QUARTET OF PRIZEWINNERS IN GOVERNMENT LAND LOTTERY

William F. Hindard, Colfax, Wash. O. E. Roche, Portland. Sarah B. Cooper, Portland. Mrs. Margaret C. Smith, Portland.

Flathead is a well-known young mining engineer who has just returned to Portland from Mexico. "After starting for Portland from Mexico, Mr. Staver, it was detained at El Paso, Tex., with an attack of smallpox. Then I came on to Portland and went through Missoula just as the talk of the land drawing was at its height and so I fled. Then I went and filed on the other places but the Missoula lands looked best to me and I am glad that I was so fortunate as to secure one of those homesteads. I will go and live on the place." Mr. Staver is at present visiting with his mother, Mrs. L. Staver, at 74 Schuyler street.

Two other Portlanders have among the first 1500 names drawn yesterday. These are Joseph A. Hughes, who drew number 128 and John J. Ziegler, who drew number 908.

Thomas L. Temple, a salesman for the Herson Machinery Company, whose last address which could be located last night is 505 East Twentieth street, drew No. 1408. Karl T. Fredericksen, whose name does not appear in the directory, drew No. 1477.

SALMON FIGURES SECRET

Fraser River Men Accused of Attempt to Deceive. VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—It is learned today that the cannerymen on Fraser have been keeping quiet the exact figures of their salmon this season in order that, because of the lateness of the run they might secure an extension of the season from the Government.

MISS COOPER STRIKES LUCK

Also Some Other Portlanders Draw Winning Numbers. When Miss Sarah B. Cooper came to Portland from Indianapolis last November she came with the express purpose of making her fortune in the great and glorious West, but little did she dream that her expectations would be fulfilled in such measure as has been accomplished in the short time she has been here.

Salmon Pack in Alaska Is About Completed. ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—A letter was received today by the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company from P. A. Berglund, manager of the company's cannery at Nushagak River, Alaska. The letter was dated at Nushagak on July 21 and was mailed at Nome on July 21. Mr. Berglund stated that the run of salmon was getting slack, but that the cannery pack was nearly up, and he expected to be able to fill the balance of the can on hand within two or three days.

BOATS RUN ALL SEASON

NAVIGATION OF SNAKE IS MADE PROFITABLE. With Additional Government Work on Channel Heavy Cargoes Could Be Carried. LEWISTON, Idaho, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—The steamers of the Open River Transportation Company between Celilo and Lewiston have already demonstrated the feasibility of navigating the Upper Columbia and Snake Rivers throughout the entire season, and only Government improvement work to concentrate the flow is necessary to make the traffic profitable even during the lowest stages of the rivers.

CHILD DROWNS IN DITCH

Toddles From Home and Falls Into Irrigation Canal. NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Tony, the 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brim, of this city, toddled out into an irrigation ditch in front of his home late this afternoon and fell in. He floated down one block, made a turn, and was discovered in a ditch in front of St. Elizabeth's Hospital. Doctors at the institution were unable to restore life to the little body. The Brims came to this city only a couple of months ago. There are a number of other children in the family.
