

WHITMAN OUT TO FIGHT TAMMANY

New York Reform Magistrate Openly Seeks Nomination for Mayor.

HAS WON HONORS ON BENCH

Says Republicans Should Fight Tammany by Tammany Methods and Has Leaders' Praise—Loeb Is Strongest Rival.

BY LLOYD F. LONGERGAN.
NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—For the first time in the present city campaign, a candidate for Mayor, opposed to Tammany Hall, has gone to the expense of leading campaign buttons. The name of this pioneer is Charles S. Whitman, who made a fine record during the time that he was a Police Magistrate and Judge of General Sessions.

Whitman is one of the active, energetic Republicans. He caused surprise some months ago by praising the Tammany system of organization, and declaring that the G. O. P. could never hope for success until it "played politics 365 days in the year."

"Tammany is on the job all the time," he said in the course of a speech in the Republican Club, "if a poor man in the tenement-house district gets into trouble, he naturally turns to the Tammany election district captain or the Tammany district leader for relief. The Republican district organization is never in evidence except on election day. That is why we are in the minority except when the citizens are thoroughly aroused. The people naturally vote for the man who stands by them in times of suffering or stress."

Whitman Clubs Abound.

Judge Whitman is now in Europe, but is expected back in the United States towards the end of the present month. His friends declare that his return will be signalled by an active campaign, which they hope will end in a reform. At the head of the anti-Tammany ticket.

At present there are no signs of a real "Whitman campaign." But all over the East Side numerous "Charles S. Whitman Clubs" have been organized, and their rulers believe that they have got it on the ground floor.

The Magistrate is a close personal friend of Theodore Roosevelt. He has been publicly praised by Governor Hughes, who promoted him to the General Sessions bench. Judge Loeb, who made him a Magistrate, has frequently declared that "Whitman's selection was the best appointment I ever made." And the general public has taken to him, as is shown by the excellent run he made while a candidate for public office.

Reforms He Effectuated.

Whitman made an excellent record while dispensing justice in the police courts. He early discovered that it was a shame and a disgrace to lock up children with the usual criminal riffraff, and fought early and late for a reform. As the result of his efforts, the Children's Court was established.

Following this reform, Whitman began a crusade against the professional burglars, and thereby struck a blow at one of the most open sources of police graft. It had been a time-honored custom during many years for patrolmen to lock up unfortunate women as soon as the police courts closed. Then the prisoners were taken to pay for a bondsman, who, it was popularly supposed, divided his "fee" with somebody higher up.

Whitman realized that there was only one way to break up this system, consequently he commenced a crusade for a night court, which would take quick action in every case of arrest. It took two years to bring the Legislature around to this point of view, but Whitman finally won out. Now New York has a continuous system of police courts, magistrates being on duty from 3 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock the next morning.

As a result of his fine record Judge Whitman was promoted to the Court of General Sessions to fill a vacancy. He was his party's candidate for the full term, but went down to defeat with his associates, although he ran many thousands of votes ahead of the rest of the ticket.

Judge Whitman, since his retirement from the bench, has achieved fame as the head of the Anti-Police Society, founded by Captain F. Norton Goddard. This organization has been successful in "Al. Adams to the penitentiary and practically put this swindling game out of business in Greater New York."

Leaders Speak Well of Him.

Although the candidate has always been an organization Republican, he has many friends in independent organizations. In fact, it is violating no confidence to say that he would be perfectly acceptable to the Committee of One Hundred and the Citizens' Union. It must be understood that he is not a Tammany candidate, but the candidate of these associations, but there is nothing in his personality or reputation which would make them oppose him if the regular Republicans suggested his nomination.

Herbert Parsons, chairman of the New York County Republican Committee, is a personal friend of Judge Whitman. When seen today he said:

"It is a little too early to decide on the personality of majority candidates, but I am willing to say that Judge Whitman is an excellent type of high-class Republicanism, and would make an excellent Mayor. Whether or not he will be nominated I am not willing to say at the present time."

"I do not care to go on record as to candidates at the present time," says Timothy L. Woodruff, of Brooklyn, "but nobody can deny that Judge Whitman would make an excellent Mayor. Whether or not he will be nominated is a question that cannot be decided at present."

As these two men, Parsons and Woodruff, will practically decide the identity of the Republican candidate for Mayor their statements are received with satisfaction by friends of the ex-magistrate. They believe that if they keep up the campaign and fight hard their candidate will be nominated.

Loeb Stock Is Booming.

In the meantime the boom for Collector of the Port William Loeb, Jr., is growing stronger every day, and is well worth careful consideration. The only New York paper to wake up to this view of the case is the Press, recognized as the leading local Republican daily. The Press came out the other day with flaring headlines, "Loeb Now the Man to Beat Tammany," and goes on to say: "William Loeb, Jr., Collector of the Port, may be the anti-Tammany candidate for Mayor this Fall. He need only lift his little finger, it was said yesterday, to get the nomination. As to the election his admirers have no doubt on that score. If Loeb could not win, then anti-Tammany candidate could, they said. But it was their conviction that, enjoying the personal friendship of Theodore Roosevelt, and with the added prestige he has won by his rare business administration of the Collector's office, he would carry the city by a fine plurality.

All of which is highly interesting, and the idea has been followed up by all the metropolitan newspapers. But it might be mentioned in this connection that the anti nomination of Loeb in connection with the Majority nomination appeared in The Oregonian on June 21.

And it also goes to prove that there is a strong built movement in Loeb stock in the local political market.

CLARK DEFENDS PARTY

DEMOCRATS NOT SPLIT BY TARIFF BILL, HE SAYS.

Declares Republicans Were Principal Bolters—Adds That Tariff Is Now Highest Ever.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—In reply to what he terms "the misrepresentations of Democrats in the papers," Champ Clark, leader of the minority in the House, today gave out a statement regarding the course of the Democratic members of the House in connection with the Payne bill.

"The old saying that habit is second nature was never more strikingly illustrated than by the fact that the new papers—generally Republican or near-Republican—and more individuals, keep mouthing about the dissensions among the Democrats and the perfect unity among House Republicans, notwithstanding the truth known of all men who care to know that the House Democrats came out of the tariff fight more thoroughly united on that question than they had been in a generation, and the Republicans came out of it worse shattered than ever before," said Clark.

Mr. Clark asserted that on his motion last Spring to recommit, all his colleagues stood with him, and that on the Payne bill itself, after his motion was defeated, the Democrats in the House and Republicans were one—a net loss to his party of three—a more nearly unanimous Democratic tariff vote than at any time in a generation. On Mr. Payne's motion to recommit the conference report, "the House machine" a majority of only 12 votes.

He stated that Mr. Payne's reason for moving to recommit was a desire to head off what he believed to be a Democratic plan to recommit with instructions—"a plan which never existed," said Mr. Clark.

"Many newspapers," concluded Clark, "are trying to make it appear that the Payne-Aldrich-Smoot bill is a revision downward. This is absolutely untrue. The average tariff of the Payne-Aldrich-Smoot bill is about 2 per cent higher than the average rate of the Dingley bill. When the maximum goes into effect, March 1, 1910, the average rate will be about 27 per cent higher than the average of the Dingley bill."

EVANS TAKES REVENGE

CAUSES INQUIRY INTO WORK OF HARSH CRITIC.

Naval Officer Accused of Giving Cruiser Defective Boilers by Carelessness.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—A naval board of inquiry began taking testimony today at the Mare Island Navy-yard on charges of poor repair work done recently on the cruiser California under the supervision of Commander Clarence A. Carr, Foreman Edward Kavanaugh, of the boiler-makers' department, is also accused of inefficiency.

The condensers of the California are now being retubed as the result of a demand by the vessel's chief engineer. During a recent cruise in this bay several hundred leaks developed in the tubes, but repairs were made only after the chief engineer had been upheld in his demand by the Navy Department, the authorities at the Navy-yard considering the earlier work satisfactory.

Commander Carr, who is accused of approving careless work, was a harsh critic of Naval Constructor Evans on the occasion of Evans' recent study for divorce, because he caught his wife kissing Lieutenant Osburn. Evans was behind the demand which resulted in the investigation of Carr.
