Raids Indicate That District Attorney Would Be Arbiter in North End.

RESORTS ARE NOW CLOSED

Mayor Instructs Chief to Act, Being Convinced His Policy of Handling Social Evil Will Not Have Fair Trial.

As an aftermath to the hasty action taken Tuesday night by Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald and Constable Wagner in closing up resorts in the North End district over the heads of the police and the Mayor, who were endeavoring to work out a well-defined policy in the regulation of this recognized condition, general gossip now has it that this move directed from the District Attorney's office, was planned and made with a view toward making the office of the District Attorney the ar-

Attorney's office, was planned and made with a view toward making the office of the District Attorney the arbiter of conditions in the North End, instead of this function being left to the Mayor and the Council as has been the case herectore.

That this action is nothing more than a clash between the District Attorney's office and the Municipal authorities is the general impression, and it is believed that the District Attorney's office will be a factor to be considered in the future attempts to keep these conditions regulated to the best advantage.

The explanation offered by the District Attorney's office for its interference into conditions caming more directly under pelice control is made by Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald, who says that private citizens complained to him of crowds collected in the street before the reserts which were later closed. Why Constable Wagner was chosen to do the work he which were later closed. Why Constants Wagner was chosen to do the work he also explained by saying that he telephoned to the police station for Chief Cox, and, being unable to get him, sent for the Constable. Chief Cox says that, as far as he knows, no one called for him either station or at his home on Mayor Instructs Chief Cox.

What the outcome of the clash will be What the outcome of the clash will be is shown by the action of Mayor Smon, who yesterday morning called Chief Cox into consultation and ordered him to close up the disreputable houses and to keep them closed. This the Mayor did because up the disreputable houses and to keep them closed. This the Mayor did because of the public asitation concerning the matter, following the policy he adopted upon assuming office one month ago. No disorderly women will be permitted to live where they create a notorious condition. Having brought about a lot of discussion by their presence in an alley between Third and Fourth streets, north of Burnside, the immates must leave.

"I was disposed to permit these unfortunate creatures to remain where they had congregated in the alley in the old North End district," said Mayor Simon, "but their presence has stirred up an agitation, which I will not alloy to continue. I have therefore ordered Chief of Police Cox to close up the places named and to keep them closed. My policy is to tolerate these women, as they must live somewhere, but they must not create any annoyance, rettler will they be permitted to flaunf their vice to the public gaze. I do not propose to tell them where they shall stay, neither where they shall not stay, but they must find a place where their presence is unobjectionable; they cannot live in residence sections or scatter through the respectable hotels and locing-houses." through the respectable hotels and lodging-houses."

Concerning the interference by the District Attorney's office and the ac-tivity of Constable Wagner, Mayor Simon said he could hardly understand Advance Information Sought.

"The fact of the matter is," said the Mayor, "I have disappointed some people since taking office by refusing to furnish them with advance information as to where the administration would permit unfortunate women to assemble. Three or four men sought to obtain the knowledge but I refused it. tain the knowledge, but I refused it, and they have been sorely displeased. It was but yesterday afternoon that Constable Wagner called at my office and asked me concerning my policy in this regard, and I told him what I this regard, and I told him was I have stready stated in a public way. He left, saying he would assist me in carrying out my plans, and the next thing I knew about it he had made some raids in the North End, under instructions, as I read, from the District Attorney's office. I do not want any further trouble over this question, and have therefore ordered the houses closed to stay closed."

closed to stay closed."

This subject is proving a very difficult one for the administration to handle. The Mayor is inclined to permit the women concerned to live here, instead of attempting to banish them, as did the former regime. He feels that they cannot be direct out, but if not allowed to congregate somewhere, will scatter to every section of the city and constitute a public subsame as they did when the North

"We had announced our policy with regard to these people and were going to give the situation a trial, and if conditions were not found to be good one way we would see that they were changed. The Mayor's orders will be carried out to the letter."

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate.
