SYNDICATE PLANS

Spanton Assigns Receipt for First Deposit to United States Trust Company - Jacob Accused of Threat to "Block."

The tangle of interests and counter-interests, of claims and counter-claims, terests, of claims and counter-claims, caused by the purchase of the old County Poorfarm by W. A. Spanton, was put in the limelight yesterday afternoon, when Attorney E. V. Littlefield, counsel for Frank Bollam, took the depositions of H. R. Heynolds, D. E. Keasey and Spanton before Circuit Judge Gatens. Attorney Littlefield first asked that all defendants in the suit brought by Bollam be excluded from the courtroom, with the exception of the one on the witness stand. This motion was resisted by Atexception of the one on the witness signd. This motion was resisted by Attorney Pipes, appearing for some of the defendants, and Judge Gatens decided that in taking depositions as in the contract of the con defendants, and Judge Gatens decided that in taking depositions, as in trying a case, the parties to the suit cannot be excluded from the room.

Bollam is suing Reynolds, Keaser, Spanton, B. M. Lombard, Fred Jacobs, Harry L. Suydam, Judge Webster and County Commissioners Lightner and Barnes to prevent the Commissioners from giving Spanton and his associates a deed to the county property, averring from giving Spanton and his associates a deed to the county property, averring that they acted collusively in its purchase, and thus prevented competitive bidding. Bollam has deposited with the County Court a certified check for $5000 to show his good faith, and promises to submit a bid higher than that of the defendants in case the present suit is decided in his favor.

Trust Company Assignee.

From yesterday's testimony it appears that the County Court's receipt for the $300 paid by Spanton on the property was assigned by the latter to the United States Trust Company, and that Reynolds holds all the stock in the concern except one share, held by his wife and his secretary, George Peck. What interest Spanton or his associates now have in the property did not appear from yesterday's testimony, as Spanton was not asked what he received in return for his assignment of interest to the corporation. The original plan was for four of the serties defendant to form the corporation and to finance the deal.

Mr. Reynolds testified yesterday afternoon that, before Spanton placed his hid he (Reynolds) talked to Commissioner Barnes, and asked him how much the Commissioners expected to obtain for the poorfarm. Reynolds said that Barnes told him if the county received $550 an acre for the property the County Court would consider that it was getting all the land

After the bids were opened," continued Reynolds, "Judge Webster stepped down from the bench and shook hands with Mr. Spanton, and in congratulating him said: 'You have put in a good, big bid, and are entitled to the property.' Spanton's bid was 558 an acre, repre-enting a total of $154,430. Reynolds testified that he told Spanton he was willing to take a block of the corporation stock in case a syndicate was organized to finance the poorfarm deal and place the property on the market. The plan was to make the farm an addi-

Reynolds said;he had a talk with Spanton and Lombard in Jacobs' office on June 16, two days before the contract of sale for the farm was awarded, and that tiley agreed to take Keasey into the deal. Before they left for dinner they signed what Reynolds termed a "gentlemen's" agreement to form the corpora-tion. The witness testified that he con-templated dividing his share with Dr. An-

Spanton said that after the four had laid their plans to incorporate, he met Jacobs, and the latter said, half jokingly: "Look here, Billy, you had better let me in on this or I will block you. I know you haven't this deal financed yet." Reynolds said Spanton told him that Ja-cobs intended to use his influence with the County Court to "queer" the deal in some way unless Jacobs was admitted to the corporation. The upshot of it was that Jacobs was taken in. Suydam was also taken in later, and Keasey dropped out. The latter said last night that it was not because he lacked funds that he decided to drop from the deal, but because Jacobs and Suydam were admitted to the syndicate. to the syndicate.

While on the witness stand Reynolds took occasion to flay Attorney George Joseph for what he termed unfair treatment. Reynolds said he had employed Joseph, and that the latter was now using the information thus obtained for the benefit of Reynolds' enemies.

"I am not now on speaking terms with Joseph," said Raynolds.

Keasey told of a talk he had with Lombard, who also submitted a bid to the County Court is which they came to the county Court. is which they came to the conclusion that Lombard would not receive the contract for the property, and that it would be best to join Spanton's syndicate. All denied that Lombard threatened to file a higher bid than Spanton's. A protest which Lombard filed with the County Court early in July, offering to pay $30,000 on July 18, when it was due, in case Spanton was unable to raise the money, was introduced in evidence yesterday. Dotted over the beautiful park at the Oaks yesterday were groups of children, self-conscious in their importance as "stars." They were members of the big class of Professor M. M. Ringier, out for a rehearsal of the events the little people are to engage in next Monday. Donatell's band went over the programme with the youngsters and everything was found to be in shipshape.

Labor day at the Oaks will be one stored away in the memory as an epoch. The great pleasure park is to be given

School children of 10 years and under elders will be attracted to the park to witness the antics and capers of the little men and women in their carnival. The Oaks is an ideal place for both young and old to put in an afternoon or evening. On Monday there are to be Maypole dances and others of a characteristic acture. Being a legal holiday, the little students in the public schools naturally expect something out of the ordinary for their benefit. The Oaks management has recognized this expectation and has arranged all sorts of entertainment for his little

A "flock" of clowns has been engaged to be on the grounds and assist in making fun, and the swimming pool will ave some surprises to offer. The Tyroleans, from the far-away Alps will be an object lesson to the little folks, and the wonderful Desperado in his great act will fill their little souls with miration for his daring-as well as "Please, mamms, take me to the Oaks Monday," probably will be the request most frequently made in the next two days by the junior Portlanders.

"My baby's eczema came on when he was three months old, like a rash on his face and then spread over his head. Then there began to form a lot of small pimples over his head from which a watery substance came out and formed a regular mass of crust all over his head, face and body. on his hands to keep him from scratching himself. He was a fearful sight to look at. I went to a drug store and tried some of their remedies for eczema but they did not do him any good. I then called in one of our leading physicians and he tried several kinds of medicine and gave me prescriptions, but they only made him worse.

"At this stage a lady friend of mine came in and advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. That afternoon I sent for a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and one vial of Cuticura Pills, and in less than a week I could see a vest improvement in him. I washed him all over every morning with the Cuticura Soap and gave him an application of the Cuticura Ointment after his bath. I kept on using the Cuticura Remedies until he was completely cured. They left his skin clear and healthy and I always have kept the Cuticura Remedies in the house ever since. I highly recommend Cuticura to all persons suffering from eczema. Afflicted Men Cured Forever

REASONS FOR MY UNEQUALED SUCCESS

It is not so much in knowing a great deal about many things, as in knowing all about a few things. When a doctor graduates from a medical college it is after the various professors have tried to impart their knowledge to him, and it takes about 12 or 15 professors in the various lines of study four years to qualify a student for the practice of medicine, and then he is simply licensed—not qualified.

Does a sane man expectation of medicine, and then he is simply licensed—not qualified.

Does a same man expect a medical student to go forth from a college as thorough in knowledge in each branch as the individual professor who finds it necessary to devote his entire time to a single subject, such as anatomy or chemistry, and who is then far from perfect? It is a poor rule that won't work both ways—if one professor is not competent to teach a student all about snatomy, chemistry, physiology, histology, obstetrics, surgery, pathology, basery, pathology, basery, pathology, basery other branches too numerous to meniton, that he is expected to be thorough in, how must the raw recruit of Does a sane man ex-

a medical stude nt be expected to retain what the combined efforts of 12 or 15 men have tried to crowd into him? It the combined efforts of 12 or 15 men have tried to crowd into him? It never has been done and never will be. The doctor who is successful is never has been done and never will be. The doctor who is successful is the doctor who specializes in some particular line. He does not have to be a hypocrite about advertising, and devotes all his time to his special line of work, and is therefore generally a man proficient enough to have something worth advertising and willing to pay the market price, instead of sponging it in a hundred different ways.

I don't mean, however, that every doctor who advertists is airight any more than every doctor who don't advertise. There are good and bad on both sides of the fence. My offices have been established 31 years, are incorporated under state laws and furnish best bank and personal references.

Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation, which gets into the circulation because of weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, and other physical irregularities which are usually considered of no importance. Nothing applied externally can ever reach the seat of this trouble; the most such treatment can do is soothe the pains temporarily; while potash and other mineral medicines really add to the acidity of the blood, and this fluid therefore continually grows more acrid and vitiated. Then instead of nourishing the different muscles and joints, hereing them in a normally supple and electic condition. keeping them in a normally supple and elastic condition, it gradually hardens and stiffens them by drying up the natural oils and fluids. Rheumatism can never be cured until the blood is purified. S. S. S. thoroughly cleaness and removates the circulation by presentation. renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and driving the cause from the system. It strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a sour, weak stream, depositing acrid and painful corrosive matter in the muscles, joints and bones, it nourishes the entire body with pure, rich blood and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. contains no potash, alkali or other harmful mineral, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of great purifying and tonic properties. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

MEN CURE

I Fulfill Every Promise

I do not care what your experience has been with other treatments, what guarantees you have, and what promises were unfulfilled in the past, as unsuccessful, unscientific treatments and unreliable concerns are in no way a reflection upon honest, trustworthy business methods lived up to by me for twenty-five years. I have an established reputation and my guarantee means that my patients are indisputably insured of success in their case. There is all the difference in the world between a guarantee of this kind and the promises of those mushroom concerns which are continually falling in business. I repeat my straightforward, square proposition to wait for my fee until the cure is effected.

forward, square proposition to wait for my fee I not only thoroughly cure my patients but I am usually able to effect a cure in less than half the time most physicians require to produce even partial results. Were I lacking in knowledge pertaining to my specialty I would never have attained my present success, nor would I today be recognised as the leading specialist treating mens diseases. I ask you to call at my office and talk with me about your case. Examination and consultation will cost you nothing, and I will explain to you my methods of curing.
