Several reported considerable success with the rod and line, although Arm-bruster and Graney falled to state whether or not they carried dynamite.

Irving Gough, one of the winning pitchers of Casey's Northwestern team, arrived home yesterday. He is ill and will rest up before the Colts' home series

Call McClosky's Fight Fraud.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The open-air boxing match in which "Blink" McCloskey, an-nounced as the Philadelphia champion weiter-weight, was advertised to meet four Prenchmen in turn for 10 three-minute rounds, proved a fiasco. McCloskey's first opponent was LaCrois, 145 pounds, with a good local record, who clearly had the better of his 10 rounds. McCloskey sprained his arm and refused to continue. The crowd hooted and declared the affair a swindle. One of the promoters said that McCloskey, although under contract to fight for 500 francs, demanded 1000 francs before entering the ring, and the money had been given him. welter-weight, was advertised to meet ring, and the money had been given him in order not to disappoint the crowd.

HOOLIGANS TO PLAY SEVEN GAMES IN PORTLAND.

Garrett Will Probably Be Pitted Against Willett in Opening Contest-Double-Header Sunday.

Happicus Hogan and his Vernon outnt of more or less successful exponents of baseball are due to arrive in Portiand this morning and will hook up with McCredle's hopefuls in a seven-game series. Seven games will be played this week for the reason that the Vernon club on its last trip north was unable to arrive here in time to play the Tuesday game. As a result a double-header will be in order next Sunday afternoon. This is the only postpined game in the Coast League at Portland so far this season.

There probably will be several double-headers during the five weeks' sojourn of Pearl Casey's Northwestern League team, as postponements have been suffered by the Tacoma, Spokane and Aberdeen clubs here.

The Hooligans have the happy faculty of bracing up once in a while, and when they do there is fur flying when the opposition club tries to beat them. It may be that they will give McCredie's bunch an awful battle this week, and then again the home guard may triin them as easily as they did on the recent trip to Los Angeles. Happicus has arrayed himself with a bunch of quite clever ballplayers, but so far they have been unable to get together in the matter of team play, and for that reason they are decorating the cellar location. Happicus has a fast pitching staff, although he was forced by the ownership of the club to part with the most promising youngster developed on the Coast this year—Raleigh, the southpaw.

Hogan is absolutely undismayed by adverse conditions, and if you want to know the best team in the league, ask him; he will tell you it is the Vernon club, and recite offhand a hundred or more reasons, ranging from rotten umpiring to horseshoe luck, that have deprived his club of the lead.
