WILDCAT ALARMS NEIGHBORHOOD—A fierce wildcat roams about the vicinity of East Thirty-seventh and Brazee streets, scaring the people and chasing the cats and dogs out of the neighborhood. According to stories of those who have seen it, the wildcat is from 8 to 15 feet long, has a tall 40 foot long, claws six inches in length and sharp as saw-teeth and has eyes as big as saucers, which shine on a dark night like 2000-candlepower electric arcs.

DAY DENIES SLIGHTING CASE—Replying to statements circulated during the past two days to the effect that he and Frank Snow have not been diligent in searching out the identity of the man and woman who occupied the "big red touring car" which ran down and killed Mrs. May Real on the morning of August 4, on the Linnton road, Detective Day, who with Snow has had charge of the case, declared last night that every effort has been made to that end.

The Ely-Norris Manganese Steel Bank Safes, the Strongest in the World. This challenge appears in all the leading papers throughout the United States. We hereby agree to put up one of our safes against any three so-called burglar-proof safes manufactured either by one firm or a collection of firms, agreeing to open all three safes in less time than it occupied in opening our safe, allowing them the amount of explosives used upon their three safes upon our one safe. We will furnish the safe free of charge and if necessary will buy the "dope" with which to operate on the safe. Money and Metal Talks. Come to Time. NORRIS SAFE AND LOCK CO. PORTLAND SEATTLE SPOKANE
