Star Pitchers All Fresh Because of Rest—President Ish Comes on Later Train.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—In the crippled condition that has caused a patched-up team of the Seals to win from Sacramento, the Seals left San Francisco tonight for Portland to take part in what is considered one of the most important games of the season so far as the pennant race is concerned.

WOODBURN, OR., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—It required ten innings in the Woodburn diamond today to settle a mooted point of superiority between the St. Paul baseball team and a reminder of what the old Woodburn team used to do.

SEALS NOW HAVE LONG LEAD

Take Both Games From Sacramento by Scores 6-1 and 4-3.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—San Francisco took both games of the double-header with Sacramento today, the morning contest resulting in a 6-1 score and the afternoon 4 to 3. In the morning game Fitzgerald and Baum were unable to stem the tide of base hits, while Melkie, San Francisco's new pitcher, proved invincible. The afternoon game was a pitcher's battle between Edman and Griffin, the latter's home run helping the home team to victory.
