Dr. McDonald, "and not medically insane." Thaw says that when he killed White he may have been "legally insane," but denied that he ever was "medically insane."

Mr. Morschauer asked Dr. McDonald, if a paranoiac should realize that his delusions were delusions, would it not be evidence of recovery.

Mr. Morschauer said portions of Mr. Jerome's summing up at the trial upholding Thaw's charges, and said he would put the District Attorney's speech in evidence, and use it in his closing argument.

Mr. Jerome enabled him to explain that he was employed in 1900 by a baking-powder company to investigate the effects of alum in baking-powder.

Mr. Jerome read passages regarding paranoiacs from several medical authorities and the witness expressed his agreement. Dr. McDonald told of a case of a man in Albany, N. Y., who came under his observation.

CANNON LOPS OFF INSURGENT HEADS

Several of Leaders to Lose Good Positions on Committees.

AGAINST POSTAL BANKS

Weeks, Who Opposes Them, Will Get Chance to Kill Them—Gardner of New Jersey Rebels—Taft Saves Cooper's Head.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Speaker Cannon is expected to announce his decision with regard to committee assignments tomorrow. That they will not be altogether satisfactory is already indicated.

It is understood that Weeks does not favor the postal savings bank proposition, and that his attitude regarding that legislation has had some influence with Cannon in making the selection.

The fact that Gardner of New Jersey, who would be entitled to the chairmanship of the postoffice committee from the standpoint of rank and seniority on that committee, today for the first time voted with the rules "insurgents" and the Democrats on the urgent deficiency bill was taken to indicate that he regards Weeks' appointment as assured.

Gardner of Massachusetts is to lose his chairmanship of the committee on industrial arts and exhibitions. It is understood that this action will be taken by the Speaker because Gardner was one of the leading "insurgents" at the opening of the present session.

Cooper of Wisconsin, who was also an "insurgent" against the rules, may retain the chairmanship of the committee on insular affairs. It is reported that President Taft had intervened with Cannon in his behalf. On the other hand, it was learned from equally reliable sources that Fowler of New Jersey, chairman of the banking and currency committee in the last session, would lose his place.

The fate of Davidson of Wisconsin, another "insurgent," remains uncertain. He was chairman of the committee on railways and canals.

Seattle is Important Port Government Finds Commissioner of Immigration Is Needed There.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The President today nominated Ellis de Bruler Commissioner of Immigration at Seattle. The position, a new one, pays $4000 a year salary. It was formerly filled by an immigration inspector.

Secretary Nagel said today that it was necessary to have Commissioner of Immigration at Seattle who would use discretion in the handling of cases, instead of as formerly, when important decisions had to be referred to Washington for determination. For some time the question has been under consideration as to whether Seattle was not entitled to a Commissioner, and, in order to determine the question, Secretary Nagel had comparisons made with other places, and it was found the immigration there in quantity was as important as either Philadelphia or Baltimore.

Mr. de Bruler's appointment was warmly supported by the entire Congressional delegation from Washington.

General Maus on Inspection. PORT STEVENS, Or., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Bradford-Gordon Maus, in command of the Department of the Columbia, is making a tour of inspection of all posts of this district. Will Study Irrigation Work Chamberlain Coming Home Leisurely—Bourne Will Shadow Taft.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 4.—Senator Chamberlain will leave Washington next Tuesday, but does not expect to reach home until August 31. He plans, in company with three or four other members of the irrigation committee, to visit the Government irrigation projects in Montana, Washington and possibly some other Northern states on his way West.

Senator Bourne expects to return to Portland about the last week in September, a few days before the President arrives. What his plans may be for the intervening six weeks are shrouded in mystery. It is suspected he contemplates a trip to New England, so as to be within easy reach of Beverly.
