JEROME'S HOPE IS HELP OF MURPH

Once Acclaimed as "Prince Rupert of Fusion," Now Is Drummed Out.

MURPHY TESTS STRENGTH

If He Finds Jerome Can Get Votes, He Will Forget Blistering Talk, but Tammany Men Can't Agree on Problem.

BY LLOYD P. LONERGAN. NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Dis-trier Attorney William Travers Jeroma, by announcing himself an independent candidate for re-election, has caused a certain amount of interest, but mighty little enthusiasm.

He is repeating his action of four years ago, but conditions are very different. In 1865 men fought for the "honor" of being on the list of "Jerome nominators," and the Republican leaders who prevented his nomination by their party were roundly denounced. His meetings blazed with enthusiasm, and his cause with enthusiasm, and his cause was championed by men of all classes and all political beliefs. Everywhere he went he was hailed as the foe of the bosses, and the man who could be relied upon to mete out equal justice to the poor and the rich with the course.

This year the old enthusiasm is lacking, and the only question asked is "has Je-rome made his deal with Charley Muror is he simply working a bluff For, strange as it may seem, the only hope of this once leader of independents lies in being faken up by the organiza-tion he has for years been bitterly at-

Only Hope Is in Tammany.

It was Edward M. Shepard who gav erome his popular nickname. He called im the "Prince Rupert of the fusion area," and the title stuck for some time. But the "Prince" is now a lonely figure in politics, and is willing to drop his fitle to accept the command of a regiment under Marshal Murphy.

Shrewd observers say that if Jerome carries out his expressed determination and runs as an independent, he will be lucky to poll 19,260 votes. The Republicans will positively have nothing to do with him; his old friends in the citzens' Union regard him as a backelider; the Committee of One Hundred, particularly the labor men, are openly hostile. His only chance is to impress Tammany Hall with his sterling ability as a vote getter. The man who will decide that question ts Charles F. Murphy. Jerome has called Murphy "an ignorant barkeeper," the "head of a band of thieves," the "leader of an organization that thrives on the degradation of women," and other cute things like that. But William Randolph Hearst ran a dead heat with Jerome in the Billingsgate sinkes and even said that Murphy should be in convict's stripes. He also painted pictures along that line, so that friends of the leader could see how he would look in Sing Sing uniform

All the same, Murphy ran Hearst for Governor a year later, because he be-lieved it would strongthen the organiza-And if conditions call for it he will abtedly place Jerome on the ticket this year, although he hates every halr

Several district leaders have told him that the District Attorney would add be-mensely to the strength of the licket Others insist that not only would be be slaughtered, but that he would imperil his Tammany running mates. The leaders in this latter faction, which is quite strong, declare they have no personal ani-mus, but that they are reporting conditions exactly as they find them.
All of which has caused Mr. Murphy to shake his head and decline, for the present, to commit himself one way or the Jerome's ardent friend inside the organization is Sheriff "Tom" Poley. Foley is a political Jekyll and Hyde. Personally he is charitable to a fault, his word is as ne is charitable to a raint, his word is as good as his bond and he is absolutely loyal to the men he admires. Politically, he is the head of the worst band of polit-ical guerillas, highbinders and ballot-box stuffers in the world. He was Heatri's firm ally for years, sent him to Congress, becomed him for President and had much to do with believe about his comparation to do with bringing about his nomination for Governor. He never got a cent for it never asked or expected any return, but when he ran for Sheriff, Hearst's papers reasted him day in and day out. For Hearst had an Independence League candidate of his own at that time.

If you should meet "Tom" Foley now-adays and ask him about Hearst, he will froth at the mouth. But Poley was his ardent boomer for years, and now he is Jerome's backer. All of which causes certain people to draw comparisons and suggest that perhaps, for a second time, "Big Tom" has allowed his kindly nature to run away with his indement. And it to run away with his Judgment. And it does not help Jerome Newspapers of Many Opinions.

The newspapers, which are supposed to have well-informed political reporters, are all at sea regarding the present situation. The Morning World says that Jerome is "backed by Foley and the Sullivans," while the Evening World, published under the same done, declares that the Sullivans are against him.

"The wise ones in the corresponding to the control of th

"The wise ones in the organization," declares the Tribune, "believe that at the final show-down Murphy will name Gay-nur for Mayor and Jerome for District Attorney."
This is almost as conclusive as the statement in the Morning World that "It was asserted positively yesterday by friends of Judge Caypor that he would never consent to run for Mayor on the same ticket with Jerome."

The Press announces that "It is practically assured that Jerome will be nominated." while the Globe states "Tammany has no intention of naming Jerome," and the Mail remarks, "Jerome's statement was carefully planned and had been submitted to many friends beforeing given out to the public," while the Brening Post declares, "It (the statement) came as a surprise."

The American says editorially: "Of

The American says editorially: "Of course he will be the Tammany candidate," thereby acting as an antidote to the views of the staid Brooklyn Times, which remarks: "If Jerome expects Tammany support, he will be grievcustly disappointed. The Tiger has no use for him." This is the consensus of opinion as painted in the daily papers.
Now here is the confidential side of

Two Tammany district leaders have told me they believe Jerome will be nominated, two others may be will be turned down, and five frankly admit that they haven't the "tentant idea what will happen. A Tammany Assem-blyman, who is admittedly close in Murphy's confidence, says the "boss" has no use for Jerome. An Alderman nas no use for serome. An Adderman of equally high standing says he has reason to believe the organization has made terms with the District Attorney ind will nominate him this Fall.

Drummed Out by Fusionists.

The fact of the matter seems to be that Murphy is simply "sounding sen-timent." There will probably be no official announcement until the eve of official announcement until the eve of the primaries, perhaps not until the delegates are in session. Then, if Murphy believes Jerome wil strengthen his ticket, the word will be sent out to the obedient delegates.

In the meantime Jerome's name will be on the ballot by petition as an independent, and his friends hope that this action will remove the stigma of a Tammany nomination.

All of which cannot hide the fact that "Prince Rupert," he of the tireless voice, the blistering vocabulary, the hatred of Tammany Hall and the famous brass checks, has been drummed out of the fusion camp and is now hoping for a chance to enlis-under the blag flag of Tammany Hall.

His Desire to Leave Department by October 1 Will Not Be Hindered by Anyone.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.-That Ormsby McHarg, Assistant Secretary of Com merce and Labor, believes his recent in erview regarding conservation policles has not embarrassed President Taft or his administration; that he is ready to step from office immediately if such should be the construction placed upon his stillude regarding the methods of preserving the forests, and that the views which he has expressed are his own with-out reference to his official position, seems to be a summary of the situation which has created so much discussion since Mr. McHarg's original interview. Mr. McHarg said today that Secretary Nagel knew him well enough to place the proper construction on the sentiment he has expressed, and to know that he would do nothing to embarrass either the President or his immediate superior. Mr. McHarg seems to consider that his published interview does not in any way after the relations which have existed since he accepted the assistant secre-

RHEIMS, Aug. 20 .- Avation week hich ended today with a gala breakfast given by the committee of organization in honor of the aviators, has been an enormous success financially. Over 200,000 paid for admission to the aerodrome yesterday and probably 100,000 more people witnessed the flights from the hills outside the course. The aeroplane companies took orders for 52 aeroplanes, most of them from perons not before interested in aviation. This alone proves how powerful imagination has been affected,

Among the speakers were the Mayor of Rheims, M. Langlis and M. Loreau, president of the mixed aerial commission. The latter referred to the disappointment of France at the failure to retain the international cup, the speed trophy captured by Cur-tiss, and provoked a hearty round of ap-plause when he added:

"But I appropriate for myself and all Frenchmen the remark of Bleriot when he learned that France had been defeat-ed. This was: 'I will go to American and win it back."

The Marquis de Polignac announced that a second series of contests among aviators would be held August 21, 1910. The Marquis de Polignac announced a gift of $2000 to Latham by a Parls news paper "for his beautiful flights."

The two forward propellers were broken and a fragment of one of them pierced the envelope, permitting the gas to escape. The airship, however, was to escape. The airship, however, was kept up by throwing over ballast until a favorable landing place was reached. The ship came down gently, and it now rests in a meadow. It will take at least two days to complete repairs. Tele-grams have been sent to Friedrichshafen for workmen, materials and gas.
