DEMOCRATIC REFORM.

Everybody will wish success to the conference of Democrats which Judge Altor B. Parker has called to meet at Saratoga on September 2.

The purpose of Judge Parker and his colleagues is to restore to the Democratic party the vigorous prestige which it enjoyed in the days of Grover Cleveland.

Such a machine power, utilizing the state's stamp of authority and its means of intelligence, never would have been thought of in days of sane and sane constitution-making in this country.

COMING CAR SHORTAGE.

Railroad prosperity, which is reflected in increased earnings, and higher prices for stocks, is already spreading to other branches of the industry.

HARRIMAN'S WIDENING POWER.

The report that Mr. Harriman has secured control of the New York Central, while lacking official confirmation, is undoubtedly true.

mand, Union Pacific, which soared up to within a fraction of 213 on Monday, yesterday dropped below 213, but before the day was over, regained some of the loss.

FOR AILING EADS AND FANCIES.

One of the wonders of the new U-Ren scheme of government is a "Board of People's Inspectors of Government"—new officials, whose duty it shall be to pry into all affairs of government and print in the Oregon Official Gazette.

PICKING HOPS.

Hop-picking is the poetry of toil. It is only by straining language that it can be called toil, in fact, for it is a good deal more like play to staid day in the cool.

ABDUL HAMDID.

Abdul Hamid, who recently lost a good position as Sultan of Turkey and boss of the largest harem in the East, is not new to the United States.

A FARMER TO FARMERS.

The American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers is the stately and comprehensive name of an organization now holding its fourteenth annual convention in this city.

THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT.

The Japanese government has withdrawn the sealing subsidy which has heretofore been extended to vessels engaged in sealing.

REASON FOR THE SUDDEN RISE IN HARRIMAN STOCKS.

Reason for the sudden rise in Harriman stocks is not far to seek. Wall Street has heard of its prospective increase in earnings from traffic in Central Oregon.

tions to the system are coming much easier than the early accumulations. New York Central is coming under Harriman control.

THE HARRIMAN THREAT FOR POWER.

To use a harsher expression, greed for gain, would have cut but a sorry figure when Stuyvesant Fish was relieved of the control of the Illinois Central.

THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT.

The day of universal knowledge is now so short to attempt more than one thing. The man of single intense purpose is the man who is in demand when something is to be done.

THE RACE WON BY MARTIN FLETCHER.

The race was won by Martin Fletcher, Denver, driving an Oldsmobile, who completed the 200-mile dash about the course in three hours 38 minutes.

YOKAUM FEARS NO WARS.

Mr. Yokaum's subject was "The Farmer and the Railroad." He strongly advocated good roads as a means of bringing the carrier and the producer closer together.

ONE COOL SPOT IS REPORTED.

Six inches of snow in Johannesburg by Noontime.

MURDER THEORY SCOUTED.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Assistant District Attorney Lilliquist has been investigating the death of R. A. Johnson, who was found dead on the street with a bullet in his heart.

even of fruit fit for the table or the cider press. Farmers of the more progressive type have sacrificed tradition to knowledge in these and many other matters.

OREGON, LAND OF OPPORTUNITY.

Practical Sermon on Two Texts Furnished by The Oregonian. PORTLAND, Aug. 17.—To the Editor:—There were two suggestions in the Sunday Oregonian which were fraught with more than ordinary significance.

THE CLIMB ON WEDNESDAY.

The climb on Wednesday was made without difficulty. It was nothing in comparison with our climb up the north side of St. Helens last year.

CAPTAIN J. SORENSON DIES.

Pioneer Steamboat Man Succumbs to Paralysis. Captain Julius Sorenson, aged 74 years and 3 months, died yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 425 Gilsan street.

SINGLE AND INTENSE PURPOSE.

This is the Keynote of Success in Any Undertaking Today. PORTLAND, Aug. 18.—(To the Editor:—It is said that Booth, in "Richard the Third," during the duel once used his sword with such unusual vigor.
