

SUTTON'S HAZERS ARE DISMISSED

Seven West Point Cadets to Suffer for Assault on Rolando Sutton.

RESULT OF RIGID INQUIRY

Taft Sternly Enforces Law in Case of Portland Boy, Brother of Officer Who Was Killed in Annapolis Affray.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The rumors of suspension and expulsion heard about the United States Military Academy for the past two months, found official confirmation today in a final order signed by the committee and approved by the President for the dismissal of seven cadets. They were found guilty of having Cadet Rolando Sutton, of Portland, Or.

The cadets are John H. Booker, Jr., of West Point, Ga., first class; Richard W. Hooker, Kansas City, Mo., third class; Earl W. Dunmore, Utica, N. Y., third class; Chauncey N. Devore, Wheeling, W. Va., third class; Gordon Le Fevre, Richmond, Va., third class; Albert Crane, Hawarden, Iowa, third class; Jacob S. Fortner, Dothan, Ala., third class.

Their dismissal is in accordance with Military Academy regulations providing that any cadet guilty of having "shall be summarily dismissed from the Military Academy."

Sutton Would Not Name Them.

On the morning of June 14 last Cadet Sutton, of the fourth, or plebe class, a brother of Lieutenant Sutton, of the Marine Corps, whose death has been under investigation by a court of inquiry, reported sick and was ordered to the hospital. He died there, suffering great pain. He did not report for duty again until 23 days later and his case immediately became a matter of concern to the Department, when it was seen that the authorities intended to investigate.

Before the board of investigation Sutton proved a most reticent witness. His testimony has been given out, but the gossip has been that, though he gave a complete narrative of his adventures on the night of June 13, he professed to have been unable to recognize his assailants.

Last Doubt Is Cleared.

One hundred and fifty seven witnesses—a large fraction of the total enrollment of the academy—are understood to have been commanded to tell all they knew and, in ways satisfactory to itself, the board learned what cadets were to blame. The findings were then forwarded to Washington, where they were given the closest attention and twice returned to West Point for further elucidation. When the last point of doubt had been cleared, the War Department, with the approval of President Taft, took the decisive action announced today.

No comment on the affair is made by officers here, but it is understood that they approve heartily of a stiff front in even trivial cases of horse-play. Since the last delinquents were reinstated, it is believed the cadets thought having to be more highly treated. The order of dismissal, therefore, is welcomed as wholesome.

Beaten for Beating "Ghost."

The understanding here is that Sutton was "boomed" by a sheeted ghost, and that he defended his personal dignity and his duty so effectively that the ghost was glad to take to the woods. A relief party of "nobobins" then descended on him, with tent pegs and beat him into submission.

Throughout the investigation Sutton stood loyally by his fellow-cadets, which has won him high popularity. The dismissed upper-classmen have little hope of reinstatement, as the President is not likely to reverse his decision.

What Dismissed Cadets Say.

The seven dismissed cadets left the reservation tonight after making the following statement:

"On the night of June 13 a large number of cadets had a little celebration. There was no thought of having anyone. We encountered a cadet sentry. We did not know it was Sutton, or even that it was a 'plebe.' He ran after some of the men and tackled them. There was a friendly skirmish and the sentry was hurt.

"As we understand it, there must be a deliberate or malicious intent to constitute hazing. There was no such intention on our part.

"We were summoned before the court and each was obliged to convict himself by his own testimony. That seems a little hard. Please state, however, that we have the highest respect and admiration for the commandant of cadets and the court."

SHADOW ON MRS. SUTTON'S LIFE

Brother Mysteriously Murdered and Slayer Never Was Found.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The findings of the San court of inquiry are of peculiar interest in Los Angeles, for the Lieutenant went to school here. Mrs. Sutton's friends here understand her passionate, almost hysterical, conduct of this navy scandal.

This is the second terrible tragedy of her life. Her brother was murdered while she lived in Los Angeles under circumstances fully as mysterious as the conditions surrounding the death of her son. The brother's death was an unmistakable murder, and apparently drove her almost to frenzies of suspicion and accusation.

Mrs. Sutton's brother was Charles Brandt. He became engaged to a girl in St. Louis and went east to claim his bride. Opposition to the marriage was raised by some members of her family. One night young Brandt went out to mail a letter. Just as he was slipping it into the postbox he was shot in the back and killed.

The family made almost as frantic efforts at that time to uncover the mystery of his death as in the case of Lieutenant Sutton, but no clew was found.

One of the daughters has been visiting in Los Angeles lately to escape the public gaze in Portland.

POPE IS SORRY FOR ELIOT

Head of Catholic Church May Reply to American Scholar.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A special from Rome to the Tribune says: The address delivered by Professor

Charles Eliot before the Harvard Summer School has been translated by the Pope's order, that he might thoroughly comprehend it. The translation was read with great care by his holiness, who expresses profound regret that a man of such authority and culture as Dr. Eliot should spread such theories that, he said, are not in fact the basis of a new religion of the future, but a negation of the faith and principles which are the foundation of Christianity and modern civilization.

The Pope is reported to have said it would be easy to refute and destroy Mr. Eliot's argument, and highly praised Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia; Bishop McPhaul, of Trenton, and other American ecclesiasts who hastened to defend their church and faith.

It is believed that a semi-official reply to Dr. Eliot's address on the lines suggested by the Pope himself will appear in the Civiltà Cattolica, the most representative Catholic magazine.

FARLEY SCOFFS AT DR. ELIOT

Says His "New Religion" Ridiculous and That Idea Absurd.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A special from Queenstown to the Record-Herald says: Archbishop Farley of New York left Queenstown yesterday on his way home. Cardinal Logue, cardinal of Queenstown from Armasah, especially to see Archbishop Farley off, as did several other Irish bishops. His attention was directed to the recent statement of Dr. Eliot, regarding what the coming religion was to consist of.

"It's too absurd for anything," said the Archbishop. "There never was a religion of that kind. There is no philosophy that does not contemplate the supernatural. This man thinks that America is going to do in the twentieth century what will never be done—a thing too preposterous—and he has no more authority to talk upon a matter of that kind than you have. He is a layman, but has got an idea that he knows everything, I suppose. But no, that's too absurd."

NEW ROAD IS RUMORED

NORTHERN PACIFIC MAY USE SOUTH BANK OF SNAKE.

Lewiston Learns of Renewed Activity in Railroad Circles in Contested Territory.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The purchase of the Snake River line from Riparia to Pasco by the Northern Pacific is regarded here as indicative of a decision on the part of the Northern Pacific to build an independent line from Lewiston to Riparia on the south bank of the Snake River.

The Riparia-Pasco line was constructed by the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Road to effect connection with the joint line to be operated by the Hill interests between Riparia and Grangeville. The joint operation plans have not been realized and for the past year the interests have been parleying.

The view is entertained in railroad circles that the Spokane, Portland & Seattle connection at Riparia was satisfactory to the Northern Pacific as long as the joint operation was prospective, but when a question of constructing an independent line from Lewiston to Riparia was involved, the Northern Pacific did not care to be dependent upon an outlet over a strictly Hill road when every indication points to a sacrifice of the Northern Pacific interests to the advantage of the Great Northern and North Bank roads. The Riparia-Pasco line was thought worthless to the North Bank without a connection up the river, but would form the connecting link for the Northern Pacific direct line from Missoula to Portland or Seattle.

The construction work on the Missoula cutoff from Missoula to Kootenai has already been inaugurated and the Northern Pacific already owns the right of way on the south bank of the Snake River from Lewiston to Riparia. A recent suit of ejectment filed by the Northern Pacific indicates an intention of clearing the title to the bridge site across the Snake River at Lewiston and has given rise to the rumors that activity on the south bank may be expected at any time.

RECORD TRIP WITH JAPS

Steamer Minnesota Ordered to Show Speed Across Pacific.

SEATTLE, Aug. 19.—Orders have been issued to the officers of the Great Northern Steamship Minnesota, which is bringing to this country a party of Japanese who will travel all over the United States, that the vessel shall make the trip to Seattle in record time.

The party is composed of 23 business men of Tokio, Yokohama, Osaka, Kobe, Kioto and Nagayo. Some will bring their wives and some their secretaries, so that the party will exceed 50. Daylight fireworks will greet the visitors when the steamer enters the harbor on September 2, and the wharf at which they will land will be gay with the intermingled flags of Japan and the United States.
