Auto of Springfield Postmaster Blows Up; Family Just Escapes.

EUGENE Or. Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The family of Postmaster Washburne, of Springfield, had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday evening through an accident which set fire to their automobile before they could climb out of the car.

Mr. Washburne and his family were going to the mouth of the Susiaw in the Postmaster's new car. It was about dusk when the machine, which had climbed a rock that had been bridged by a preceding automobile party, dropped with the gaso-line tank over the rock in such a way that it sprung a leak, allowing the gaso-line to recape. This ignited almost in-stantly. The top was on the car, and be-ore the five occupants reached the round flames almost surrounded them. However, all got out and watched from a distance the explosion. The occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Washburne, Mrs. J. Clark, Miss Helen Washburne and Mr. Washburne's sen, all of whom were brought to Springfield this evening. The accident happened about seven miles east of Mapleton. The car will need a new body and rear wheels.

CLEARING UP LAND TITLES

Special Agents Make Visit to Kla-

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 20. (Special.)—H. P. Jones, a special agent of the General Land Office, and Peter Ogden Applegate, State Land Agent, arrived from Salom last evening to inspect some lands about the lakes the titles of which are in question between the state and the United States. The greater part of the lands in this section have long since been classified. either as Government or as belonging to the state under the swamp land grant of March 12, 1860, but there are odds and ends still undetermined The classification of these becomes very important, since the Klamath Basin is now coming into its own and the rich alluvial lands about the lakes will soon be in great demand.

INSISTS MILL COMPANY SHALL BRIDGE OPEN RACE.

Lives of 15 Children Have Been Lost in Stream in Past 15 Years. Message Sent to Council.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 30.-(Special.)-At the meeting of the City Council this evening Mayor Rodgers submitted a special message regarding the failure of the owners of the North and South Mill Creek ditches to build and maintain bridges over the stream where the ditches cross the streets.

After stating that it is a well-known fact that the city has heretofore built all bridges over the South Mill Creek ditch and kept them in repair, the mes-sage says that "the owners have declared their intention of continuing to blocade the streets, aldewalks and crossings un-til the courts compel them to place cover-Pacific, was in Salem today, the guest

SPOKANE. Wash., Aug. 30.—(Special.)

—The Pan Tans, a secret political organization, exposed by City Commissioner Carl W. Tuerke, today issued a statement declaring that Tuerke hadbeen expelled for telling secrets.

Members of the order say: "About two months before Mr. Tuerke startled the public with his 'revelation,' the Order, of Panta Pantois became aware that their secret work was being made public. It was also found that certain City Hall officials were being regularly informed as to the doings of the order. The responsibility for those leaks was finally charged to Mr. Tuerke, and a formal SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 30.-(Special.) charged to Mr. Tuerke, and a formal complaint was entered against him. He was formally tried by the lodge and after a vigorous defense on his own part, was expelled for disclosing the secrets of the order."

Commissioner Therke gave out the following statement in answer to this explanation today:

"The only charge of which I ever re-ceived any notice was that I had re-fused to assist in the promotion of one of the members of the order when the Stranger Leaves Wallet at Depot, Gives No Name and Disappears on Train.

SEASIDE, Or., Aug. 30.-(Special.)-When C. M. Knox, a tourist from Al-pina, S. D., started out for a walk along Clatsop Beach yesterday he took along his purse containing $6200 in drafts, checks and money; when he returned to his hotel he found that purse, papers and money were missing.

Naturally Mr. Knox was greatly dis turbed. He retraced his steps and ot his friends and others to search the sands with him, but there was nothing doing. Then Mr. Knox adopted the usual Seaside method of advertising his loss. He posted notices through the grove and at the Moore Hotel.

A stranger who was going away on the afternoon train about this time appeared at the Astoria & Columbia depot with a wet and dirty purse, which he had found half buried in sand and water on the They opened it, learned that th contents were valuable and that the name of the owner was C. He found Knox, Knox got his pocketbook and all it contained; but no one knows the finder's name. He will learn something to his advantage by communicating with Mr. Knox.

FINCH EXTENDS LIFE LEASE

Delays Execution of Sentence by Demanding Rehearing.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 30 .- (Special.) -- Attorneys for James A. Finch, convicted murderer of Ralph B. Fisher, today filed petition for rehearing with the clerk of the Supreme Court. Practically the same grounds are alleged as those set forth in the brief filed with the court prior to the argument of the appeal. No-tice is also given that another brief will be filed in a few days.

The decision of the Appellate Court, affirming the conviction of Fineh by the trial court, was handed down just 20 days ago today, the defendant taking the full 20 days allowed by law. As business in the Supreme Court will be practically suspended for the next month, it is probable that the Finch appeal will not be considered by the court until October. In the meantime the mandate will not be handed down and Finch will remain in the Multnomah County Jail

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds kim-self regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well cat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness. To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves,
