

MORE PORTLAND PEOPLE LUCKY

Portland People Get Lucky Numbers in Drawing.

FOUR WOMEN ARE NAMED

Three Spanish War Veterans Are Among Winners From This City. One Member of Police Force Is Included.

Twenty-seven Portland residents in all draw lucky numbers yesterday and Monday for the Government land claims in Coeur d'Alene Indian reservation. Twenty-two of these winning numbers came out in the first day's drawing. One, which was reported Monday as belonging to Bert Bridges, of Portland, has since been found to be that drawn by B. Briggs, of Postlote, Idaho.

The lucky Portlanders in yesterday's drawings were: Adolph Woehl, a clerk with the Honeyman Hardware Company, who drew No. 1507; Henry J. Leaf, night foreman for the Inman-Poulsen Company, winner of No. 1509; Charles A. Marcy, 862 Syracuse street, winner of No. 1512; C. D. Rushmore, 25 Union avenue North, winner of No. 1515; and James Ingles, 71 Russell street, winner of No. 1516.

Three of the Portland winners are Spanish war veterans. They are: J. G. Montgomery, policeman; George H. Bullis, drier for the United States Laundry, and H. Q. Aldrich, stockbroker for the Warren Construction Company. Bullis and Aldrich drew, respectively the numbers 35, 35 and 134.

Montgomery is the only successful one out of a score of more members of Portland's Police Department who made application. Montgomery has lived in Portland only two years and was until less than a year ago a lineman in the employ of the Home Telephone Company. He is 29 years of age and lives at 230 First avenue, Mount Scott. He is unmarried, but expects to become a benefit in the near future and will probably make his home on his allotment, at least until the title has been proven.

Followed Fiancee's Advice. Montgomery is a native of Pennsylvania and served in the Sixth regiment of his state in the United States Reserve Ambulance Corps aboardship during the Spanish-American war, and saw service in Cuba. He was registered through an agent, a courtesy granted all veterans of the United States Army.

The future Mrs. Montgomery is said to be responsible for the patrolman making application. "Oh, it won't do any good, I am too untucky," he is said to have told her in discussing the matter.

"You go ahead," was the reply, and now Montgomery expresses a firm belief in mascots. Adolph Woehl, winner yesterday of No. 1507, has been in the employ of the Honeyman Hardware Company for nine years. He lives at 2574 Larrabee street. His number was drawn by W. L. Robinson, a traveling salesman.

Henry J. Leaf, residing at 383 Clinton street, was the winner of No. 1509. He has been in the employ of the Inman-Poulsen Company for 23 years and has in that time worked up to the position of night foreman.

H. A. Hinkle, who drew No. 732, lives at 450 Welder street. He is connected with the firm of hop merchants, Klaber, Wolf & Netter, and is one of the best known figures in the state.

George Prebler, living at 206 Ross street, drew No. 1522. Mr. Prebler is 45 years of age and has been a contractor all his life and has lived in Oregon three years. He is also interested in a grocery store, owned by his brother near his home.

Causes Change in Plans. Harry A. Meier, winner of No. 1287, is the son of J. A. Meier, a fishmonger living at 2445 Ross street. Harry Meier is 21 years of age and graduated last June from the Hill Military Academy. He was intending to enter a dental academy at Seattle, but in case he secures a desirable homestead he will probably live on the claim with his parents.

William A. Freer, winner of No. 311, is the secretary of the firm of Downing, Hopkins & Co., grain and stock brokers, whose offices are in 203 Chamber of Commerce.

Arthur West, who won No. 1462, resides at 119 Ellsworth street, and is a member of the firm of contractors of George West & Son. He has been a contractor all his life and has lived in Oregon three years.

F. W. Funk is a grocer at 561 Washington street. He drew No. 1234. Chester A. Lunds, living at 530 East Twenty-first street, a winner of No. 1453, is a local contractor.

Charles Thornton is proprietor of a buffet at 75 North Third street. He drew No. 478. T. F. Bearinger, living at 408 Sixteenth street, was winner of No. 538. He represents an Eastern lumber company.

Joseph Sharp, a fireman for the O. R. & N., of 504 Albina avenue, was winner of No. 590. W. P. Arthur, 1896 Berkeley street, winner of No. 691, is a carpenter in the employ of the O. R. & N.

A fisherman named Grant Walker, living at 1859 Dana street, drew No. 823. The following names could not be found in the city directory: Cyrus G. Parker, winner of No. 475; H. E. Myers, winner of No. 344; Fred T. Lambert, winner of No. 632; Theodore Harringer, winner of No. 397; C. E. Herrig, winner of No. 438.

Other Portlanders successful in yesterday's drawings were: Ed Ryerson, Etta Burke, F. P. Mattson, Harry T. Little, Lewis Thompson, Thomas N. Dunbar, Frank Lane, 1025 East Twentieth street; Charles M. Ross, Arleta; Kate Frederick, 62 Albina avenue; Frederick Israel, 223 Burnside street; Elmer O'Brien, 174 Mississippi avenue; William D. Frost, 1330 East Ninth street; Emma Kirkpatrick, 605 Montgomery street; E. D. Rushmore, 605 Union avenue North; James Ingles, 71 Russell street; Charles A. Marcy, 862 Syracuse street; Maggie C. Smith, Tourney building; O. E. Rachel, Marie Misnecks.

DEATH INTERRUPTS VISIT

Eastern Woman on Way to See Son in Portland Is Stricken. TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Cyril F. French, aged 67 years, of Worcester, Mass., died on the Northern Pacific train about 9:30 o'clock this morning near Kehl, between Seattle and Tacoma, while bound to Portland to visit a son in the real estate business in the Wells-Fargo building. She was accompanied by her husband. The body was removed from the train here.

Dr. C. H. Upton, of La Grande, Or., was on the train and administered to the woman. He pronounced the cause of death heart disease.

SIX PORTLAND CITIZENS WHO WON IN COEUR D'ALENE LAND DRAWING, AND CHEHALIS MAN WHO DREW NO. 23.

H. Leaf, No. 1550.

Harry A. Meier, No. 1287.

George H. Bullis, No. 1522.

J. G. Montgomery, No. 325.

George H. Simonds, Chehalis, No. 23.

Arthur West, No. 1462.

STREET IS AWAKE

Seventh Street Wants More Lights and Beauty.

ORGANIZATION IS FORMED

Property-owners Meet and Appoint Committees to Investigate Illumination and Devise Ways for Improvement of Avenue.

Property-owners along Seventh street who want to see that thoroughfare made one of the best lighted, best kept and most up-to-date streets in the city, took the first steps to that end last night when they met in room 201 of the Beck building at Seventh and Oak streets, and organized the Seventh-Street Improvement Association.

The objects of the new club are officially stated to be "the lighting and general beautifying of the street." The members formed a temporary organization at the meeting last night. The club's first official act was appointing two committees to look up designs of street lights such as are used in other cities, and to take the matter up with the city to see what can be done towards furnishing power for the lights after the property-owners have set them up.

Some of the most prominent business men in Portland are situated along Seventh street, and there was an enthusiastic attendance at the session. Among those present were: George D. Dunning, Councilman and member of Dunning, McEntee & Gilchrist; E. Henry Wenme, of Williams, Meier, of Meier & Frank; Crain, Light & Power Company; George L. Baker, Councilman; Calvin Heilig, the theatrical man; Sig Reichel, of the Executive Board; J. J. Jennings, J. P. Moffett, J. P. Arnold, J. C. Friendly, E. G. Ames and J. Foxton.

E. G. Ames was elected chairman of the association, and J. C. Beck secretary. After the needs of Seventh street had been discussed, it was decided to appoint a committee to look into the matter thoroughly before the next meeting. A committee composed of J. C. Beck, Julius Meier and Manager Dickinson of the Oregon Hotel, was appointed to select designs for lights. E. Henry Wenme, George L. Baker, George D. Dunning, J. C. Friendly and J. P. Moffett were placed on another committee to take up the question of furnishing power for these lights with the city.

One of the interesting features of the meeting was the reading of a letter from J. C. Almaraz, endorsing the formation of the club, and promising his support in whatever it might undertake. The club will hold its next meeting Friday night at 8:30 o'clock, at the same place, room 201, of the Beck building. A permanent organization will be effected then.

INDIANS SEEK REDRESS

Chief No-Shirt Will Carry Complaint to Washington. PENDLETON, Or., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—As a result of a council of the Walla Walla and Cayuse Indians on the reservation, Chief No-Shirt, of the latter tribe, will leave in a few days for Washington to present some grievances to the Indian Department.

The Indians object to the opening of roads across the reservation for the benefit of the white stock men, who otherwise would be compelled to go a hundred miles out of their way in going to and from their summer ranges. The chief says he knows the Government did not order the roads opened, or they would have been fixed up long ago.

The Indians also declare that many of the Indians were not given the money due them, at the time the last payment of Indian money was made. They feel that the agents have been working against them in the interest of the local banks. The last payment

PAN TANS SPEAK

Issue Statement in Defense of Organization.

SECOND MAN DROPS OUT

John O'Brien, Spokane Police Commissioner, Resigns From Secret Order Because of Public Pressure in His City.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Police Commissioner John O'Brien has resigned from the Pan Tans because of public sentiment against officials belonging to such an organization.

The advisory board of the Federated Men's Club has demanded that Governor Hay and Mayor Pratt bring about a thorough investigation of the Pan Tans. A communication authorized by the Pan Tans wherein they defend their organization without going into details has been issued to the public and following the return of Governor Hay to Olympia and the report that he will put the matter before the Legislature and ask for an investigation and information as to the conduct of the three Superior Court Judges implicated with the Police Justice in the Pan Tans. These are the developments of the day in the doings of the mysterious order, the revelation of whose secret workings to bring pressure to bear to secure appointive city and county positions for their "brothers," has shaken the city. City Commissioner Tuerke revealed their doings after being ousted because of failure to boost Chester Edwards and D. D. McPhee to police candidacies.

The feeling throughout the city is that C. W. Tuerke spoke the truth in regard to the secret order. The Pan Tans' statement issued to the public is signed by A. C. Edwards, president, and C. A. Platt, secretary. The statement in part follows:

"The order of Pan Tans is a secret and protective fraternity in the highest and best sense of these words. It is designed to be universal and purposes to institute councils in all parts of the world. Its obligations and teachings are conducive to best citizenship and upright manhood. We have been maliciously slandered and misrepresented by a Judas whose expulsion was voted unanimously by 50 members, not because he did not support McPhee or Edwards, but for the reason that he has been guilty of falsehood, treachery and deceit, and so violated his solemn oath and proved himself unworthy of membership. Our organization will be maintained and work carried on as in the past. We offer no apology for our existence and Governor Hay is cordially invited to investigate our order in such a manner as he deems proper, and we heartily tender our support to any such investigation as he may see fit to make."

A. C. EDWARDS, Chairman, C. A. PLATT, Secretary, "Council No. 1, Order of Pan Tans."

DONKEYS ARE ACROBATS

Long-Eared Animals Perform With Famous Lorch Family. There are no less than seven families of acrobats with Ringling Brothers' circus this year, not to mention the individual performers and the teams of two and three. Famous among these seven families are the Lorchs, who are seen for the first time in America. They use and Seattle, behind which he left a trail of forged drafts.

The youth finally wound up at Chehalis, where he secured the indentment of an old Indian friend, now a school-teacher, to a $500 draft. He hanged too long, however, and was arrested on suspicion. The Indiana authorities were communicated with, and William Eia, of Indianapolis, postoffice inspector, arrived here yesterday. Today the young forger was arraigned before Judge Donworth in the Federal Court and he coolly admitted the theft.

"Well, she is a peach and worth it," was his rejoinder to the Sheriff. He does not express any sorrow, but laughs and jokes with those about him, telling them of the many good times he enjoyed the past month. He will be taken back to Indianapolis tomorrow.

INDIAN GIRL HIS RUIN

Indianapolis Youth Steals Cash for Auto Ride. TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Unable to erase from his memory the bewitching smile of Dolly St. Clair, a beautiful but wayward Indian girl, Walter M. Myer, 19 years old, son of a prominent Vincennes, Ind., family, stole a package of registered letters addressed to two banks and worth $3000 while employed at the Vincennes Railway depot, and followed the girl to the Pacific Coast. Their meeting was the beginning of a series of wine suppers and auto rides in Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, behind which he left a trail of forged drafts.

The youth finally wound up at Chehalis, where he secured the indentment of an old Indian friend, now a school-teacher, to a $500 draft. He hanged too long, however, and was arrested on suspicion. The Indiana authorities were communicated with, and William Eia, of Indianapolis, postoffice inspector, arrived here yesterday. Today the young forger was arraigned before Judge Donworth in the Federal Court and he coolly admitted the theft.

"Well, she is a peach and worth it," was his rejoinder to the Sheriff. He does not express any sorrow, but laughs and jokes with those about him, telling them of the many good times he enjoyed the past month. He will be taken back to Indianapolis tomorrow.

LAND OPENING, AUGUST 15, 1909

3000-acre tract placed on the market. Thirty-eight miles from Portland. One and one-half miles from railroad station and boat landing on Columbia River. Tracts of 20 acres and up. Excellent fruit and vegetable land. Prices $20 to $40 per acre. Easy terms. Phone Main 6659.

COLUMBIA COUNTY INVESTMENT COMPANY 1018 Board of Trade, Portland, Oregon.

Smiths, De Marlo, the Shaws and Mirarez. The two Jackson troupes of bicycle riders, Robidello, the wonderful wire walker, and Kerslake and his plugs are a few more that attract. In the way of striking features the programme holds no less than seven, which is remarkable in itself inasmuch as the ordinary big show considers itself lucky if it has one. The Arthur Saxon Trio, any one of whom is stronger than Samson, are one of the importations that mark the long bill. The greatest animal act in the history of the world, presented by the Schuman Brewery horses, is another importation. It is the greatest example of horse culture ever achieved. The horses drink from glasses, skate and roll each other about in huge beer barrels.

An automobile that shoots down a steep runway, leaps high in air and turns over twice in space before landing is another of the sensations, and this most daring of all acts is accomplished by a mare girl. The show will exhibit in Portland on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 24 and 25, exactly as it was seen in New York City at the opening of this season.

AMERICA IS LIKE ROME Italian Historian Draws Close Parallel. PARIS, Aug. 10.—Concluding a series of impressions of America, which he had gained during a recent visit to that country, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

The rapidity of development, lightning changes, Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, finds that the anti-plutocratic movement is essentially a struggle between the old traditions of the Puritan democracy and civilization, god, luxury and pleasure—a repetition under modern and more complicated form of the struggle that rent Rome for three centuries.

NEW SHORT LINE

Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway

between CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE, ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS, DULUTH, DAVENPORT, ROCK ISLAND, MOLINE, ROCKFORD, FREEPORT, DUBUQUE, LA CROSSE, OMAHA, SIOUX CITY, KANSAS CITY, ETC.

and PORTLAND, SEATTLE, TACOMA, SPOKANE and other North Coast points. Through fast time handling all classes of freight. Consign shipments to our care.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

H. S. ROWE, 134 Third St.

A TENT AMONG THE TREES

Ever camp out? Ever listen to the waves breaking on the beach at S. A. M. Take a tent at Columbia Beach and try it—it's great. Portland people like our tent city—we've had to order more tents and more equipment. There's room for YOU now in one of these completely furnished handily portable canvas homes. See us about it—the cost is extremely small.

Columbia Beach

Columbia Beach now has a pier from the hotel to the water. It's 500 feet long. Columbia Beach visitors may reach the water over a gradual, easy inclined walk that does not tire. It marks the completion of only one of the many improvements now going on at the beach.

Many persons were treated to a generous quantity of clams and crabs at our offices last Monday. Some of them have been in to tell us how they enjoyed them. They're looking for more. We get them for our friends direct from the water—we know they are fresh—want some? We'll have more in a few days.

Columbia Trust Company

BOARD OF TRADE BLDG.

STREETCAR FENDERS

The citizens of Portland are and should be vitally interested in the subject of streetcar fenders. It is one of the most important questions of the hour. It involves the protection of human life and limb from streetcar accidents. This subject is now engaging the attention of the city authorities, and very properly so. Soon, we understand, a car fender will be adopted by the City Council which will be used on the streetcars of this city, and we respectfully announce that the Standard Fender Company, a corporation of Portland, Oregon, has a lifesaving device which if thoroughly investigated and tested, will be found to fulfill all the requirements necessary to insure its adoption by the city. We do not desire to make any empty assertions, but we invite investigation of our fender, and we believe we are justified in demanding recognition at the hands of all interested parties.

Our offices are at 404-7 Couch building, where a representative of the company can always be found ready to demonstrate the practical utility and superiority of the Standard Fender as a thorough and effectual safeguard against accidents and loss of life.

Respectfully, STANDARD FENDER COMPANY.

Pkgs. 10 and 15 cents. Ask Grocer

Post Toasties with Cream and Sugar, and sometimes fruit. Made of selected white corn, cooked, sweetened, flaked and toasted. The flavor of Post Toasties is a pleasant, lingering memory. Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.