LIQUOR DEALER LICENSES—Judge Bennett yesterday morning in the Municipal Court held that the City Council is properly authorized to make such laws regarding the regulation of the liquor traffic as that body may deem fit in the city of Portland and decided against the appeal of a liquor dealer, of 140 Third street. Brunn was arrested on the complaint of J. H. Hutchinson, a deputy license inspector, who charged a licensee with conducting a wholesale and a retail liquor business upon a retail liquor license. Because Brunn persistently refused to pay $500 for the wholesale license, the licensee caused his arrest to force him to pay up. For failing to procure this license after having been duly warned by the license inspector, Judge Bennett imposed a fine of $50. Attorneys for Brunn gave notice of appeal. They maintained that it was unconstitutional for the Council to ask two licensees for the same license.

OPENING FALL MEETING—The East Side Business Men's Club will hold its first meeting in September tonight in the club-rooms of the Healy building, corner Grand avenue and East Morrison street, to lay plans for a general improvement campaign for Central East Portland and the surrounding district. Every body interested is invited to come forward with suggestions, which will be incorporated in the future plans of the club. "Get your thinking cap on," are the words of the notice the secretary has sent out. The important questions are: Purchase of Hawthorne Park by the city; widening of East Water street from 60 to 80 feet; how to get a playground for the East Side; the enlargement of the harbor; the widening of the waterway; and the matter of laying water mains. Probably plans for the next Rose Festival will be considered.

MUST GO TO FEDERAL JAIL—Charles Nickell and Joe D. Barnard, two of the convicted Oregon land-fraud defendants, have been notified to surrender themselves to the Federal authorities, which may mean service of their sentences, the United States Supreme Court having refused to set aside the judgment of the trial court. Barnard was convicted of perjury August 1906, and was sentenced to two years at McNeill's Island and fined $300. Nickell was convicted of conspiracy to suborn perjury and was sentenced to serve 12 months at the Federal prison.

B. W. LATTON KNOWN HERE—Bernard W. Latton, assistant sergeant-at-law of the United States Senate, who died in California, August 5, is remembered by a great many Portland people. Mr. Latton was employed as one of the subordinate officers of the upper house of Congress for about 12 years, until two years ago falling health made it necessary for him to give up the work and go to California for his health. During the last few years of service at Washington, Mr. Latton visited Portland a number of times and formed a large number of acquaintances here.

WORK ON ST. FRANCIS CHURCH—Work on St. Francis Church, which is being erected on East Pine between East Eleventh and East Twelfth, is proceeding rapidly. Father J. H. Black, the pastor, is looking after the erection of the building. No general contract was let, and the erection of the church is being carried forward under the charge of a foreman. It will be of frame construction, but will be neater fire-proof than many brick structures, as the exterior will be covered with concrete several inches thick, placed on metal laths.

STAMP SALES INCREASE—Stamp sales at the Portland Postoffice for the month of August amounted to $1,000, as compared with $2,494.90 for the corresponding month a year ago. This difference of $1,494.90 represents an increase of 15.6 per cent. Postmaster J. H. Black reports that sales of stamps was exceedingly brisk during the month, with the exception of the last 10 days, with the result that the percentage of increase for the month is not quite as large as for preceding months.

GRAND AVENUE FILL IS DONE—The fill on Grand Avenue through the Suburban Slough has been completed, and appears to have settled to a solid foundation. It is something over three blocks in length and the avenue above the slough is 25 feet in height. About 10,000 cubic yards of material was used in the embankment. After a short walk sidewalks will be put down and the embankment will be covered with crushed rock.

Potter, who was run down by an automobile driven by street car No. 13, at Third and Morrison streets, Tuesday, is placed upon the driver of the car by Mrs. Potter's husband, who was a witness of the incident. "The automobile was on the wrong side of the street," said Mr. Potter. "The chauffeur, who was driving the car, was not paying attention, and she was just turning when the automobile struck her. The automobile was not traveling above the speed limit, but was straggling on the left-hand side of the street." The extent of Mrs. Potter's injuries had not yet been ascertained yesterday afternoon.

BRIDES DONE IN SEVEN MONTHS—City Engineer Morris said yesterday that the Madison street bridge is progressing rapidly, and that there is no reason why it cannot be completed and ready for service in seven months. The substructure is in place, and the bridge is being built in the rear future. Barring delays in the shipments of steel or some unforeseen accident, the bridge should be ready for use on contract time.

Corbett-Smith Wedding Is Society Event

Ceremony Performed at Unitarian Church, and Reception Follows at South Residence on Portland Heights—Couple Off for Europe Tomorrow.

FOR the past few days there has been a marked influx from the beaches owing to the wedding of Miss Alta Smith and Elliot R. Corbett which occurred yesterday at noon at the Unitarian Church. Dr. T. L. Elliot performed the ceremony, and a pretty sentiment was read by Dr. Elliot. The bride, who is acknowledged one of the most charming and popular girls in society, made a splendid picture in a lovely gown of ivory satin with full length sleeves, and held in place by a cluster of orange blossoms, which were arranged in a coronet effect. The bodice was elaborately and artistically decorated with a necklace of diamonds which was Mr. Corbett's gift, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

The decorations for the church were on an artistic but simple scale, pinks, pink asters, lilies, Oregon grape and ferns being used. The decorations for the house were on an elaborate scale, roses in great profusion being used, and the lilies of the valley, pink tiger lilies and orchids. Owing to the beautiful day the majority were served in the garden, which presented a most picturesque effect of color with men in frock coats, matrons and girls in filmy Summer gowns and picture hats and gayer parasols.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith and a sister of Miss Leslie Smith and Lloyd Smith. Mr. Corbett is the second son of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett and a grandson of Mrs. W. S. Ladd and Mrs. H. W. Corbett.

The bride is a graduate of Smith College and one of the best favorites at college, having held every possible collegiate office of honor. Mr. Corbett is a Harvard man and was conspicuous on the football team last year. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett left in their motor for the country and will leave tomorrow for the East, sailing on September 9 for Europe on the George Washington. They will be abroad for two months and upon their return to America will visit in the East before coming home for the holidays.

DIVIDE TAFT'S TIME

City and Bourne Will Share in Entertaining President.

FINAL DECISION REACHED

President Will Be Guest of Local Committee Saturday, October 2. Will Speak That Night at Armory.

President Taft will be considered the guest of the city and will be in the hands of the local committee on Saturday morning at 7 o'clock until that night at 10 o'clock, and after that he will be turned over officially to Senator Bourne for safekeeping. This is the decision reached by the committee of the whole, which met in open session yesterday afternoon at the City Hall, Mayor Simon presiding. The President, even though he is not in strict accord with those of the members of the committee, was the conclusion of the committee, came after discussing all phases of the situation. Thus Mr. Taft's visit will be divided into two distinct and separate parts, and Senator Bourne will have the distinguished guest over night Saturday, October 2, and all day Sunday.

While T. B. Wilcox announced that he had reserved a wing of the Hotel Portland for President Taft and party prior to the date upon which Senator Bourne reserved the same suite, Mr. Wilcox said that he would not use such a suite, but would insist upon the priority of the claim on the rooms. Mr. Wilcox said that he does not care anything about the matter, but he is common with the other members of the committee, wished to see President Taft the guest of the city, and not of any individual, while Senator Bourne is the guest of the city and of the local committee and military escort, and will be taken to the Hotel Portland to breakfast, with members of the committee. After breakfast he will be taken about the city and through the downtown streets, and then those who wish to see him at that time. He will then be given a luncheon at the Portland, and the afternoon will be free. At 7:45 P. M. the committee will meet in the City Hall, and the President is scheduled for a brief public address. Here the duties of the committee end. The President will be escorted to the hotel to become the guest of Senator Bourne for the remainder of his stay. Sunday afternoon the President will lay the cornerstone of the United States Postoffice, Twenty-fourth and Broadway, and will leave for California at 9 P. M.
