Spokane Reservation Offers 100 Choice Claims for Land-Seekers.

99,860 NAMES ARE FILED

Nine Thousand Homeseekers Placed in West by Opening of Indian Reserves—Large Sums Are Spent by Land-Seekers.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Mounted on a high-caged platform, pretty Harriet Post, daughter of Frank T. Post, a prominent Spokane lawyer, will, on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, select 26 names from scattered thousands of applications about her for homesteads in the Spokane Indian reservation, the last of the three opened in the West this year, and probably the last opened for years to come.

Smaller than all the rest, yet containing about 100 choice claims, the Spokane reservation has been chosen by more people, according to the size, than either of the two larger reservations, 99,860 land-seekers placing applications. Winners of choice claims will be expected to select their lands and file official notice of intention to make homes on the reservation by April 30, next year.

9000 Homeseekers Placed. With the drawing of the 250 names at Coeur d'Alene tomorrow, 9000 homeseekers will have been placed in line for lands on three reservations—Coeur d'Alene, Flathead and Spokane—during last month, registration having opened July 15. Of these 9000, perhaps 40 per cent will file, according to the prediction of Judge James W. Witten, superintendent of the drawing, who bases his conclusions on the filing at other reservation openings. The places of those falling to file will be taken by the next man behind them in the land-seekers' list.

The opening of these reservations will bring 10,000 new settlers to the West is believed. Easterners who failed to draw lucky numbers in land drawings have invested money elsewhere in the inland Empire or on the Pacific Coast.

Much Money Left in West. Fate played crooked cards with luckless scores of prospectors on ill-fated electric trains which crashed head-on on the afternoon of July 31, near Coeur d'Alene, snuffing out 14 lives and maiming 102 others, for thus far not one of the killed or injured who registered for reservation lands have drawn a number allotting them a chance to secure a $10,000 homestead.

For a week past, crowds have surged about bulletin boards at Spokane where land winners names were announced. Four cities have been choked with humanity, and it is estimated that $10,000,000 has been left in the West during the land rush.

CRETAN GOVERNMENT RESIGNS Provisional Committees Rule and Greek Flag Flies.

CANEA, Island of Crete, Aug. 15.—The British battleship Swiftsure arrived today in Huda Bay, in the western portion of the island. The Cretan government has resigned and the administration of the island has been entrusted to provisional committees. The committees have had the armed peasants expelled from the forts in which they occupied Saturday night, intending to resist the order of the powers that the Greek flag be lowered. The committees, however, have not had the flags hauled down.

Italian Warships Sail. ROME, Aug. 15.—The Italian cruisers Francesco Ferruccio, Varese, Giuseppe Garibaldi and Giovanni Bausan sailed today for Crete and will be followed late tonight by the battleships Regina Elena, Napoli and Vittorio Emanuele III.

"BLUES" BURN BRIDGES Successfully Hamper Movement of "Red" Army.

BOSTON, August 15.—A bridge destroying expedition to hamper the movements of the army of the "red" and the capture of a private of the invading army, were the most warlike features today in the work of the army of the "blue" in the town of Bridgewater, defending Boston from an attack by the "red" army in the war game. The original plans for a strenuous Sunday were of no avail because of the postponement of hostilities last night.

Every regimental headquarters, however, tonight received marching orders, and the indications pointed to a general advance before morning. The first real move of the "blue" army was taken early in the day when two battalions of the Eighth infantry under Major Graves was sent to destroy important bridges. The detachment returned at 3 o'clock this afternoon, reporting its work well done. The "red" army, when it advances, will be thrown on its own resources in crossing the several streams that lie between it and Boston.

Accompanied by several referees, the detachment, on coming to a bridge, would place under it packages supposed to contain sufficient dynamite to destroy the structure. Then a giant firecracker was exploded and a placard was placed on the bridge announcing that it had been "destroyed."

CALF'S HEAD SET ON FIRE Lighted Match Is Held Too Close to Turpentine Poutice.

SPOKANE, Aug. 15.—(Special.)—John Culton, who lives north of Palouse, had an unique experience a few days ago. A yearling bull gored a horse, and Culton thought it wise to dehorn the bull. The horns were removed stubbornly refused to heal, and Culton applied turpentine in generous quantities, soaking the animal's head thoroughly. During the evening he went to the barn to see the bull and lighted a match to make an inspection of the sores. The match came in too close contact with the turpentine head of the bull, and in an instant the head was ablaze and the calf was making an effort to set fire to everything else in the barn.

LOUISVILLE GIRL TO MARRY DIRECT DESCENDANT OF CHARLES X.

MISS SUSANNE HENNING.

BLUE BLOOD TO MIX

Society Stirred by Engagement of Miss Henning.

FIANCE OF ROYAL LINE

Marquis de Charette, Whom Louisville Girl Is to Wed, Is Lincal Descendant of Charles X. Young Lady Eccentric.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—When the announcement was made here this past week that Miss Susanne Henning was to marry the Marquis de Charette, society was given much food for gossip and conjecture. Blue blood of Europe and America is to be joined in this marriage occurs, for the marquis is the son of General Baron de Charette, a French veteran and direct descendant of Charles X. His mother was Miss Polk, of Tennessee, a granddaughter of the late President Polk.

Miss Henning's father is J. W. Henning, a New York broker. Her mother is Mrs. Susan Merritt Henning, who is making her home in Shelbyville. Miss Henning has been staying most of her time with her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Henning, in this city, where she has taken a prominent part in the social world. Miss Henning's mother is in comfortable circumstances, and her father was rated a millionaire until he was forced to the wall some years ago. Recently Mr. Henning, who was once known as the Standard Oil broker, in that he did most of the street business for such men as H. H. Rogers, James Stillman, Archibald and other millionaires, has begun to recuperate his fortunes.

Miss Henning has been a prominent and well-liked figure in the society of the South. She has been called eccentric, and her fads and amusements have furnished much amusement in her circle, or circles, rather, for the young lady is cosmopolitan in her selection of friends and catholic in her tastes. Miss Henning last Fall began a study of palmistry, and about that time she became interested in the welfare of convicts, who were confined in Frankfort penitentiary. On one occasion Miss Henning journeyed to Frankfort and read the palms of convicts. One of the men whose hand lines she read was Henry E. Yontsey, who is under a life sentence for complicity in the murder of Governor William Goebel. She told him his life had been dealt harshly with, but that the clouds would soon roll away.

"Curt" Jett, who is under two life sentences, told Miss Henning that it was useless for her to read his palm, as it would only make him realize his fate. "You have a long life line," said Miss Henning. "I need it," replied Jett, "to keep faith with the state."

REV. WATERS ROBBED

PORTLAND PASTOR LOSES POCKETBOOK IN VICTORIA.

Complains to Police, but Search Is in Vain—Mayor Donates $5 for Ticket Home.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Complaining loudly that he had been robbed of $12, all the cash he had, Rev. J. C. Waters, who said he is a Portland clergyman, sought assistance of the police yesterday. The money was not found, but Mayor Hall gave the stranger $5 to assist him on his return. The above dispatch evidently refers to the Rev. J. C. Waters, who is under a life sentence for complicity in the murder of Governor William Goebel. She told him his life had been dealt harshly with, but that the clouds would soon roll away.

to Rev. D. A. Waters, pastor of the Patton Methodist Church, Michigan avenue and Alberta street. Mrs. Waters, wife of Dr. D. A. Waters, at the home at 321 East Eighth street, said last night that her husband is probably the man in question, as he has just been in Seattle and expected to go north to Victoria.

"My husband," Mrs. Waters said last night, "is probably the man to whom the dispatch refers, as he rather expected to be in Victoria today. Another thing that makes me think that it was he who was robbed is the fact that he seldom carries in his pocket more than $10 or $15, so that if he was robbed of $12, it was probably all he had. He should have his wife along to protect him. If I had been with him, I do not think he would have been robbed, and anyway he could have stood the predicament with better grace if I had been present to cheer him up."

VALENCIA SHAFT DONE

MONUMENT TO 15 UNKNOWN VICTIMS UNVEILED.

Simple Ceremonies Mark Dedication of Tribute Erected by Organized Labor.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 15.—With simple but appropriate ceremonies, the monument erected in Mount Pleasant cemetery by organized labor, in memory of the 15 unknown dead whose bodies were recovered from the wreck of the ill-fated steamer Valencia, lost off the coast of Vancouver Island early in 1906, was unveiled this afternoon. Short addresses were made by Rev. J. M. Wilson, of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Seattle, and Charles H. Taylor, of Tacoma, secretary of the Washington State Federation of Labor. The monument is a field-stone shaft, seven feet high, and was erected by the labor organizations of Seattle at a cost of $1800.

In a thick fog January 22, 1906, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Valencia, coming from San Francisco, ran on the rocks at the foot of a high cliff near Cape Beall, on the west coast of Vancouver Island, and was lost, with a death toll of 117 lives. Only 27 of the 154 passengers and crew were saved, 23 of the rescued being officers and crew. Fifteen of the lost bodies were identified, and were buried by the labor organizations of Seattle. The funeral services following the wreck were held in the Grand Opera House, all denominations taking part. Thirty bodies had been recovered at that time, and organized labor furnished six pallbearers for each casket, every local union participating.

OREGON MARKSMEN LEAVE

Fourteen Crack Shots to Represent State at Camp Perry.

Equipped to participate in the National rifle competition at Camp Perry, Ohio, on the shore of Lake Erie, near Cleveland, 14 picked marksmen of the National Guard of Oregon left by the O. R. & N. train yesterday morning. By schedule the team should arrive at the National range next Thursday, and the competition, in which 1000 riflemen are entered, will be begun.

Brigadier-General Finer accompanied the marksmen, and at least a few of the honors to be distributed on the Ohio range.

MABTON BRIDGE BURNS

Former Structure Was Destroyed Few Years Ago by Flood.

MABTON, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The Mabton bridge, spanning the Yakima River just north of town, was discovered to be on fire at 1:30 this afternoon, and in an hour the whole structure was a total loss.

The bridge was completed less than two years ago, the former bridge having been washed out by the high water in the Spring of 1907. The middle span of the bridge was built mostly of steel, but the heat of the burning timbers twisted the steel and it will be almost a total loss.

YOUNG TURK PARTY TRUSTS TURKEY

Fears Country Will Lose Surety of Crete as Bulgaria Was Lost.

GREEK TRADE BOYCOTTED

Natives of Island Sympathize With Greece and Defy Order of Powers to Haul Down Greek Flag—Warships Ordered.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—A peaceful solution of the Cretan situation appeared practically to have been secured last week through the intervention of the four protecting powers. The situation is again disturbing, however, and a naval demonstration will be made.

The Young Turk party plainly mistrusts the present Turkish ministry and fears Turkey will lose surety of Crete, as she has lost that of Bulgaria. This feeling has led to a strong movement among the Albanians against the Turkish Government and to a serious boycott against Greek trade. At the same time the population of Crete has shown such strong Greek sympathies as to induce Crete to defy the order of the protecting powers—Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia—to haul down the Greek flag, which was raised when the troops of the powers recently evacuated the island. As a result of this latter difficulty the situation again has become acute. The powers have ordered warships to Crete and probably will reoccupy the island in order to force compliance with their wishes.

UNIONS STORE GRAIN

SNAKE RIVER FARMERS BUILD WAREHOUSE.

Raising of Charges by Old Line Companies Drives Farmers Into Business.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union has incorporated at Penewa under the name of the Snake River Warehouse Company, and has built a warehouse and will handle grain there. At Penewa there is an easier grade to the river than at Almo or Wawawai. At Wawawai there is a tramway, with a grade of 15, which is built on the Inland Electric road.

The farmers are well organized, and the raise in warehouse charges made by the old-line companies is driving the farmers into the business.

The new warehouse at Rabeck, a new siding between Riverside and Colfax, on the Moscow branch of the O. R. & N., was built by the Farmers' Union of Colfax, and is now receiving grain. The Colfax Union has warehouses at Colfax, Mookanemo and Rabeck, and is receiving about 300 sacks a day at the Colfax house, which is built on the Inland Electric road.

The Farmers' Union warehouses expect to deal largely with independent buyers and millers. The Pullman Union Warehouse Company received an inquiry last night from an Eastern Oregon milling company, which wants 100,000 bushels of wheat, and is willing to pay the highest market price for good milling wheat.

Colton, Johnson, Uniontown and Genesee, on the Genesee branch of the Northern Pacific, each has a Farmers' Union Warehouse Company organized, and warehouses built or leased, and they expect to handle the bulk of the grain reaching these points.

HARRIMAN IS EXPECTED

MAY VISIT PELICAN BAY LODGE IN SEPTEMBER.

Country Home in Southern Oregon Is Being Refitted for His Reception.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—It is now understood that E. H. Harriman will return to his Summer Lodge on Pelican Bay early in September, not only to have the benefit of the beautiful atmosphere and sanitary environments of his beautiful retreat, but to be in reach of the checker board on which he is playing a game with Hill, his great rival, for the choicest lines of entrance into the empire of Southeastern Oregon.

Pelican Lodge has been fitted up with modern conveniences; the telephone line connecting the Lodge with the outside world, repaired; the launch is at hand for use in fishing or for excursions on Upper Klamath lakes—60,000 acres of open water—and for rapid transit between the Lodge and the railroad at Klamath Falls.

The late acquisition of the Odesa resort for Harriman, through his special representative here, Colonel Holabird, opens the way for the development of a princely domain extending for several miles along the western shore of the lake. It is told here the marsh lands are reclaimed, splendid swards and meadows are to take their place, where timothy, redtop and other domestic grasses are expected to reach their finest development; fine driveways are to be constructed, regardless of expense, and water for irrigation and for other purposes is to be conducted in steel pipes from high elevations among the volcanic peaks to rise to the westward of the lake and from the shoulders of the great Cascade ridge.

When Harriman arrives it is expected that he will not only direct his lieutenants personally in the great railroad campaign, but spend some time in working out the plans for the development of his Pelican Bay scheme.

Amusements

What the Press Agents Say.

Five New Bill at Orpheum. John Hyams and Lela Kelly are well-known stars, are the headliners at the Orpheum this week. Their new vehicle, quickly formed "The Quakerettes," is said by Eastern writers to be a remarkable vaudeville offering these popular favorites.

Good crops spell prosperity, and a spell of prosperity is upon us. From all we hear, this is to be a banner year. The corn crop is a leader.

The wheat is O. K., and here is the good clothing for good times at hard-time prices:

- $30, $35 and $40 Suits now $20
$15, $18 and $20 Suits now $10

LION CLOTHIERS 166-170 THIRD ST.

have yet been seen in. The new bill opens with a matinee this afternoon.

Edmund Day Comedy at Pantages. Delightful Mary Hampton, late Belasco star, is one of the features on Pantages bill this week, appearing in Edmund Day's agricultural comedy, "The Farmer's Boy." Miss Hampton has created a veritable sensation in her dual role, her first appearance in vaudeville.

Grand's New Acts. There is an entire change of bill at the Grand today and the list indicates a week of pleasure. The Three Riders have the feature position for they have the most exciting cycle act that has ever been seen here. The Riders perform some thrilling feats in a special apparatus and they will be the talk of the town.

New Company Makes Hit. The new Athlon Stock Company made a great hit at the Lyric yesterday. In "Doris," the opening bill of the season, Miss Knowles, the talented leading woman, scoring heavily. Two capacity audiences welcomed the opening of the stock season. "Doris" will be the bill all week, with matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Performing Lions at Oaks. Madame Schell made an instant hit with her performing lions at the Oaks yesterday. Her engagement is for a limited time only. Don't miss the Italian band afternoon and evening. Cars at Third and Yamhill.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE STAR VARIETY. Latest in Moving-pictures Shown on New Bill.

Another day of record-breaking attendance at the Star Theater and another bill of all-round excellence, proving that the management does not propose to lower the standard of its attractions, even in mid-Summer. The program consisted of five of the most recent European and American productions direct from the producing factories, and Rubenstein, the Russian Violinist, as an extra added feature. This artist was more than grace, ease and dexterity, withstanding a high technique, he interpreted with a mastery.

The most artistic thing among the pictures was "The Wild Ass' Skin," taken from one of the best of the French plays. "The Girl of the Year," an excellent feature, "Out of Work," each in some new and essentially different field, gave to the bill a variety that was more than pleasing and satisfactory. The Illustrated song, the very latest hit, and "The Italian Band" and "The Hawaiian Islands," completed the programme. The special programme for matinee will be "The Bill of the Week," and on Wednesday the entire bill will be changed.

$35,000 GEMS STOLEN

WOMAN PINS THEM BENEATH HER WAIST.

Feels No Wrench, but Pearls Are Missing After Making Trip on Steamer.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—(Special.)—A pearl necklace, valued at $35,000, belonging to Mrs. E. Tobias Earl, 2425 Wilshire boulevard, wife of the publisher of the Los Angeles Express, is now being sought by detectives and officers of a large reward are being circulated in an effort to recover the valuable gems.

The loss occurred several days ago when Mr. and Mrs. Earl left for a visit to Avalon, and the necklace was placed among some other valuables in a bag which Mrs. Earl fastened under her waist with a safety pin. No wrench or clutch was felt during the day, and the gems were supposed to be safe until her arrival at the Metropole Hotel in Avalon, when it was discovered the bag was gone.

Several wireless messages have been sent to the residence in Los Angeles in an effort to trace the loss, but servants left in charge of the home have deny any knowledge of the gems.

It is believed that the theft occurred on the trip to Chalina, as Mrs. Earl feels certain of having the bag containing the valuable in her possession up to her arrival at the boat. She suffered severely from seasickness and the theft might have been committed en route.

The pearl composing the necklace were well matched and of such a distinctive type as to make it possible to identify them.

WORCESTER PARTY COMING

Board of Trade Party From Bay State City to Visit City.

A party consisting of 100 business men of the Worcester, Mass., Board of Trade will arrive in Portland tomorrow morning and will be entertained during the day by the Portland Commercial Club. The visitors will be taken for a trolley ride to Council Crest, the Forestry Building and other points of interest in the city. Luncheon will be served the visitors at the Commercial Club at noon. Their special train will leave the city at 8 o'clock tomorrow night with the party in a special club of 40 voices. This club recently sang at the Irrigation Congress at Spokane and will also sing at the Commercial Club here.

Residents of Portland who have friends among the visitors will have an opportunity of meeting them between 8:30 and 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Because of this insistence on the part of her attorney, it is believed he will make much of the insanity plea, although he would not state openly last night that this would be his line of defense when the case comes to trial.

SALOONS ARE HIT AGAIN

NEW YORK SPORTING MEN DRINK BUTTERMILK. New Beverage More Satisfying Than "Hard Liquor" and Demand Is Booming.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Makers and dispensers of intoxicating liquors now have a new worry besides the worry of the prohibition party and other reform elements. The regular drinkers of "hard liquor" have suddenly developed a preference for buttermilk. They find it gratifies and satisfies and does not inebriate.

To such an extent has this beverage taken hold upon the drinking public that it now takes all of one man's time in the Waldorf-Astoria to carry jars of buttermilk from the cellar to the bar.

Fifty quarts is below the daily average consumption at the Hotel Knickerbocker bar. Brown's chop house has put in an immense porcelain churn to carry buttermilk handy for devotees of the Rialto. Three to four hundred drinks of it is the daily average consumed by the sporting element which frequent the Union Club, in Broadway and Bourse, and other saloons in the financial district sell more buttermilk than malt liquors.

Rosenthal's sale is on. All Summer shoes must go.
