook and his band had a good audience at Holladay Park last night for the regular concert there. The programme, with the exception of the last two numbers, was made up of the better class of music. Two of the best numbers were from Wagner, the overture to "Rienzi" and selections from "Lohengrin." Rosebrook had a chance to show his ability as a conductor in these. Driscoll, the solo cornettist, was warmly applauded for his solo which consisted of airs from various Verdi operas.

Captain A. F. Landensack, Champion Rapid-Fire Shot of World.

American guns were the equal of those made in England or any other country. The exhibition of these Winchester rifles will be in Parlor D at the Portland Hotel until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when Captain Landensack leaves for Sacramento.

WIFE BIGAMIST, HE SAYS

FRANK ERVIN WANTS OWN MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

Declares Mrs. John Reimers Failed to Secure Divorce Before Her Latest Wedding.

Alleging that he was deceived into marrying Laura Reimers by the belief that she had secured a divorce from John Reimers, Frank Ervin has brought divorce suit in the Circuit Court. The woman told him, he says, that she had secured a divorce from Reimers more than six months ago. Ervin married her at San Mateo, Cal., November 5, 1907. The Reimers wedding had taken place in October, 1899. Ervin has found that Mrs. Reimers brought suit against her former husband, but that it was dismissed on motion of her attorney, John F. Watts, because the District Attorney was not served with a copy of the complaint. Circuit Judge Gatens granted two divorces yesterday morning. William H. Wahl secured a decree annulling his marriage to Jennie E. Wahl, which took place at Beloit, Kan., April 7, 1886. He said she deserted him in the winter of 1899. Ada Taylor, who received the other decree, also alleged desertion on the part of her spouse. She married Alexander in Menmouth County, August 15, 1906. He left her a year ago last April, she said. Grace Scott filed a divorce suit in the Circuit Court yesterday morning in which she charged Edwin Scott with flying into a rage about once in two weeks and beating her. She married him at Fern Hill, Wash., June 26, 1905. In 1907, while they were in Tacoma, she says he struck her in the face, breaking her glasses. After they came to Portland she says he entered a drug store at Albina and Killingsworth avenues, and in unprintable language ordered her out. Mrs. Scott was lying sick at the Hotel Nolia last May, she says, and when she wrote her husband for financial assistance he immediately went to the landlady at the hotel and told her to throw her out. Last month the unhappy wife says she was ordered out of her own house, and informed that if she returned her husband would make it a living hell for her.

WOMAN FLAYS WOMEN BLAMES THEM FOR LACK OF HAPPINESS IN WORLD. Mrs. Lorette Baker Expounds Suffrage Doctrine at Spokane Open-Air Meeting. SPOKANE, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—The suffrage doctrine was expounded with a vim at Corbin Park at an open-air meeting of the Spokane suffragists. Mrs. Z. W. Comerford and Mrs. Lorette Baker were speakers. "Equality" was the subject of Mrs. Baker's discourse. "These men cannot endure women who pretend to superiority," said Mrs. Baker. "The true woman looks with scorn upon the effeminate man. If we could all be honest and sincere, there might be universal happiness, but women as well as men seem compelled to be hypocrites. "A young woman is longing for a loving glance from her sweetheart and the slight pressure of his hand sends a thrill of emotion through her whole body, she is taught to speak with great calmness which is meant to seem to him the expression of cool indifference. "Let us go back a few years. This same wee girlie now grown to womanhood was told stories by her mother of Jack the Giant-Killer, Cinderella's fairy godmother, and the wonderful beanstalk; she went to school and learned about frogs and fishes; about pies and potatoes; and she was taught to speak with great calmness which is meant to seem to him the expression of cool indifference. "Let us go back a few years. This same wee girlie now grown to womanhood was told stories by her mother of Jack the Giant-Killer, Cinderella's fairy godmother, and the wonderful beanstalk; she went to school and learned about frogs and fishes; about pies and potatoes; and she was taught to speak with great calmness which is meant to seem to him the expression of cool indifference."

WE MOVE TONIGHT TO 400 WASHINGTON STREET

LAST DAY BARGAINS

Promptly at 6 o'clock tonight our doors will close and workmen will begin packing what is left of our stock for removal to our new quarters at 400 Washington street, corner Tenth. All day today suits, Summer dresses, lingerie, waists, skirts, coats, etc., will be sold to save moving at the Lowest Prices Ever Made Here are a few suggestions as to the way we are cutting and slashing for today's selling:

35 Linen Suits Also one-piece jumper dresses, mostly small sizes. Values $10 to $35, $4.45 Each

60 Wash Waists Both tailored and lingerie, colored and white, values $1.50 to $2.75, 98c Each

50 Cloth Suits Very good values, ranging from $16.50 to $90.00, 1/2 Price

40 ShortJackets Ladies' and Misses, values ranging from $9.00 to $22.50, $2.85 Each

The Bartholomew Co.

"The House of Tone" 392 Washington Street

STAND OUT!

Don't be just one of the crowd. Don't be satisfied with an ordinary position.

Beimke-Dalke

THE LEADING BUSINESS COLLEGE Will help you increase your earning capacity. Will help you broaden your influence. Will help you develop your character. Will help you become a top-notch, as a bookkeeper, stenographer, salesman or business man. Send today for our catalogue and SUCCESS ALBUM. PORTLAND, OREGON

BRUNOT HALL SPOKANE, WASH. A BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. Certificate admits to Smith, Wellesley and other colleges. The music department under the charge of artists is a special feature. Fine art studio. Write for illustrated catalogue or for further information address JULIA P. BAILEY, Principal, 2209 Pacific Ave., Spokane, Wash.

Portland BUSINESS COLLEGE

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY" Tenth and Morrison & Portland, Oregon A. P. ARMSTRONG, LL.B., PRINCIPAL The high-standard commercial school of the Northwest. Open all the year. More calls for help than we can meet—position certain. Class and individual instruction. Bookkeeping from written forms and office practice. Shorthand that excels in all respects. Special penmanship department. Call, phone or write for catalogue.

St. Mary's ACADEMY & COLLEGE

For Girls, conducted by the SISTERS OF THE HOLY NAMES OF JESUS AND MARY Grade, Academic and Collegiate Courses Music, Art, Elocution and Physical Training. Resident and Day Students. Bell, Bond and Industrial Training. Write for Announcement. Address CENTER SUPERIOR, St. Mary's Academy, PORTLAND

Belmont School for Boys Belmont, California

Twenty-five miles south of San Francisco, in trying and successful surroundings, to do for the moral, physical and intellectual welfare of the boys what every thoughtful parent wishes to have done. Its location beyond the diversions and temptations of town or city, the fitness of its climate, the beauty of its buildings and grounds, the range and structures of the surrounding country are most beautiful. Ask our patrons, our graduates and our boys about us. Write for a catalogue and specific information. W. T. Reid, Jr., A. M. (Harvard) Head Master W. T. Reid, Jr., A. M. (Harvard) Asst. Head Master

The Allen Preparatory School

For Boys and Girls. Prepares students for Eastern and Western colleges and technical schools. Office hours, every Thursday 9 to 6. For catalogue, address THE ALLEN PREPARATORY SCHOOL, 525 E. Salmon Street, Portland, Or.

The Jacobs-Stine Company

Fiscal Agents, 146 5th St., Portland, Or.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels. Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in chocolate tablet form called Sarsatabs.