Boice Blows Up After South-erners Had Collected Sub-stantial Lead.

GRANEY WILD ON MOUND

Star Twirler Makes Several Wild Heaves to Bases, Letting In Two in Second—Olson Does Hard Slugging.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 3, Oakland 2. San Francisco 1, Sacramento 1. Los Angeles 4, Vernon 2.

BY W. J. PETRAIAN. For six innings yesterday George Boice appeared likely to repeat his performance of Jimmy Wiggs on the previous day, but in the seventh inning, when Oakland had the game apparently won, with three runs against nothing for Portland, Boice blew up.

Jack Graney occupied the mound for Portland, and it was his own wild heaves in the eighth that gave the visitors a big lead of two runs in the second inning; a lead which assumed huge proportions when Portland continually failed to get even a good start toward negotiating a run.

Portland's half of this latter inning brought great bunches of joy to the multitude of femininity present. For Olson, the only man to find Boice for a fourth run in six innings, inaugurated the seventh with a two-sacker to left. It was good for two stations, because Olson took a long chance on Duffy Lewis loafing.

Manager Walter then butted into the mound by popping a Texas leaguer to right which went for two bases because Quigley and Hagan were tangled up in their signals, Ryan scoring.

Portland added one in the eighth, when Olson opened with another hit, and went all the way to third on Specs' neat sacrifice. Buddy Ryan hit for a hit almost to the flagpole, which Quigley captured, but Olson trotted home easily.

Al Carson will pitch today for Portland, while Billy Christian is scheduled to make his second appearance for Oakland. Carson is after another shutout and will work hard to make it three straight. The official score of yesterday's game is as follows:

OAKLAND. AB R H PO A E. Carroll, cf, 2 0 0 1 0 0. Lewis, 1b, 2 0 0 1 0 0. Hogan, 3b, 2 0 0 1 0 0. Cameron, 2b, 2 0 0 0 0 0. La Londe, ss, 2 0 0 0 0 0. Quigley, cf, 4 1 0 3 0 0. La Londe, 2b, 2 0 0 0 0 0. Hagan, 2b, 2 0 0 0 0 0. Baker, p, 4 0 0 0 0 0. McCredie, p, 1 0 0 0 0 0. Totals, 27 1 2 24 10 2.

Seals Win With Ease. SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Baum was in poor form today. San Francisco hit him freely, winning the game 8 to 1. Griffin had good control and held the visitors down to four hits which he allowed in the last three innings.

Angels Win in Eleventh. LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 30.—With a battling rally in the eleventh inning the Angels again beat Vernon. The score: R. H. E. Los Angeles 10, Vernon 3.

EVANS AND SECKEL LEAD ALL Will Meet in Finals for Western Golf Championship. FLORENCE, Ill., July 30.—Charles Evans, Jr., of Exmore, and Albert Seckel, of Riverside, handily defeated their opponents in the semi-final round of the Western amateur golf championship tournament today and they will meet in the finals tomorrow.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Won Lost P.C. Pittsburgh 26 24 .521. Chicago 25 25 .500. Cincinnati 24 24 .500. Philadelphia 23 25 .479. St. Louis 23 25 .479. Brooklyn 22 26 .458. Boston 21 27 .438.

St. Louis 3; Boston 0. ST. LOUIS, July 30.—Charles' triple cleared the bases in the ninth inning today, and St. Louis defeated Boston. The score: R. H. E. St. Louis 3, Boston 0.

Pittsburg 3; New York 1. PITTSBURGH, July 30.—Pittsburg won the game in the first inning today from New York by hitting Mathewson for two doubles and two singles and scoring three runs. The score: R. H. E. Pittsburg 3, New York 1.

Philadelphia 5; Chicago 2. CHICAGO, July 30.—Magee and Doolin were the main factors in defeating Chicago today by making startling catches of four hits that would have been good for extra bases. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 5, Chicago 2.

Cincinnati 2; Brooklyn 2. CINCINNATI, July 30.—A wild throw by Brooklyn runners to come home, tying the score. Thereafter neither side tallied, and at the end of the 13th inning the game was called on account of darkness.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. Won Lost P.C. Detroit 26 24 .521. Philadelphia 25 25 .500. Boston 24 24 .500. Cleveland 23 25 .479. Chicago 23 25 .479. New York 22 26 .458. St. Louis 21 27 .438. Washington 20 28 .417.

Philadelphia 7; Cleveland 1. PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—Long drives by Davis and Murphy with men on bases gave Philadelphia an easy victory over Cleveland today. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 7, Cleveland 1.

Chicago 6-2; Washington 1-1. WASHINGTON, July 30.—Chicago won both games of the double-header with Washington today. The score: R. H. E. Chicago 6, Washington 2.

St. Louis 1-10; Boston 7-4. BOSTON, July 30.—St. Louis and Boston divided honors in a double-header here today. The score: R. H. E. St. Louis 1, Boston 10.

New York 6; Detroit 0. NEW YORK, July 30.—Manning was in great form today, and New York blanked Detroit in the second game of the series. The score: R. H. E. New York 6, Detroit 0.

FANDOM AT RANDOM SOME who picked Oakland for a bet were unkind enough to say Graney was favored by horseshoes. How about Ryan's poke? No horseshoes attached to that.

Jack Graney allowed but two hits, though his wildness kept him in trouble almost continually.

Boice pitched a remarkable game for six innings. During that time Olson was the only man to reach first and he was doubled out.

Walter McCredie pulled off a pretty catch in the seventh when he nipped Carroll's drive off his shoe tops in right garden. Carroll had revenge by robbing Fisher of a triple in the same inning.

Doc Anderson was considerably displeased with McCarthy's rulings on balls and strikes. However, Graney was so wild that it kept Fisher as well as the umpire guessing.

Mickey LaLonde did not have his range-finder working in its old-time form, for he pegged badly on several occasions.

Of course San Francisco had to win again just because we did, and thereby prevent us from approaching nearer the leaders. Still we have hopes of doing something next week.

The Colts have actually won three straight games and yesterday's was an extra inning game at that. The jinks seems to have been chased.

Tom Seaton occupied the hitpost for the Casey tribe and Tom proved his worth by pitching one of his good games.

Tacoma came out of a state of lassitude long enough to trim Seattle once more, and therefore there is hope of at least one more reversal for the crew of Lynch.

Frank Ish, one of the principal "put-ups" back of the San Francisco and Oakland clubs, is coming to Portland next week. It is about time for very few Californians care enough for Portland to call during a season.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 3, Vancouver 1. Spokane 5, Aberdeen 4. Tacoma 4, Seattle 1.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 30.—(Special.)—In the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd today the Colts landed their fourth victory over the Beavers.

From start to finish it was one of the most exciting games that have been played in this city. The first tally came in the fifth, when the Beavers landed Crocker at the plate. The Colts had done nothing in their part of the engagement and the fans clapped one another on the back and yelled to their men to make it a shutout.

Nothing happened after that until the first part of the 10th, when the Colts came up. Kennedy, who was first up, bunted and managed to reach first.

O'BRIEN BETTER MAN

HAS BEST OF SIX-ROUND GO WITH FLYNN AT DENVER.

Victory Gained by Small Margin, as Pueblo Fighter Is Strong at End of Bout.

DENVER, Colo., July 30.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien had the better of Ed Flynn in the sixth round of a six-round go at the Auditorium tonight.

O'Brien's margin was not very great. In fact, Flynn finished the stronger of the two, and through the rounds had O'Brien in visible distress, opening a cut over his left eye and sending him to his corner a little unsteady.

In the sixth round, however, Flynn hooked a left to O'Brien's eye the instant they came together, and landed him up against the ropes with a snap.

Round Two. O'Brien rushed and landed left, getting a hard right to the ribs in return. Flynn rushed and missed a left swing. Flynn landed a hard right to the body, but O'Brien smothered most of Flynn's swings, landing a left jab repeatedly to the head. Flynn landed two hard lefts to the jaw, and sent O'Brien to a clinch. O'Brien was smiling at the going, but was slightly dazed.

Round Three. Flynn put a hard right hook to the jaw as O'Brien closed, and followed a moment later with a right to the stomach. O'Brien stabbed Flynn repeatedly with a snap after the going rang. O'Brien cut Flynn's eye with a hard left.

Round Four. Flynn rushed, landing a hard right to the body and followed with a right hook to the jaw, rocking O'Brien's head. O'Brien made a hard right upper-cut to the chin, followed by two more in the same place. O'Brien's opponent.

Round Five. They exchanged lefts to the jaw and O'Brien put a hard right on Flynn's bad eye. Flynn landed a hard right to the stomach and O'Brien kept O'Brien's eye with a hard left.

DECIDE TENNIS FINALS TODAY

Long, Const Champion, Is Favorite. Mrs. Beard Wins Women's Singles.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Finals and challenge sets will be played tomorrow in the Western championship tennis tournament at the Opwensita Club, Lake Forest. It had been planned to have the challenge plays on Monday, but owing to the anxiety on the part of the California players to go East for practice in the National tournament, the play was set a day ahead.

In the only finals of today—the women's singles—Mrs. Charles Beard, of Kenwood, defeated Miss Miriam Stever, of the Illinois state champion, 6-2, 6-2. Tomorrow Mrs. Beard will meet Miss Carrie B. Neely, of Kenwood, the titleholder.
