OREGON BOYS HOLD UP SOUTHERN BANK

Obtain Over $7000, Escape in Automobile, but Are Rapidly Captured.

After Money Is Recovered and Pair Placed in Jail, They Say They From Oregon, Then Keep Quiet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.-Two Oregon youths, neither one much over 18 years of age, walked into the Valley Bank of Santa Clara shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, and liring up the three clerks at the nuzzica of revolvers, pushed one of the men forward and told him to place $7000 in a bag and give it to them.

"And be quick about it to," said one of the hold-sips, "and if it is shy I'll blow the top of your head off."

While the clerk was obeying the youths, the othern had a good chance to study their faces, ar neither of the amsteurish desperadors was masked. Cashier Birze placed the required sum in a sack and gave it to the two invaders, who at once left the bank, went a half a block, and jumped into a waiting automobile. There one of the men placed a revolver at the chauffeur's head and commanded him to "let her out for all sie's worth." The chauffeur compiled, and the heavy car disappeared in a cloud of dust.

Quick Pursuit Given.

As soon as the men left the bank pursuit was given. It was ascertained that the car had been fired earlier in the day from a San Jose garage, and was in charge of the regular driver.

The alarm was given and with a description of the car and its number the police of San Jose, Santa Clara and posses of citizens started in pursuit. The San Francisco and Oakland-police also were notified and two heavy cars dilled with detectives were sent out from filled with detectives were sent out from

The men were exhausted by their flight and submitted without a fight.

Money Is Recovered.

When the fugitives surrendered under the menacing influence of rifles and shot guns, is was discovered they were little more than boys. Neither appeared to be over 18 years of age, and it was evidently over 18 years of age, and it was evidently their first attempt at such a crime. Sher-iff Langford saked for the bag of money, which one of the youths produced. It contained $7500, and it is believed to be the amount taken by them. Upon arriving at the jall in San Jose, they were placed in separate cells.

Sheriff Langford made every effort to discover the identity of the prisoners, but beyond saying they were from Oregon, they would tell nothing of their history.

Convents destroyed. The newspapers daily print long lists of valuables that have been missing since the disorders and the stock exchange has received notice of the stoppage of an enormous number of bonds and other securities.

n interesting fact that came to light makes it seem pretty certain that the movements of the Porters, of interest to all Oregonians, possess especial attrac-tion for certain careless-looking gentle-men who chiefly occupy their days in Shaniko by endeavoring to appear totally indifferent to all things, from railroad construction to politics. Such an inhuman lack of frailty had early convinced observers that the truth of the metter was that the only thing that really did interest them was the ob-servation of Mr. Porter, and a little de-tective tragedy yesterday substantiated became known, quite opportunely that Mr. Pecter was going to slip off to Bend on important and mysterious busi-ness, and, sure enough, in the morning he started in his machine. Post haste one of the crafty "sleuths" rushed off one of the crafty "sleuths" rushed off on the Bend stage, while another gave frantic chase to the car with a team. When a few miles out of town, Mr. Porter's chauffeur saw some freight teams in the road before him, and turned off in the sagebrush, allowing the freight wagens to stand responsi-ble for the obliteration of his tracks. Then Mr. Porter proceeded to his river camps, while one detective eagerly has-tened towards Bend and the other re-pented at leisure far along the dusty After being so entirely out-Sherlock Holmed, it is wondered whether the sleuth will get out an injunction restraining himself from further pro-fessional activity.

Discharged Men Grumble.

Shaniko is fairly overflowing with men turned off from the Twoby camps up tree, whose work was stopped by the recent injunction. Among these there seems to be considerable bitterness at the condition of affairs, it being difficult for the foreign laborers to comprehend the reasons that have caused the suspension of operations.

Twoby camps at dawn yesterday. They had left Shaniko the previous morning bound for the Harriman camps, believing work awaited them there and after tramping 25 miles with little food and no water, they discovered that their trip was in vain, the camp having been shut down. Nothing renained for them but the long walk back to Shamiko, and it was not until dawn of the next day that they dragged into town in exhausted condition.

Weird Tale Is Related.

A number of workmen from Twoby camp No. 73, 20-odd miles south of here, are responsible for this weird and famine painted tale. They declare that one day last week the dinner for the entire camp of 25 men consisted of a single hind quarter of beef, plus a liberal amount of onions. "Only this, and nothing more." Unanimously they voted "nevermore," for the abreviated menu, coupled with the fact that their beds had for the most part been the softer dirt spaces for the abreviated menu, coupled with the fact that their beds had for the most part been the softer dirt spaces nunted out between rocks, seems to have convinced them, that it

CONVICT CHEATS GALLOWS

Hangs Self in Cell Soon After Cellmate's Suicide.

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 18.—With a handkerchief around his neck, and surgeons' bandages for a rope. August Coussens, awaiting trial for murder, committed suicide early today by hanging himself to the door of his cell in the county jail. Mark Manchester, the art connoisescur who killed himself in his Berkeley home Thursday morning, was a cellmate of Coussens, the night that he spont as a prisoner at the county jail.

It is believed that the two men formed a suicide pact and that Coussens' self-destruction was his fulfillment of his pact. Another reason for Coussens' suicide is suggested by the fact that he took a great liking to Manchester during the few hours that they were together in the cell, and when he read of the Berkelyan's suicide last night it affected him so much as to suggest a similar termination to himself.

Enemies Try to Involve Him in Alaskan Coal Case.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington Aug. 12.—Enemies of Secre-tary Ballinger and Senator Heyburn are trying to involve them in the alleged coal land frauds in Alaska, which the Government is about to take into court. They say Assistant Secretary Pierce and missioner Dennett are also in volved. They say that these officials were connected in some improper manner with the efforts of Portland capitalists to ecure the coal land. Forest Service off clais who are making a campaign against Mr. Ballinger say even that h's resigna-tion will be demanded. The explanation made by friends of Mr.

Ballinger say that, while he was attorney for the Portland company when it was formed by Clarence C. Cunningham, he withdrew from all connection with the company when he became Commissioner of the General Land Office in the Roose-velt Administration. Mr. Heyfurn gave Mr. Cunningham power of attorney to locate a coal claim for him, but withdrew this authority when he became Senator. Cunningham and 32 associates, all said to be men of considerable means, made 33 filings of 160 acres each, about 30 miles north of Katalda. Embraced in these filings is the richest coal known to exist in Alaska, some of it in clear 60-foot seams: the coal is of high steaming quality. Secretary Hitchcock suspended these entries and his suspension is still in effect. Meanwhile special agents have examined all these claims and have preferred charges, which Mr. Cunningham and his associates will be called upon to face some time next month.
