The reductions would not apply to shoes, the uppers of which were made of calfskin, or to harness, the chief value of which was calfskin.
Western Senstors were extremely bitter in their condemnation of the comprogrise. Finding that the West anxious that there should be no question as to the responsibility of Senators for the framing of that measure. He had prepared a collection of every yes and to speculation and graft. "Our policy is to govern them so that they will be the least offensive to the public. If this is not arrived at in one way we will try other ways until we succeed. We are not going to say that nay vote taken on the many amendments to the bill, together with an explanation of the method of voting in the Senate, which he asked to have printed in the succeed. We are not going to say that we will stamp out the avil. We know that we can't. There are many ways they may be controlled, but under our present laws there is no way in which we see that we may handle the situa-tion, except, as it is our present inten-tion of doing, to bring the law on them and keep them down whenever they be-come objectionable." This request was granted. The table, he said, showed the attitude of the mem-bers of the two parties to all the ques-tions presented. Insist on Hearing All. ## Call Hide Men Into Conference.

When Senator Aldrich returned from the White House, he called a meeting of the conferees. Western Senators were ushered into the conference singly or in pairs. Audiencus were given to Sena-ters Heyburn, Sutherland, Brown, Borah and Bourne. Invitations had beeg issued to Senators Dixon, Burkett and Clark of Wyoming, but they did not accept. Mr. Aldrica and Representative Payne declared that the language ém-Payne declared that the language em-ployed in adjusting the hide contro-versy was not a "joker." An effort was made to reach an understanding with the Westerners. They said the word had gone out over the West that free hides had been given for choaper shoes and harness, and that their constituents would not be satisfied with any other hards. barghin.

No Joker, Says Taft.

Messrs. Brown and Borah both had word of the long report, which meant great delay. The alleged "joker," which they read. "What does it all mean?" was asked of the alleged joker," which they read, The letter to Mr. Borah was in response to one he had written. The President asserted in this letter that the leather and hide scheduls as adopted by the confereecs was just as he had understood it. He said his understanding was that the reduction on leather goods should be made on those manufactures composed of the hitherto duti-able hides, and should not include man-ufactures of hitherto free hides. Continuing, the President argued that declared Clapp. "It is obvious that at least 20 pages have been furned over without reading," commented Culberson, joining the two Republican Sensators in insisting on a careful compliance with the rules. The reading clerk protected that he had read all, but his protest served only the purpose of calling out a rebuke from Heyburn. It was evident that there was "a situa-tion on," and it was soon made plain that it was the intention of some of the Sch-ators, both "insurgent" Republicans and straight Democrais, to have read every one of the "insurgent" Republicans. "It means." he replied, "Inat if this bill becomes a law ft will not go beyond the next election."

"How are you going to insure the result?" was the inquiry. "By ventilation," was the reply.
