OREGON PEOPLE CONTEST

Los Angeles Policeman and Wife Are Charged With Poisoning Mind of Octogenarian—Brother and Niece in Oregon.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—(Special.)—Nearly all the relatives of William Riley, who died at 418 Temple street February 22 last, are joining in a contest of the will, which disposes of an estate of half a million dollars.

Mind Poisoned, Wealth Diverted. The relatives assert that these two, with others, poisoned the mind of Riley against his relatives and induced him to leave Long one-ninth of the estate and to make a codicil to the will, making Long the payee for two notes for $15,000 and $500.

Oregon Niece Disinherited. This house and property had been first left to his niece, Mrs. Jennie Waterpaugh, but the will filed for probate practically disinherited her.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Aug. 27.—(Special.)—Miss Lura Hefty, of this place, has received official notice that she is to sail October 5 on the Mongolla, for Kuching, China, which is located about the center of the eastern coast, about 100 miles inland. Miss Hefty is being sent by the Woman's Foreign Mis-

Aerial Sprint Today. The contest tomorrow for the international cup, known otherwise as the Gordon Bennett trophy, to go to the aviator who covers two laps, or 12.4 miles, in the shortest time, is regarded as the principal event of aviation week. Le Febvre will contest in a Wright machine. The Wright managers admit their machines are slower than the Blériot, Curcias and Latham aeroplanes, but certain gains have been made in the propeller. Le Febvre's propeller which, it is believed, will give him increased speed. Furthermore, they are convinced that Le Febvre will be able to make appreciable gains in time at the turns, and consequently they have not abandoned hope of winning the Gordon Bennett trophy.
