COL. POPE PASSES

Nervous Breakdown Follows Financial Troubles.

FIRST WAGES $4 A WEEK

Served With Distinction in Civil War and Was Leader in Public Effort in New England States and Cities.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—Colonel Albert Pope, well-known in automobile and bicycle circles throughout the United States and Canada, died at his summer home today.

Colonel Pope had been in ill-health for months, due to a nervous breakdown that followed the financial embarrassment of his bicycle company, the largest concern of the kind in the country.

Albert Augustus Pope was born at Boston in 1842. While still a student in the public schools family reverses forced him to earn his own livelihood...

At the close of the war he entered the wholesale shoe-finding business, remaining in this until 1877, when he founded the Pope Manufacturing Company...
